Sculpture Space, Recent Trends Sarah A. Clark-Langager, 1984      Sculpture Space Sarah A. Clark-Langager, Munson-Williams-Proctor Institute, 1984      Sculpture Market Trends Gideon Fairchild, AI, 2025-02-22

Sculpture Market Trends offers a comprehensive exploration of the financial aspects of the sculpture and 3D artwork market. It delves into how these unique art forms command diverse prices influenced by factors like historical significance and material composition. Readers will gain insights into market trends and learn to identify investment opportunities, making it a valuable resource for artists, collectors, and investors. The book uncovers the economic principles governing the sculpture market, arguing that despite subjective aesthetic preferences, discernible financial dynamics are at play. It traces the market's evolution from ancient times to the digital age, highlighting the impact of technological changes on artistic production and market demand. The approach is analytical and data-driven, using auction house data and market reports to support its arguments. Organized for a holistic view, the book starts with art valuation and market dynamics before exploring factors driving sculpture prices, such as artist reputation and craftsmanship. Major sections cover various sculpture types, including emerging trends like 3D printed art. It culminates in practical strategies for buying, selling, and investing, complete with case studies and expert insights.

Current Trends in Narratology Greta Olson, 2011-03-29

Current Trends in Narratology offers an overview of cutting-edge approaches to theories of storytelling. The introduction details how new emphases on cognitive processing, non-prose, and multimedia narratives, and interdisciplinary approaches to narratology have altered how narration, narrative, and narrativity are understood. The volume also introduces a third post-classical direction of research: comparative narratology, and describes how developments in Germany, Israel, and France may be compared with Anglophone research. Leading international scholars, including Monika Fludernik, Richard Gerrig, Ansgar Nünning, John Pier, Brian Richardson, Alan Palmer, and Werner Wolf, describe not only their newest research but also how this work dovetails with larger narratological developments.

Sculpture and the Museum Christopher R. Marshall, 2017-07-05

Sculpture and the Museum is the first in-depth examination of the varying roles and meanings assigned to sculpture in museums and galleries during the modern period, from neo-classical to contemporary art practice. It considers a rich array of curatorial strategies and settings in order to examine the many reasons why sculpture has enjoyed a position of such considerable importance and complexity within the institutional framework of the museum and how changes to the museum have altered in turn the ways that we perceive the sculpture within it. In particular, the contributors consider the complex issue of how best to display sculpture across different periods and according to varying curatorial philosophies. Sculptors discussed include Canova, Rodin, Henry Moore, Flaxman, and contemporary artists such as Rebecca Horn, Rachel Whiteread, Mark Dion, and Olafur Eliasson, with a variety of museums in America, Canada, and Europe presented as case studies. Underlying all of these discussions is a concern to chart the critical importance of the acquisition, placement, and display of sculpture in museums and to explore the importance of sculptures as a forum for the expression of programmatic statements of power prestige and the museum's own sense of itself in relation to its audiences and its broader institutional aspirations

Modern Sculpture Reader Jon Wood, David Hulks, Alex

Potts, 2012-08-21 In many anthologies of art sculpture is given short shrift in relation to other media if it is treated at all

Modern Sculpture Reader aims to rectify this situation by presenting a collection of important texts that have defined sculpture's radically changing status and role since the end of the nineteenth century a time marked by a general reappraisal of the forms and functions of art From the rigorously theoretical to the experimental and poetic Modern Sculpture Reader offers a lively discourse on the medium by a range of artists writers critics and poets Marcel Duchamp Louise Bourgeois Claes Oldenberg Andr Breton Ezra Pound and Clement Greenberg in a variety of genres poems lectures transcribed interviews newspaper and magazine articles and artists statements These diverse text selections offer valuable insight into the development of the critical language of sculpture and its connections to other media in an era of increasingly conceptual artistic practice Many of the essays highlight key ongoing concerns such as sculpture's physical properties and conditions of display both of which have important implications for the viewer's tactile and emotional interaction with sculptural works
