Se Equivoco La Ciguena:

La India María Seraina Rohrer, 2017-12-20 La India Mar a a humble and stubborn indigenous Mexican woman is one of the most popular characters of the Mexican stage television and film Created and portrayed by Mar a Elena Velasco La India Mar a has delighted audiences since the late 1960s with slapstick humor that slyly critiques discrimination and the powerful At the same time however many critics have derided the iconic figure as a racist depiction of a negative stereotype and dismissed the India Mar a films as exploitation cinema unworthy of serious attention By contrast La India Mar a builds a convincing case for Mar a Elena Velasco as an artist whose work as a director and producer rare for women in Mexican cinema has been widely and unjustly overlooked Drawing on extensive interviews with Velasco her family and film industry professionals as well as on archival research Seraina Rohrer offers the first full account of Velasco s life her portrayal of La India Mar a in vaudeville television and sixteen feature film comedies including Ni de aqu ni de all Neither here nor there and her controversial reception in Mexico and the United States Rohrer traces the films financing production and distribution as well as censorship practices of the period and compares them to other Mexploitation films produced at the same time Adding a new chapter to the history of a much understudied period of Mexican cinema commonly referred to as la crisis this pioneering research enriches our appreciation of Mexploitation films

Rashkin, 2009-01-27 Women filmmakers in Mexico were rare until the 1980s and 1990s when women began to direct feature films in unprecedented numbers Their films have won acclaim at home and abroad and the filmmakers have become key figures in contemporary Mexican cinema In this book Elissa Rashkin documents how and why women filmmakers have achieved these successes as she explores how the women s movement film studies programs governmental film policy and the transformation of the intellectual sector since the 1960s have all affected women s filmmaking in Mexico After a historical overview of Mexican women's filmmaking from the 1930s onward Rashkin focuses on the work of five contemporary directors Marisa Sistach Busi Cortés Guita Schyfter María Novaro and Dana Rotberg Portraying the filmmakers as intellectuals participating in the public life of the nation Rashkin examines how these directors have addressed questions of national identity through their films replacing the patriarchal images and stereotypes of the classic Mexican cinema with feminist visions of a democratic and tolerant society
