The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash, 2019-10-23 This all inclusive A Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on. The work offers more than 5 000 three to five star entries: three stars good, four stars excellent, five stars masterpiece, and yes, author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a precis, each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying, Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing: recommended, acceptable, cautionary, and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre: i.e. animated, drama, sports, mystery, adventure, etc. as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death. Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection.

The Sea Gypsy Edward A. Salisbury, Merian C. Cooper, 1924

The Sea Gypsies of Malaya Walter Grainge White, 1922

Best Remembered Poems Martin Gardner, 1992-01-01 The 126 poems in this superb collection of 19th and 20th century British and American verse range from the impassioned Renaissance of Edna St Vincent Millay to Edward Lear's whimsical The Owl and the Pussycat. Famous poets such as Wordsworth, Tennyson, Whitman, and Frost are well represented, as are less well known poets.

Horses and Humans Shan de Wey, 2011-08-02 Throughout the pages, the author explains what draws humans to horses is the representation of beauty and freedom. Most of this compatibility comes from the horse's flexibility in joining with humans as partners. This material prompts the human to evaluate the reasons why he has chosen the horse as companions or athletic partners, or why he has chosen to breed them. This book is written with the hope that the knowledge I have acquired these many years will be helpful to create new lines of communication with our partners, the horse she shares. With more than ten eye-opening chapters, Horses And Humans: The Real Connection is not a training manual but more over to open the lines of communication. The book discusses choosing a horse that is right for each individual according to that person's personality and that of the horse; they choose the horse and its psyche, humans and their psyche, trainers and instructors, diagnostics and therapies including homeopathic, holistic, and conventional treatments, the art of lunging, classic principles of all riding techniques, equipment, and more. This book is written for the inexperienced amateur and professional riders as well. The author finds many proposed trainers are lacking in the fundamentals of understanding people and horses, particularly the psychological and physical connections that need to be established and understood.
