Austin Allibone, 1891      The People's Home Journal, 1921      The Academy, 1898      The Ladies' Repository, 1867

The idea of this women's magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey's Lady's Book and Snowden's Lady's Companion. Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews. Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr. By 1851 each issue published a piece of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits. When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000. Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family. After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository. The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart. Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own. Realistic writers seek to render accurate representations of the world and their novels contain authentic details and descriptions of their characters and settings. Like Realistic authors Naturalistic ones similarly try to portray the world accurately but they tend to depict the darker side of life. Realism was born in Europe in the nineteenth century and soon became popular in the United States while Naturalism became prominent at the beginning of the twentieth century. Both traditions have continued in one form or another to the present day and Realistic and Naturalistic novelists include some of America's most significant authors such as Sherwood Anderson Saul Bellow Ambrose

Bierce Willa Cather Theodore Dreiser Ralph Ellison and Jack London This reference includes biographical and critical entries for more than 120 American Naturalistic and Realistic novelists An introductory essay discusses the history of the Realistic and Naturalistic traditions points to the difficulty of defining them and surveys the many authors who have been associated with the two movements The entries that follow are arranged alphabetically to facilitate use Each includes basic biographical information and a narrative overview of the writer s educational background professional career and published works The writer s works are briefly discussed in relation to the Realistic and Naturalistic traditions Entries include primary and secondary bibliographies and the volume closes with a list of works for further reading     The English Catalogue of Books ...
