

'Juno and the Paycock' by Sean O'Casey

Questions for critical essays usually focus on character, setting, and theme. You should have detailed handouts and notes for all these aspects of the play.

In an exam the questions are unseen and you need to adapt your essay to fit the question. Here is an example of a question you may be asked:

Choose a play which deals with an important human issue.

Say what the issue is and go on to show how two or more characters in the play deal with this issue.

In your answer refer to at least two of: theme, setting, conflict, key scenes, climax, dialogue or any appropriate feature

Some of the issues we have looked at are religion, poverty, truth and illusion, and the role of the labour movement, which are all themes in 'Juno.' You could answer the question with an essay based on one of these human issues.

Introduction

You need to demonstrate:

- 1) an understanding of the question
- 2) how you intend to answer it

Include:

- The title
- The author
- The words of the question
- The theme
- A brief summary of the play

Example:

'Juno and the Paycock' is a play by Sean O' Casey which deals with an important human issue. The theme of _____ is explored through the various characters in the play. The play centres around a family of four, living in a tenement house in Dublin, during the Irish Civil War in the early 1920s. The family's fortunes change when they believe themselves to be the inheritors of a large sum of money. However, the family never receive the money and are left in a worse situation than before.

Tragedy and Irish Literature R. McDonald,2001-12-17 In Tragedy and Irish Literature McDonald considers the culture of suffering loss and guilt in the work of J M Synge Sean O Casey and Samuel Beckett He applies external ideas of tragedy to the three dramatists and also discerns particular sorts of tragedy within their own work While alert to the real differences between the three writers the book also traces common themes and preoccupations It identifies a conflict between form and content between heightened language and debased reality as the hallmark of Irish tragedy English Drama of the Early Modern Period 1890-1940 Jean Chothia,2016-07-01 The period 1890 1940 was a particularly rich and influential phase in the development of modern English theatre the age of Wilde and Shaw and a generation of influential actors and managers from Irving and Terry to Guilgud and Olivier Jean Chothia s study is in two parts beginning with a portrait of the period setting the narrative context and considering the dramatic social and cultural changes at work during this time It then focuses on some of the main themes in the theatre from Shaw and comedy to the rise of political and radio drama providing an interpretative framework for the period This volume will be of great benefit to students and academics of English literature and drama as it covers the work of the major dramatists of the period as well as considering the dramatic output of literary figures such as James Eliot and Lawrence A Companion to Modern British and Irish Drama, 1880 - 2005 Mary Luckhurst,2008-04-15 This wide ranging Companion to Modern British and Irish Drama offers challenging analyses of a range of plays in their political contexts It explores the cultural social economic and institutional agendas that readers need to engage with in order to appreciate modern theatre in all its complexity An authoritative guide to modern British and Irish drama Engages with theoretical discourses challenging a canon that has privileged London as well as white English males and realism Topics covered include national regional and fringe theatres post colonial stages and multiculturalism feminist and queer theatres sex and consumerism technology and globalisation representations of war terrorism and trauma Modern Irish Writers Alexander G. Gonzalez,1997-08-26 While the Irish Literary Revival began around 1885 and ended somewhere between 1925 and 1940 the Irish Renaissance has continued to the present day and shows no sign of abating The period has produced some of the most important and influential figures in Irish literature some of whom are counted among the world's greatest authors The Revival saw a reestablishment of Ireland's literary connections with its Celtic heritage and writers such as William Butler Yeats and Lady Gregory drew heavily on the myths and legends of the past James Joyce boldly reshaped the novel and wrote short fiction of enduring value Contemporary Irish writers continue to be leading figures and include such authors as Brian Friel Seamus Heaney and Eavan Boland Included in this reference book are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 70 modern Irish writers including Samuel Beckett William Trevor Patrick Kavanagh Medbh McGuckian Sean O'Casey J M Synge and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill Entries are written by expert contributors and reflect a broad range of perspectives Each entry contains a brief biography that summarizes the author's career a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary works An introductory essay reviews the large and growing body of scholarship on modern Irish literature while an extensive bibliography concludes the volume

Appropriations of Irish Drama in Modern Korean Nationalist Theatre Hunam Yun, 2022-09-09 This book investigates the translation field as a hybrid space for the competing claims between the colonisers and the colonised By tracing the process of the importation and appropriation of Irish drama in colonial Korea this study shows how the intervention of the competing agents both the colonisers and the colonised formulates the strategies of representation or empowerment in the rival claims of the translation field This exploration will be of great interest to students and scholars of theatre and performance studies translation studies and Asian studies
