Search For Community In A Withering Tradition:

Walking the Tightrope of Faith, 2023-12-28 This book expands upon the dialogue between the atheist philosopher Kai Nielsen and the Christian philosopher Hendrik Hart in the book Search for Community in A Withering Tradition Collected here for the first time are the responses of several prominent Canadian philosophers to Nielsen's outspoken work in the philosophy of religion including their responses to Hart's criticisms of Nielsen New replies by Hart and Nielsen to these added voices are also included This volume is of interest for students in the philosophy of religion who wish to examine the encounter between religious faith and secular humanism at the close of the twentieth century an increasingly postmodern time in which the appeal to an a historical standard of rationality is no longer sought or even thought possible This book tackles tough topics like the appropriate role of reason in the intellectual criticism and defense of faith the limits of the rational justification of human knowledge the role of pre reflective commitments in human intellectual life the nature of truth and the possibility for peace in a world consisting of a plural and often violent collection of cultural and religious groups

Herman Dooyeweerd Jonathan Chaplin, 2016-02-15 The twentieth century Dutch philosopher Herman Dooyeweerd 1894 1977 left behind an impressive canon of philosophical works and has continued to influence a scholarly community in Europe and North America which has extended critiqued and applied his thought in many academic fields Jonathan Chaplin introduces Dooyeweerd for the first time to many English readers by critically expounding Dooyeweerd's social and political thought and by exhibiting its pertinence to contemporary civil society debates Chaplin begins by contextualizing Dooyeweerd's thought first in relation to present day debates and then in relation to the work of the Dutch philosopher Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 Chaplin outlines the distinctive theory of historical and cultural development that serves as an essential backdrop to Dooyeweerd's substantive social philosophy examines Dooyeweerd's notion of societal structural principles and sets forth his complex classification of particular types of social structure and their various interrelationships Chaplin provides a detailed examination of Dooyeweerd's theory of the state its definitive nature and its proper role vis vis other elements of society Dooyeweerd's contributions Chaplin concludes assist us in mapping the ways in which state and civil society should be related to achieve justice and the public good a better understanding of classical idealism and addresses important areas of contemporary philosophical social and political concern      Naturalism Without Foundations Kai Nielsen, 1996 This volume considers in depth and carefully a cluster of issues central to contemporary philosophical and social scientific investigation while utilizing methods and conceptualizations at the very cutting edge of philosophy      "God Is Dead" and I Don't Feel So Good Myself Andrew Shutes-David, Christopher J. Keller, Jon Stanley, 2010-01-01 In this pertinent and engaging volume leading Christian philosophers theologians and writers from all over the denominational map explode the black and white binaries that characterize both sides of the New Atheism debate They transcend the self assured shouting matches of this latest expression of the culture wars by engaging in rigorous polychromatic Christian reflection that considers the extent to which the atheistic critique both new and old might help the church move toward a more mature faith authentic spirituality charitable witness and peaceable practice With generous openness and ferocious wit this collection of essays interviews memoir poetry and visual art including contributions from leading intellectuals activists and artists such as Stanley Hauerwas Charles Taylor John Milbank Stanley Fish Luci Shaw Paul Roorda Merold Westphal and D Stephen Long provides substantive analysis incisive critique and a hopeful way forward for Christian dialog with atheist voices Contributors Andy Barnes Peter M Candler Jr Becky Crook Brad Davis Courtney Druz Stanley Fish Brandi Gentry s Larry Gilman Stanley Hauerwas Robert Inchausti Ronald A Kuipers D Stephen Long Charles T Mathewes John Milbank Randal Rauser Dan Rhodes Paul Roorda Christine Sine Luci Shaw Jon Stanley Ben Suriano Charles Taylor and Merold Westphal      In Search of a Withering Community , 2002 Contributed articles      An Ethos of Compassion and the Integrity of Creation Brian J. Walsh, Hendrik Hart, 1995 An Ethos of Compassion and the Integrity of Creation addresses how to reconcile the lawful order seen in the world which the Institute for Christian Studies takes as given by God with the need for human compassion also called for by God The Institute sponsored this book in celebration of their twenty fifth anniversary An Ethos of Compassion and the Integrity of Creation opens with a study of parables relevant to today and closes with a meditation by Langdon Gilkey on the ideas brought forth in this book A study of the history of the idea of creation order central to the Institute s philosophical tradition is followed by a controversial challenge suggesting how that philosophical tradition can be changed to give centrality to the viewpoint of compassion toward vulnerable people and the physical environment Medical ethics the environment and gender chauvinism serve as case studies for issues of compassion and created order Contributors Atie Th Bruggemann Kruijff Adrienne Chaplin Jonathan Chaplin John Cooper Calvin B DeWitt Harry Fernhout Langdon Gilkey Sander Griffioen Carroll Guen Hart John E Hare Hendrik Hart Sylvia C Keesmaat J Richard Middleton James Olthius Elaine Storkey Johan van der Hoeven Allen D Verhey Brian J Walsh Albert M Wolters Nicholas Wolterstorff Copublished with the Institute for Christian Studies      Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers John R. Shook, 2005-01-01 The Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers includes both academic and non academic philosophers and a large number of female and minority thinkers whose work has been neglected It includes those intellectualsinvolved in the development of psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology politicalscience and several other fields before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy in the late nineteenth century Each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading While all the major post Civil War philosophers are present the most valuable feature of this dictionary is its coverage of a huge range of less well known writers including hundreds of presently obscure thinkers In many cases the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers offers the first scholarly treatment of the life and work of certain writers This book will be an indispensable reference work for scholars working on almost any aspect of modern American thought The

Bloomsbury Encyclopedia of Philosophers in America John R. Shook, 2016-02-11 For scholars working on almost any aspect of American thought The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia to Philosophers in America presents an indispensable reference work Selecting over 700 figures from the Dictionary of Early American Philosophers and the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers this condensed edition includes key contributors to philosophical thought From 1600 to the present day entries cover psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology and political science before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy Clear and accessible each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading Featuring a new preface by the editor and a comprehensive introduction The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia to Philosophers in America includes 30 new entries on twenty first century thinkers including Martha Nussbaum and Patricia Churchland With in depth overviews of Waldo Emerson Margaret Fuller Noah Porter Frederick Rauch Benjamin Franklin Thomas Paine and Thomas Jefferson this is an invaluable one stop research volume to understanding leading figures in American thought and the development of American intellectual history Starting With Foucault

C. G. Prado, 2018-03-05 Michel Foucault had a great influence upon a wide range of disciplines and his work has been widely interpreted and is frequently referred to but it is often difficult for beginners to find their way into the complexities of his thought This is especially true for readers whose background is Anglo American or analytic philosophy C G Prado argues in this updated introduction that the time is overdue for Anglo American philosophers to avail themselves of what Foucault offers In this clear and greatly revised second edition Prado focuses on Foucault s middle or genealogical work particularly Discipline and Punish and Volume One of The History of Sexuality in which Foucault most clearly comes to grips with the historicization of truth and knowledge and the formation of subjectivity Understanding Foucault s thought on these difficult subjects requires working through much complexity and ambiguity and Prado s direct and accessible introduction is the ideal place to start Shattering Silos Lambert Zuidervart, 2022-08-15

Questions first raised by Hannah Arendt in the 1960s take on new urgency in the post truth era as political leaders blithely reject facts in the public domain Is truth politically impotent Are politics inherently false Is the search for truth still relevant

Shattering Silos a companion volume to Religion Truth and Social Transformation and Art Education and Cultural Renewal provides a path breaking response As in his two previous books Lambert Zuidervart challenges the boundaries philosophers set up between epistemology ethics and political philosophy Knowledge he argues takes different forms in various social domains and all are subject to political struggle A critique of contemporary society must draw on many social domains of knowledge including the arts and religion and should recast politics as a striving for truth in the broadest sense Proposing a new conception of truth one that emphasizes the unity of knowledge and truth as well as their diversity among different social domains Zuidervart asks what such holism and pluralism suggest about how we understand politics and society This book proposes a new understanding of large scale social change challenging how most people think about knowledge and truth Interweaving epistemology social criticism and political thought Shattering Silos aims to help redirect an allegedly post truth society

Educating Christian Teachers for Responsive Discipleship Peter P. DeBoer,1993 Five members of the Calvin College Center for Christian Scholarship 1991 1992 team present some creative and constructive proposals for changes that could occur in the teacher education programs of hundreds of church related colleges Theoretically committed to a biblical vision of responsive discipleship the authors sketch out 1 a curricular theory that encourages many sided encounters with created reality which stimulate varieties of student responses that should arise ultimately from a commitment of the heart 2 a collaborative model of teacher education that urges congruent values to be held by the local school school district and the teacher education college and 3 a curriculum that arises in part out of the laboratory of the classroom through the interaction of teacher and student in a school organized to develop collegiality among teachers and students where through the use of evaluative portfolios student teachers learn to be reflective practitioners of the art and craft of teaching Co published with the Institute for Christian Studies

In the Phrygian Mode Robert Sweetman,2007 This volume has emerged from a small scholarly conference on the relationship between Christianity and Greco Roman civilization above all that civilization s characteristic patterns of philosophical thought The field of investigation is the neo Calvinist current within Dutch protestantism and the elaboration in the 1920s and 1930s of Calvinistic philosophy as one of its most distinctive effects this parish tale has more to recommend it than might appear at first blush For there is a good argument to be made why such a thoroughly local study can benefit a much broader segment of contemporary Protestantism

Icons of Unbelief S. T. Joshi,2008-10-30 Discusses the ideas and impact of 27 atheists agnostics and secularists whose ideas have shaped society over the last 200 years In the opinion of many critics and philosophers we are entering an age of atheism marked by the waning of Christian fundamentalism and the flourishing of secular thought Through alphabetically arranged entries written by expert contributors this book profiles 27 iconic figures of unbelief whose ideas have shaped American society over the last 200 years Included are entries on influential figures of the past such as Albert Einstein and Voltaire as well as on such contemporary figures as Richard Dawkins and Sam Harris Each entry discusses the ideas and lasting significance of each person or group provides sidebars of interesting information and illuminating quotations and cites works for further reading The volume closes with a selected general bibliography Students in social studies and history classes will welcome this reference as a guide to the ideas central to the American separation of Church and State and to many of the political debates at the heart of society today Each entry discusses the ideas and lasting significance of the person or group provides sidebars of interesting information and quotations and closes with a list of works for further reading The volume ends with a selected general bibliography Students in history and social studies classes will welcome this reference as a guide to the American separation of Church and State and to the ideas central to contemporary political debates Religion, Truth, and Social

Transformation Lambert Zuidervart, 2016-04-01 Reformational philosophy rests on the ideas of nineteenth century educator church leader and politician Abraham Kuyper and it emerged in the early twentieth century among Reformed Protestant thinkers in the Netherlands Combining comprehensive criticisms of Western philosophy with robust proposals for a just society it calls on members of religious communities to transform harmful cultural practices social institutions and societal structures Well known for his work in aesthetics and critical theory Lambert Zuidervart is a leading figure in contemporary reformational philosophy In Religion Truth and Social Transformation the first of two volumes of original essays from the past thirty years he forges new interpretations of art politics rationality religion science and truth In dialogue with modern and contemporary philosophers among them Immanuel Kant G F H Hegel Martin Heidegger Theodor Adorno J rgen Habermas and reformational thinkers such as Herman Dooyeweerd Dirk Vollenhoven and Hendrik Hart Zuidervart explains and expands on reformational philosophy s central themes This interdisciplinary collection offers a normative critique of societal evil a holistic and pluralist conception of truth and a call for both religion and science to serve the common good Illustrating the connections between philosophy religion and culture and daring to think outside the box Religion Truth and Social Transformation gives a voice to hope in a climate of despair Towards an Ethics of Community

James Olthuis, 2006-01-01 How do we deal with difference personally interpersonally nationally Can we weave a cohesive social fabric in a religiously plural society without suppressing differences This collection of significant essays suggests that to truly honour differences in matters of faith and religion we must publicly exercise and celebrate them The secular sacred public private divisions long considered sacred in the West need to be dismantled if Canada or any nation state is to develop a genuine mosaic that embraces fundamental differences instead of a melting pot that marginalizes An ethics of difference starts with a recognition of difference not as deviance or deficit that threatens but as otherness to connect with cherish and celebrate The book begins with the suggestion that our inability to come to terms with social plurality is not fundamentally the fault of religious differences and that a public private split inadequately deals with matters of basic difference It then explores how encouraging people to live out their respective faiths may open new possibilities for respectful honourable and just negotiations of contemporary dilemmas arising out of the multicultural fabric of Canadian life Towards an Ethics of Community introduces readers to some of the most challenging and divisive dilemmas we face in this increasingly pluralistic postmodern world issues such as family and domestic violence Aboriginal rights homosexuality and public policy and female genital mutilation This is a book truly global in scope and significance Naturalism and Religion Kai Nielsen, 2011-04-29 This elucidation and defense of naturalism argues that an uncompromising secular orientation is the best framework for the search for meaning and interprets religion in purely naturalistic terms Part One seeks to demonstrate that religious symbols arise from facts about human beings and the societies in which they live specifically our needs fears and aspirations Part Two examines arguments for and against naturalism including the defenses of naturalism by Sidney Hook Ernest Nagel Antony Flew and critical reactions to their views The forceful and rigorously analytical case made by Jean Hampton against naturalism is also examined resulting in a clarification of the substantial and sound methodological grounds for naturalism and atheism Part Three considers the strongest intellectual challenge to secularism and naturalism namely that of Ludwig Wittgenstein and some of his followers Norman Malcolm D Z Phillips Hilary Putnam Rush Rhees and Peter Winch Nielsen concludes that none of these critiques diminish the cogency and viability of naturalism as the most reasonable basis for viewing our world today Abraham Kuyper James D. Bratt, 2013-05 This is the first full scale English language biography of the highly influential and astonishingly multifaceted Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 theologian minister politician newspaper editor educational innovator Calvinist reformer and prime minister of the Netherlands from 1901 to 1905 James Bratt is the ideal scholar to tell the story of Kuyper s remarkable life and work He expertly traces the origin and development of Kuyper s signature concepts common grace Christian worldview sphere sovereignty Christian engagement with contemporary culture in the dynamic context of his life s story South African Journal of Philosophy , 1992 Why Am I Still a Christian? Joseph A. Buijs, 2021-03-12 Why am I a Christian Why is anyone a Christian or remain a Christian These questions can readily occur in our increasingly secular environment A prevalent mind set suggests that there is no point to being Christian that it is a cultural remnant of our upbringing a belief system out of step with enlightened thinking a moral code at odds with contemporary society Does it then still make sense to adhere to a Christian tradition Is it reasonable to be and remain Christian when atheistic criticisms imply otherwise A philosophical excursion explores these questions under the headings of Tradition Reason and Faith It critically discusses the what and the why of being Christian It differentiates explaining how we may have acquired faith and Christian commitment from justifying why it may nevertheless be reasonable to have faith and to remain Christian A personal narrative shows how approaches to these questions changed over the course of the authors personal life and academic career teaching philosophy Why am I or why is anyone a Christian Because as the author concludes it can be a reasonable choice to adopt and retain a Christian faith commitment
