about the United Nations United Nations. Department of Public Information,1950 A Search for Peace and Justice Michael Scott,Alexander Paul Hare,1980 Challenging the United Nations Peace and Security Agenda in Africa Dawn Nagar,2021-09-29 This book concerns the United Nations peacemaking peacekeeping peace building and post conflict reconstruction efforts in Africa from 1960 to 2021 Succinctly discussed are historic and contemporary peace security and economic engagements within 18 countries spanning eight African regions the Great Lakes the Economic Community of Central African States East Africa the Horn of Africa North Africa the Sahel Region West Africa and Southern Africa The book develops a neo realist and imperialist critique that discusses how resource rich conflict ridden states have become easy targets for capitalists terrorists and transnational crime aligned to geostrategic parochial interests Critically argued is that endogenous economic growth factors if applied effectively can achieve both peace and security and meet the Global Sustainable Development Goals Such efforts require constructive engagement with the five permanent members of the UN Security Council China France Russia the UK and the US However the book contends that the cornerstone of multilateral engagement involves Africa's 55 states and the African Union's three major pillars: the Peace and Security Council, the African Governance Architecture, and the Post Conflict Reconstruction Development Centre, which have the ability to move resource-rich conflict-ridden states out of transnational crime and poverty. This book offers wide-ranging analyses of contemporary African diplomacy and a compelling critique of UN peacekeeping efforts in Africa, which resonates to scholars of international relations, peace and conflict studies, and African politics.

A Look at the U N, 1958 The United Nations, Peace Operations and the Cold War Norrie MacQueen, 2014-05-12 This is the first introduction to the United Nations' activities during the Cold War period. Routledge Handbook of Conflict Response and Leadership in Africa Alpaslan Özerdem, Sinem Akgül-Açıkmeşe, Ian Liebenberg, 2021-09-14 This handbook explores the challenges and opportunities for leadership and conflict response in the context of Africa at several levels. Leadership plays a vital role in affecting conflict response but is frequently only examined at the macro level of state government and international organizations. This handbook addresses the need to explore challenges and opportunities for leadership at several levels: macro (global, regional, national), meso (NGOs, religious groups, academics), and micro (civil society organizations, youth groups, women's organizations). Analysis from multiple levels provides a broader explanation of conflict dynamics and helps to fit localized conflict transformation approaches into wider national or regional structures. The multidisciplinary essays presented in this volume encompass the psychological, political, and structural dimensions of conflict response and demonstrate how its success is fundamentally linked to the style of effectiveness of leadership among other factors. The volume is divided into four thematic sections: Part I: The theory and dynamics of conflict response and leadership; Part II: Macro-level leadership experiences in conflict response; Part III: Meso/micro-level leadership experiences in conflict response; Part IV: Recommendations for improved leadership in conflict response. This book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution, peace studies, African politics, security studies, and international relations in general.

A History of False Hope Lori Allen, 2020-12-15 This book offers a provocative retelling of Palestinian political history through an examination of the international commissions that have investigated political violence and human rights violations. More than twenty commissions have been convened over the last century, yet no significant change has resulted from these inquiries. The findings of the very first, the 1919 King-Crane Commission, were suppressed. The Mitchell Committee, convened in the heat of the Second Intifada, urged Palestinians to listen more sympathetically to the feelings of their occupiers. And factfinders returning from a shell-shocked Gaza Strip in 2008 registered their horror at the scale of the destruction but Gazans have continued to live under a crippling blockade. Drawing on debates in the press previously unexamined UN reports historical archives and ethnographic research Lori Allen explores six key investigative commissions over the last century She highlights how Palestinians persistent demands for independence have been routinely translated into the numb language of reports and resolutions These commissions Allen argues operating as technologies of liberal global governance yield no justice only the oppressive status quo A History of False Hope issues a biting critique of the captivating allure and cold impotence of international law In Search of the Blue Flower Alexander Hamilton,2023-05-01 Alexander Hamilton presents his early formative years sharing the way his engagement with the cyanotype process has informed his art practice from his time at Edinburgh College of Art to his program of exhibitions and residencies through to his work within the field of public arts This personal history is combined with essays by academics scholars and curators who engage with the intellectual roots of his work and practice A comprehensive selection of Hamilton s photography including his unique plant based cyanotypes completes this beautiful book A History of the United Nations Evan Luard,2016-07-27 This is the second volume of the first full scale history of the United Nations This volume deals with a period when the organization was involved with major crises over Suez Hungary Lebanon and India the Congo the Cuba Missile crisis and armed conflicts in West Irian Yeman Cyprus Kashmir and the Dominican Republic It covers the first four UN peace keeping operations in Sinai the Congo West Irian and Cyprus Commanders Digest ,1967 The Romance of History Scott L.
