Journeys of Transformation John D. Barbour, 2022-03-31 Western Buddhist travel narratives are autobiographical accounts of a journey to a Buddhist culture Dozens of such narratives have since the 1970s describe treks in Tibet periods of residence in a Zen monastery pilgrimages to Buddhist sites and teachers and other Asian odysseys The best known of these works is Peter Matthiessen s The Snow Leopard further reflections emerge from thirty writers including John Blofeld Jan Van de Wetering Thomas Merton Oliver Statler Robert Thurman Gretel Ehrlich and Bill Porter The Buddhist concept of no self helps these authors interpret certain pivotal experiences of unselfing and is also a catalyst that provokes and enables such events The writers spiritual memoirs describe how their journeys brought about a new understanding of Buddhist enlightenment and so transformed their lives Showing how travel can elicit self transformation this book is a compelling exploration of the journeys and religious changes of both individuals and Buddhism itself

Wild Cats of the World Mel Sunquist, Fiona Sunquist, 2017-05-15 Did you know that European royalty once used cheetahs to hunt deer or that caracals can capture birds by leaping six and a half feet straight up into the air from a standing start Have you ever wondered whether domestic cats really do land on their feet when they fall or how Canada lynx can stalk their prey in the winter without falling through the deep snow Wild Cats of the World is a treasure trove of answers to questions like these and many others for anyone who s interested in learning more about the world s felids including the ones with whom we share our homes Mel and Fiona Sunquist have spent more than a decade gathering information about cats from every available source many of them quite difficult to find including scientific papers descriptions of hunts archeological findings observations by naturalists and travelers reports from government agencies and newsletters from a wide variety of organizations Weaving information from these sources together with their own experiences observing wild cats around the world the Sunquists have created the most comprehensive reference on felids available Each of their accounts of the 36 species of cat contains a description of the cat including human interactions with it as well as detailed data on its distribution ecology and behavior status in the wild and efforts to conserve it Numerous photographs including more than 40 in full color illustrate these accounts Ranging from the two pound black footed cat to the five hundred pound tiger and from the African serval with its satellite dish ears to the web footed fishing cat of Asia Wild Cats of the World will fascinate and educate felid fans of any stripe or spot
