Transatlantic Studies

Cecilia Enjuto-Rangel, Sebastiaan Faber, Pedro García-Caro, Robert Patrick Newcomb, 2019-11-19 This book emerges from and performs an ongoing debate about transatlantic approaches in the fields of Iberian Latin American African and Luso Brazilian studies In thirty five short essays leading scholars reframe the intertwined cultural histories of the transnational spaces encompassed by the former Spanish and Portuguese empires

An Immigration of Theology Simon C. Kim, 2012-05-03 The theological reflections of Virgilio Elizondo and Gustavo Gutierrez are examples of the ecclesial fruitfulness of the second half of the twentieth century Following the directives of Pope John XXIII and the Second Vatican Council Elizondo and Gutierrez present the Gospel message in relevant terms to their own people by engaging the world as the Church of the poor Inspired by this moment in Church history while at the same time recognizing the plight of their people in their poor and marginal existence Elizondo and Gutierrez discovered a new way of doing theology by asking a specific set of questions based on their local context By investigating where God is present in the border crossers of the southwestern United States and the poorest of the poor in Latin America both theologians have uncovered a hermeneutical lens in rereading Scripture and deepening our understanding of ecclesial tradition Elizondo's mestizaje and Gutierrez's preferential option for the poor arose out of a theology of context a theological method that takes seriously the contextual circumstances of their locale By utilizing the common loci theologici of Scripture and tradition in conjunction with context and their own experience Elizondo and Gutierrez illustrate through their theologies how every group must embrace their own unique theological reflection

Gender and Migration Anastasia Christou, Eleonore Kofman, 2022-03-07 This open access short reader offers a critical review of the debates on the transformation of migration and gendered mobilities primarily in Europe though also engaging in wider theoretical insights Building on empirical case studies and grounded in an analytical framework that incorporates both men and women masculinities sexualities and wider intersectional insights this reader provides an accessible overview of conceptual developments and methodological shifts and their implications for a gendered understanding of migration in the past 30 years It explores different and emerging approaches in major areas such as gendered labour markets across diverse sectors beyond domestic and care work to include skilled sectors of social reproduction the significance of families in migration and transnational families displacement asylum and refugees and the incorporation of gender and sexuality in asylum determination academic critiques and gendered discourses concerning integration often with the focus on Muslim women The reader concludes with considerations of the potential impact of three notable developments on gendered migrations and mobilities Black Lives Matter Brexit and COVID 19 As such it is a valuable resource for students academics policy makers and practitioners
