Knowledge Production and the Search for Epistemic Liberation in Africa

Dennis Masaka, 2022-09-09 This book shows the importance of knowledge production using requisite terms and frameworks to the broader scheme of epistemic liberation in Africa The text considers what this veritable direction to knowledge production would mean to other areas of concern in African philosophy such as morality education and the environment

These contributions are important because the success of decolonising projects in African countries depend upon the methods that underpin envisioned liberative knowledge production in light of Africa's historical and present condition. This volume appeals to students and researchers working in epistemology and African philosophy.

Africa in Search of Democracy K. A. Busia, 2023-05-08 Originally published in 1967 reissued now with a new introduction Africa in Search of Democracy in the author's words was a humble contribution to Africa's search for political wisdom whereby to avoid destruction. Written by the author during his time in voluntary exile he was leader of the Parliamentary Opposition and of the United Party in Ghana which opposed the tyrannical rule of Nkrumah and his Convention People's Party. In this book he proposed to examine the problems facing contemporary Africa within the context of the search for democracy that is for the establishment of societies which provide the best possible conditions for individual as well as social development within the widest measure of democratic freedom. The burning questions of nation building of modernization of raising standards of living of achieving African unity or harmonizing race relations and world peace are discussed in relation to the quest for democracy.

Dealing With Conflict in Africa J. Boulden, 2003-12-04 Dealing with Conflict in Africa analyzes the role of the various organizations involved in conflict resolution in Africa. The bulk of the chapters examine case studies of the major conflicts in Africa such as the Congo War. For each case study the author looks at what responsibilities and tasks were taken on by different organizations, the relationship between the organizations and seeks to determine which kind of organization is the most effective in working towards successful conflict resolution. The contributors also examine the effectiveness of coalitions of states or eminent leaders to that of UN cooperation with regional organizations and what directions this cooperation should take in the future. The contributors are an international group of scholars and consultants all of whom are well positioned to analyze these issues.

Mapping Agency Ulrike Lorenz-Carl, Martin Rempe, 2016-05-13 Despite regionalism having developed into a global phenomenon the European Union (EU) is still more often than not presented as the role model of regionalism whose institutional designs and norms are adopted by other regional actors and organizations as part of a rather passive downloading process. Reaching beyond such a Eurocentric perception Mapping Agency provides an empirically rich African perspective on regionalisms in Sub-Saharan Africa. It adopts an actor-centred approach but departs from a rather simplified understanding of agency as exerting power and instead scrutinizes to what extent actors actually participate in or are excluded from processes of regionalism. The value of this volume derives from the inclusion of historical dimensions its open multi-actor approach to both formal and informal processes and its comparative perspective within but also beyond Sub-Saharan Africa. The chapters offer a multifaceted picture of agency beyond disciplinary divides where the EU is one actor.
