Seattle Transformed World War II to Cold War Seattle In The 20th Century:

Seattle in the 20th Century: Seattle transformed, World War II to Cold War Richard C. Berner, 1991 Seattle in the 20th Century: Seattle transformed, World War II to Cold War Richard C. Berner, 1999 Historic Preservation & the Imagined West Judy Mattivi Morley, 2006 She draws on extensive interviews city council proceedings and historic plats and photographs to construct a detailed picture of how these districts originally looked and were used how they were renovated and to what ends they were marketed The Resilient City in World War II Simo Laakkonen, J. R. McNeill, Richard P. Tucker, Timo Vuorisalo, 2019-05-27 The fate of towns and cities stands at the center of the environmental history of World War II Broad swaths of cityscapes were destroyed by the bombing of targets such as transport hubs electrical grids and industrial districts and across Europe Asia and the Americas urban environments were transformed by the massive mobilization of human and natural resources to support the conflict But at the same time the war saw remarkable resilience among the human and non human residents of cities Foregrounding the concept of urban resilience this collection uncovers the creative survival strategies that city dwellers of all kinds turned to in the midst of environmental devastation As the first major study at the intersection of environmental urban and military history The Resilient City in World War II lays the groundwork for an improved understanding of rapid change in urban environments and how societies may adapt Seattle's Women Teachers of the Interwar Years Doris Hinson Pieroth, 2012 In Seattle's Women Teachers of the Interwar Years Doris Pieroth describes the contributions of a remarkable group of women who dominated the Seattle public school system in the early years of the twentieth century and helped to produce well educated citizens who were responsible for the widespread philanthropic volunteer and municipal activities that came to characterize the city While most publications on the history of education have emphasized theory or administration Pieroth focuses on individual teachers Set against the backdrop of a developing city the book provides vivid portraits of educated strong ambitious women making successful careers at a time when job opportunities for women were very limited Pieroth interviewed as many of these women as she could find and quotes from the interviews enhance her lively well written narrative Using details drawn from local newspapers and school publications she demonstrates that the influence of this cohort of women made modern Seattle the livable place that it remains today Seattle's Women Teachers of the Interwar Years is a significant contribution to the history of Seattle and the region to women's history and to the history of education Seattle Transformed Richard C. Berner, 1999 1015 Second Avenue, 2010 Writing the Ghetto Yoonmee Chang, 2010 In the United States perhaps no minority group is considered as successful as the Asian American community which is often described as residing in positive sounding ethnic enclaves rather than in ghettos In this volume Yoonmee Chang exposes the unspoken class inequalities faced by Asian Americans while insightfully analyzing the effect such nations have had on their literary voices Encyclopedia of Archival Writers, 1515 - 2015 Luciana Duranti, Patricia C. Franks, 2019-04-26 The Encyclopedia of Archival Writers 1515 2015 is a reference work that includes the profiles of authors of literature about records and archives in the Western world who have shaped the records and archives field over a span of 500 years The 144 archival writers from 13 countries who are included in this volume were selected by an international advisory board on the basis of their impact on the records and archives profession and discipline the presence of their publications in educational programs reading lists and the frequency of reference to their work Among the writers included in this volume are Albertino Barisone of Padua 1587 1667 Sir Hilary Jenkinson of England 1882 1961 Adolf Brenneke of Germany 1875 1946 Theodore R Schellenberg of the United States 1903 1970 Robert Henri Bautier of France 1922 2010 Terry Cook of Canada 1947 2014 Vicenta Cort s Alonso of Spain 1925 Eric Ketelaar of the Netherlands 1944 Aurelio Tanodi of Argentina 1914 2011 Ian Maclean of Australia 1919 2003 and Verne Harris of South Africa 1958 Arranged in alphabetical order each entry includes a biography intellectual contributions and a brief essential bibliography A total of 113 educators professionals and students in the records and archives field 55 of whom are also profiled in this Encyclopedia contributed to this volume There is no other book in any language that focuses on the life and work of authors of records and archives literature In fact there is not easily available information on such writers Thus most entries involved quite a bit of research on dead writers and interviews with the living ones Several living writers supported this work by accepting to author their own entry

A Companion to the American West William Deverell, 2008-04-15 A Companion to the American West is a rigorous illuminating introduction to the history of the American West Twenty five essays by expert scholars synthesize the best and most provocative work in the field and provide a comprehensive overview of themes and historiography Covers the culture politics and environment of the American West through periods of migration settlement and modernization Discusses Native Americans and their conflicts and integration with American settlers

The Family Jeff Sharlet, 2008 A journalist s penetrating and controversial look at the untold story of Christian fundamentalism s most elite organisation a self described invisible global network dedicated to a religion of power for the powerful They are the Family fundamentalism s avant garde waging spiritual war in the halls of American power and around the globe They consider themselves the new chosen congressmen generals and foreign dictators who meet in confidential cells to pray and plan for a leadership led by God to be won not by force but through quiet diplomacy Jeff Sharlet is the only journalist to have reported from inside its walls The Family is about the other half of American fundamentalist power not its angry masses but its sophisticated elites In public they host Prayer Breakfasts in private they preach a gospel of biblical capitalism military might and American empire Citing Hitler Lenin and Mao as leadership models the Family s current leader Doug Coe declares We work with power where we can build new power where we can t Part history part investigative journalism The Family is a compelling account of how fundamentalism came to be interwoven with American power and the no holds barred economics of globalisation No other book about the Right has exposed the Family or revealed its far reaching impact on democracy and no future reckoning of fundamentalism will be able to ignore it

Seattle Monorail Project ,2004 A Superpower Transformed Daniel J. Sargent,2015 Geopolitics and globalization collided in the 1970s and their collision produced difficult challenges for the makers of American foreign policy A Superpower Transformed explains how policymakers across three administrations worked to manage complex international changes in a tumultuous era and it explores the legacies of their efforts to accommodate American power to new forces stirring in world affairs Current Contents. Arts & Humanities Institute for Scientific Information,2001 A Concise History of the World Since 1945 W. M. Spellman,2020-09-16 This lively synthesis of global history since the end of World War II offers a gripping account of an interdependent world and the challenges facing individuals in the 21st century The narrative is arranged around two key tensions the struggle between socialism and free market capitalism and the interaction between cultural fragmentation and the competing integrative force of globalization Considering the historical experience of Africa Asia and Latin America as well as the West it addresses the ever expanding gulf between the developed North and developing South and the environmental impact of development on the planet s delicate ecosystems Authoritative and well written this is an ideal introductory guide for undergraduate and postgraduate students taking courses on global history since 1945 It is also a fascinating primer for anyone with an interest in global history and the issues affecting the globe today New to this Edition Updated to cover events since 2006 including the conflicts in Afghanistan Iraq and Syria China s economic and military advance to great power status the refugee crises and the global financial crisis of 2008 New material on the international drugs trade global opioid crisis and healthcare implications Expanded material on social media Updated material on environmental issues considering US disengagement from traditional global partners in the area of climate change and the Trump administration s distrust of climate science and executive roll back of established environmental laws More social history especially coverage of women and recent developments around issues of sexuality Expanded section on Islam to include developments within the mainstream as opposed to radical tradition worldwide and current historiography

Pacific Northwest Quarterly ,1999 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003-04 Oregon Historical Quarterly Oregon Historical Society,1999 Diasporic Cold Warriors Chien-Wen Kung,2022-03-15 In Diasporic Cold Warriors Chien Wen Kung explains how the Chinese Nationalist Party Kuomintang sowed the seeds of anticommunism among the Philippine Chinese with the active participation of the Philippine state From the 1950s to the 1970s Philippine Chinese were Southeast Asia s most exemplary Cold Warriors among overseas Chinese During these decades no Chinese community in the region was more vigilant in identifying and rooting out suspected communists from within its midst none was as committed to mobilizing against the People s Republic of China as the one in the former US colony Ironically for all the fears of overseas Chinese communities ties to the PRC at the time the example of the Philippines shows that the China that intervened the most extensively in any Southeast Asian Chinese society during the Cold War was the Republic of China on Taiwan For the first time Kung tells the story of the Philippine Chinese as pro Taiwan anticommunist partisans tracing their evolving relationship with the KMT and successive Philippine governments over the mid twentieth century Throughout he argues for a networked and transnational understanding of the ROC KMT party state and demonstrates that Taipei exercised a form of nonterritorial sovereignty over the Philippine Chinese with Manila s participation and consent Challenging depoliticized narratives of cultural integration he also contends that because of the KMT Chinese identity formation and practices of belonging in the Philippines were deeply infused with Cold War ideology Drawing on archival research and fieldwork in Taiwan the Philippines the United States and China Diasporic Cold Warriors reimagines the histories of the ROC the KMT and the Philippine Chinese connecting them to the broader canvas of the Cold War and postcolonial nation building in East and Southeast Asia America, History and Life ,2007 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada
