far beyond the region Replaced by ISBN 9780295741345 Ghosts Among Us Leslie Rule, 2011-05-13 Do you believe in ghosts Whether you are a believer or a skeptic the stories of the supernatural in Ghosts Among Us True Stories of Spirit Encounters will keep you riveted Macabre and fascinating Ghosts Among Us offers true life haunting accounts of eerie visitations and paranormal experiences along with artistically shot black and white photographs of haunted sites The personal firsthand reports and chilling full length stories are bolstered by sidebars of actual accounts of Ghosts in the News Each chapter explores mysterious events events that the reader will find hard to pass off as mere coincidence In her quest to uncover explanations for each incident Leslie Rule extensively researched library archives and interviewed credible witnesses historians renowned psychics and parapsychologists Throughout Ghosts Among Us Rule's findings are mesmerizing She writes about being raised in a haunted house To top that Rule explains my mother introduced me to a serial killer when I was fourteen The reader is invited to skip ahead to learn about that chilling episode but the pages prior to that offer their own gripping spell binding encounters Classic American Ghost Stories Deborah L. Indigenous Cities Laura M. Furlan,2017 In Indigenous Cities Laura M Furlan demonstrates that stories of the urban experience are essential to an understanding of modern Indigeneity She situates Native identity among theories of diaspora cosmopolitanism and transnationalism by examining urban narratives such as those written by Sherman Alexie Janet Campbell Hale Louise Erdrich and Susan Power along with the work of filmmakers and artists In these stories Native peoples navigate new surroundings find and reformulate community and maintain and redefine Indian identity in the postrelocation era These narratives illuminate the changing relationship between urban Indigenous peoples and their tribal nations and territories and the ways in which new cosmopolitan bonds both reshape and are interpreted by tribal identities Though the majority of American Indigenous populations do not reside on reservations these spaces regularly define discussions and literature about Native citizenship and identity Meanwhile conversations about the shift to urban settings often focus on elements of dispossession subjectivity and assimilation Furlan takes a critical look at Indigenous fiction from the last three decades to present a new way of looking at urban experiences that explains mobility and relocation as a form of resistance In these stories Indian bodies are not bound by state imposed borders or confined to Indian Country as it is traditionally conceived Furlan demonstrates that cities have always been Indian land and Indigenous peoples have always been cosmopolitan and urban

Paranormal America Christopher D. Bader,F. Carson Mencken,Joseph O. Baker,2011-01-05 A significant number of Americans spend their weekends at UFO conventions hearing whispers of government cover ups at New Age gatherings learning the keys to enlightenment or ambling around historical downtowns learning about resident ghosts in tourist targeted ghost walks They have been fed a steady diet of fictional shows with paranormal themes such as The X Files Supernatural and Medium shows that may seek to simply entertain but also serve to disseminate paranormal beliefs The public hunger for the paranormal seems insatiable Paranormal America provides the definitive portrait of Americans who believe in or have experienced such phenomena as ghosts Bigfoot UFOs psychic phenomena astrology and the power of mediums However unlike many books on the paranormal this volume does not focus on proving or disproving the paranormal but rather on understanding the people who believe and how those beliefs shape their lives Drawing on the Baylor Religion Survey a multi year national random sample of American religious values practices and behaviors as well as extensive fieldwork including joining hunts for Bigfoot and spending the night in a haunted house authors Christopher Bader F Carson Mencken and Joseph Baker shed light on what the various types of paranormal experiences beliefs and activities claimed by Americans are whether holding an unconventional belief such as believing in Bigfoot means that one is unconventional in other attitudes and behaviors who has such experiences and beliefs and how they differ from other Americans and if we can expect major religions to emerge from the paranormal Brimming with engaging personal stories and provocative findings Paranormal America is an entertaining yet authoritative look at a growing segment of American religious culture Space Oddities Stefan L. Brandt, Michael Fuchs, 2018 Space Oddities Difference and Identity in the American City approaches a space and place central to the American imagination the city In particular this volume discusses the paradoxes of American cities and American urban life In this way the book critically engages with the paradoxes of the American identity embodied by cultural practices in and cultural representations of urban life in the United States Series American Studies in Austria Vol 16 Subject Sociology American Studies Cultural Studies Urban Studies
