Encyclopedia of International Sports Studies Roger Bartlett, Chris Gratton, Christer G. Rolf, 2012-08-21. Now available in paperback the Encyclopedia of International Sports Studies is the most authoritative and comprehensive single volume reference work ever published on sport. With over one million words of text arranged into more than 1000 entries and articles it covers the full range of sub disciplines within sports studies including scientific, social, scientific and medical approaches. The encyclopedia is alphabetically organized and consists of principal articles covering key disciplinary areas such as sports economics and sports history, large topical entries on central subjects such as resistance training and the diagnosis of sports injuries, smaller topical entries on subjects such as cross training and projectile motion, short overviews of other important terms and concepts from metabolism and motivation to muscle tension length relationship. With over 150 contributing authors from the US, UK, Canada, Australia, South Africa, Japan, New Zealand, Hong Kong and continental Europe the Encyclopedia of International Sports Studies is an unparalleled work of sports scholarship. Accessibly written, facts fronted and including full cross referencing and guides to further reading throughout this is an essential addition to the bookshelf of any student, researcher, teacher or professional working in sport. Bunions Derby Charles B. Kastner, 2007-10-15. The story of Charley Pyle's 3400 mile cross country race and extravaganza and the men who endured 84 days of mountains, deserts, mud and sandstorms to compete for a $25,000 grand prize. The Ultimate Guide to Trail Running and Ultramarathons Jason Robillard, 2014-11-11. Jason Robillard has been doing ultramarathons for many years and started advocating for barefoot running before it was cool and is considered an authority on it. In this guide he teaches trail running newbies and experienced marathoners essential survival skills and tips for running long distances: how to run in snow, ice and mud; how to cross large streams of water; what to do when you have to go number 2 on mile 30 of a 50 mile run; preparing for trouble; building a fire; surviving in the heat and cold; running in thunderstorms. The book is written with an irreverent sense of humor and touches on topics that many running books don't get into. Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Sports Publishing imprint is proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in sports books about baseball, pro football, college football, pro and college basketball, hockey or soccer.
