Mitcham Jr., 2000-08-30 The Allied landings in Normandy on June 6 1944 marked the beginning of the German defeat in the West Military historian Samuel W Mitcham Jr vividly recaptures the desperation of the Wehrmacht as the thin gray line in Normandy finally snapped the 5th Panzer and 7th Armies collapsed and the survivors fled the Allied steamroller in a mad dash back to the Reich From the reactions of soldiers in the field to military decisions at the highest levels this is the story of the Reich's unraveling told from a German perspective Fighting hedgerow to hedgerow in the pitted Normandy landscape would delay the Allied Advance and make each small victory a costly one Western forces would achieve their first strategic objective the port of Cherbourg but they would find it reduced to rubble a result of the best planned demolition in history Still the Allies did benefit from an ongoing anti Hitler conspiracy that relayed false information to Berlin While German forces would finally bring the Allied juggernaut to a halt on the borders of the Reich itself this brief success would only delay the inevitable With colorful descriptions and informative details Mitcham recounts the German military retreat and the erosion of Germany's stronghold on Europe as viewed through the eyes of a defiant but ultimately defeated Wehrmacht

D-Day: The Decision to Launch Antony Beevor,2013-05-21 The little known drama of the last minute decision to launch the invasion of Normandy excerpted from the internationally bestselling D Day The Battle for Normandy In D Day The Decision to Launch excerpted from Antony Beevor s bestselling book D Day The Battle for Normandy readers get the little known story of how the difficult decision was made to launch the Allied invasion of France on June 6 1944 The stakes could not have been higher if Operation Overlord were to fail it would be a crushing blow to the Allies a huge loss of both men and equipment The decision of when to launch rested with supreme commander General Dwight D Eisenhower but it hinged on one factor the weather If there was too much cloud cover the Allied bombers wouldn't be able to provide air support and if the seas were too rough the landing craft would be swamped It fell to one man to predict the weather Dr James Stagg the head of the meteorological team at Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force This riveting selection from D Day praised by Time as a vibrant work of history that honors the sacrifice of tens of thousands of men and women tells the fascinating inside story of one of the most important decisions of World War II Journal officiel ...
