Colorblind Tools Marzia Milazzo,2022-10-15 Winner of the 2023 Association for Ethnic Studies Outstanding Book Award A study of anti Blackness and white supremacy across four continents demonstrates that colorblindness is neither new nor a subtype of racist ideology but a constitutive technology of racism In Colorblind Tools Marzia Milazzo offers a transnational account of anti Blackness and white supremacy that pushes against the dominant emphasis on historical change pervading current racial theory This emphasis on change she contends misses critical lessons from the past Bringing together a capacious archive of texts on race produced in Brazil Cuba Mexico Panama the United States and South Africa from multiple disciplines and genres Milazzo uncovers transnational continuities in structural racism and white supremacist discourse from the inception of colonial modernity to the present In the process she traces the global workings of what she calls colorblind tools technologies and strategies that at once camouflage and reproduce white domination Whether examining Rijno van der Riet s defense of slavery in the Cape Colony discourses of racial mixture in Latin American eugenics and their reverberations in contemporary scholarship the pitfalls of white antiracism or Chicana indigenist aesthetics Milazzo illustrates how white people collectively disavow racism to maintain power across national boundaries and how anti Black and colonial logics can be reproduced even in some decolonial literatures Milazzo s groundbreaking study proves that colorblindness is not new nor is it a subtype of racist ideology or a hallmark of our era It is a constitutive technology of racism a tool the master cannot do without

Critical Perspectives on Afro-Latin American Literature Antonio D. Tillis, 2012-04-23 After generations of being rendered virtually invisible by the US academy in critical anthologies and literary histories writing by Latin Americans of African ancestry has become represented by a booming corpus of intellectual and critical investigation This volume aims to provide an introduction to the literary worlds and perceptions of national culture and identity of authors from Spanish America Brazil and uniquely Equatorial Guinea thus contextually connecting Africa to the history of Spanish colonization The importance of Latin America literature to the discipline of African Diaspora studies is immeasurable and this edited collection provides a ripe cultural context for critical comparative analysis among the vast geographies that encompass African and African Diaspora studies Scholars in the area of African Diaspora Studies Black Studies Latin American Studies and American literature will be able to utilize the eleven essays in this edition to enhance classroom instruction and further academic research

The Cambridge Companion to the Latin American Novel Efraín Kristal, 2005-05-26 The diverse countries of Latin America have produced a lively and ever evolving tradition of novels many of which are read in translation all over the world This Companion offers a broad overview of the novel s history and analyses in depth several representative works by for example Gabriel Garc a M rquez Machado de Assis Isabel Allende and Mario Vargas Llosa The essays collected here offer several entryways into the understanding and appreciation of the Latin American novel in Spanish speaking America and Brazil The volume conveys a real sense of the heterogeneity of Latin American literature highlighting regions whose cultural and geopolitical particularities are often overlooked Indispensable to students of Latin American or Hispanic studies and those interested in comparative literature and the development of the novel as genre the Companion features a comprehensive bibliography and chronology and concludes with an essay about the success of Latin American novels in translation

Sonja S. Watson,2016-11-23 This volume tells the story of two cultural groups Afro Hispanics whose ancestors came to Panama as African slaves and West Indians from the English speaking countries of Jamaica and Barbados who arrived during the mid nineteenth and early twentieth centuries to build the railroad and the Panama Canal While Afro Hispanics assimilated after centuries of mestizaje race mixing and now identify with their Spanish heritage West Indians hold to their British Caribbean roots and identify more closely with Africa and the Caribbean By examining the writing of black Panamanian authors Sonja Watson highlights how race is defined contested and inscribed in Panama She discusses the cultural racial and national tensions that prevent these two groups from forging a shared Afro Panamanian identity ultimately revealing why ethnically diverse Afro descendant populations continue to struggle to create racial unity in nations across Latin America and the Caribbean SECOLAS Annals Southeastern Council on Latin American Studies,2003

Daughters of the Diaspora Miriam DeCosta-Willis,2003 Daughters of the Diaspora features the creative writing of 20 Hispanophone women of African descent as well as the interpretive essays of 15 literary critics The collection is unique in its combination of genres including poetry short stories essays excerpts from novels and personal narratives many of which are being translated into English for the first time They address issues of ethnicity sexuality social class and self representation and in so doing shape a revolutionary discourse that questions and subverts historical assumptions and literary conventions Miriam DeCosta Willis s comprehensive Introduction biographical sketches of the authors and their chronological arrangement within the text provide an accessible history of the evolution of an Afra Hispanic literary tradition in the Caribbean Africa and Latin America The book will be useful as textbook in courses in Africana Studies Women s Studies Caribbean Latina and Latin American Studies as well as courses in literature and the humanities Imperial Educaci3n Thomas Genova,2021-07-08 In the long nineteenth century Argentine and Cuban reformers invited white women from the United States to train teachers as replacements for their countries supposedly unfit mothers Imperial Educaci3n examines representations of mixed race Afro descended mothers in literary and educational texts from the Americas during an era in which governing elites were invested in reproducing European cultural values in their countries citizens Thomas Genova analyzes the racialized figure of the republican mother in nineteenth century literary texts in North and South America and the Caribbean highlighting the ways in which these works question the capacity of Afro descended women to raise good republican citizens for the newly formed New World nation states Considering the work of canonical and noncanonical authors alike Genova asks how the allegory of the national family omnipresent in the nationalist discourses of the Americas reconciles itself to the race hierarchies upon which New World slave and postslavery societies are built This innovative study is the first book to consider the hemispheric relations between race republican motherhood and public education by triangulating the nation building processes of Cuba and Argentina through U S empire New World Studies

The African Heritage of Latinx and Caribbean Literature Sarah M. Quesada, 2022-08-04 The African Heritage of Latinx and Caribbean Literature unearths a buried African archive within widely read Latinx writers of the last fifty years It challenges dominant narratives in World Literature and transatlantic studies that ignore Africa's impact in broader Latin American culture Sarah Quesada argues that these canonical works evoke textual memorials of African memory She shows how the African Atlantic haunts modern Latinx and Caribbean writing and examines the disavowal or distortion of the African subject in the constructions of national racial sexual and spiritual Latinx identity Quesada shows how themes such as the 19th century scramble for Africa the decolonizing wars Black internationalism and the neoliberal turn are embedded in key narratives Drawing from multilingual archives about West and Central Africa she examines how the legacies of colonial French Iberian British and U S Imperialisms have impacted on the relationships between African and Latinx identities This is the first book length project to address the African colonial and imperial inheritance of Latinx literature

Syncretism in Religion Anita Maria Leopold, Jeppe Sinding Jensen, 2016-05-06 Long a fascinating but problematic category of religious studies syncretism is an elastic term that describes a wide range of practices characterized by the mixing or overlap of traditions Syncretism in Religion offers the student a broad selection of essays both classical contributions to the study of syncretism and new essays commissioned especially for this volume Some important selections appear here in English for the first time Also included is a list of references for further reading

The Top Books of the Year Los Nietos De Felicidad Dolores The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Los Nietos De Felicidad Dolores : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Los Nietos De Felicidad Dolores : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Popen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
