machines and our emotions play a very important role in our weight journey 2 Our body is our best friend even when we don't return the favor When we shine the light of these ideas on our weight issues things change For example Emotional eating is not weakness but a tool some people develop to cope with stressful situations a tool that can get out of control We don't gain weight because of the bad things we eat but as a consequence of the good things we don't eat Killing yourself in the gym or following eating schedules designed by others people who don't know you at all ain't gonna help unless you use them to create your own system It also deals with difficult subjects like rejection and beating yourself up about your appearance or your life In short this book provides a fresh approach to big issues and the author handles them with affection and respect
