Workers against the City Donald W. Rogers, 2020-09-28 The 1939 Supreme Court decision Hague v CIO was a constitutional milestone that strengthened the right of Americans including labor organizers to assemble and speak in public places Donald W Rogers eschews the prevailing view of the case as a morality play pitting Jersey City New Jersey political boss Frank Hague against the Committee for Industrial Organization CIO and allied civil libertarian groups Instead he draws on a wide range of archives and evidence to re evaluate Hague v CIO from the ground up Rogers s review of the case from district court to the Supreme Court illuminates the trial proceedings and provides perspectives from both sides As he shows the economic political and legal restructuring of the 1930s refined constitutional rights as much as the court case did The final decision also revealed that assembly and speech rights change according to how judges and lawmakers act within the circumstances of a given moment Clear eyed and comprehensive Workers against the City revises the view of a milestone case that continues to impact Americans constitutional rights today Jersey City 1940-1960

Kenneth French, 1997-11-01 Photographer Dan McNulty was a Jersey City resident who spent most of his time working in his familys funeral home McNultys photography was a mere sideline but this fact did not affect the high artistic quality of the images of the city that he produced during the 1940s and 50s During the two decades of McNultys work Jersey City experienced many changes The powerful political machine of Mayor Frank Hague was brought down after thirty years in 1949 by the reform team of John V Kenny and this period also saw the end of the citys success in the railroad industry In the 1950s the first large housing projects were constructed in the city other sweeping developments in this sphere would follow in the 1960s McNulty documented these changes and others that resulted during this twenty year period through dramatic photographs of vacant railroad terminals dynamic commercial and residential districts successful factories and manufacturing plants and significant WPA projects such as the Jersey City Medical Center and Roosevelt Stadium New
