Verdu,2012-12-06 The riddles that world causation pose to the human mind lie at the bottom of all cosmological systems of thought In their origins all philosophical attitudes are conditioned by partiality and perspectivism The philosopher s attempted flight towards the seemingly remote kingdom of truth is often aborted by the binding twines of perspectival language. Thus his insights lose themselves in conflicting contradictory manifestos. Greek cosmology as it is formally set forth by the pre-Socratics is a clear example of this weary pilgrimage of mind's embodied vision from angle to angle from perspective to perspective. Not less is to be expected from the systems of Hinduism and mutatis mutandis also of Buddhist thought. More confined from the very outset to the study of reality as a study of human existence of its awareness of embodiment of its spatio-temporal bondage and of its ultimate ontological status, Buddhism gave rise to truly astounding theories of life-world causation. The process of Buddhist thought as it refers to the nature of the human experience as in the world-existence covers a vast range of doctrines from original theories of pluralism and phenomenalism with sectional multifarious and relativistic notions of causality through the unitary conceptions of monistic idealism up to the top of universal integrationism and dialectical totalism.

Canadiana, 1979 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1980 Opening New Horizons Joseph Quinn Raab, 2021-01-19 On the surface Christianity and Zen Buddhism can appear to be worlds apart even antithetical. Christianity affirms the reality of the Tri-personal God and the eternal salvation of mortal human beings. Zen denies both the existence of God and the soul. Yet Thomas Merton the Catholic spiritual master and D.T. Suzuki the famous teacher of Zen engaged in an extensive dialogue and found ways of mutually affirming shared meanings of God and person that each regarded to be true. This book explores that dialogue within the larger context of Merton's attraction to Buddhism and considers the implications of their achievement for contemporary theologies of religious pluralism.

Paperbound Books in Print, 1992 Canadian Books in Print, 1994 From Sky and Earth to Metaphysics Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2014-10-13 This is an exceptional volume which expands upon the World Phenomenology Institute's recent research: the study of the beautiful intertwining of the skies and the cosmos with the human pursuits of philosophy, literature and the arts. The relationship of humans to the cosmos is examined through the exploration of phenomenology, metaphysics and the arts. The authors of this volume write on a variety of topics which all seek to open the reader's eyes to the relationship of humans and our perception of our place in the cosmos. This volume offers a framework in which to present a rich panorama, a variety of perspectives illustrating how the perception of the interplay between human beings and the celestial realm advances in common experience and worldviews. This attempt to uncover our cosmic position is a great and worthwhile intellectual challenge. Philosophy as well as literature and the arts are nourished by this human quest for knowledge and understanding.

The New Schelling Judith Norman, Alistair Welchman, 2004-04-22 Friedrich Wilhelm Joseph Von Schelling 1775-1854 was a colleague of Hegel, Holderlin, Fichte, Goethe, Schlegel and Schiller. Always a champion of Romanticism, Schelling advocated a philosophy which emphasized intuition over reason which maintained aesthetics and the creative imagination to be of the highest value. At the same time Schelling's concerns for the self and the rational make him a major precursor to existentialism and phenomenology. The New Schelling brings together a wide ranging set of essays which elaborate the connections between Schelling and other thinkers such as Marx Nietzsche Freud Sartre Deleuze and Lacan and argue for the unexpected modernity of Schelling's work Contributors Manfred Frank Jürgen Habermas Iain Hamilton Grant Joseph Lawrence Odo Marquand Judith Norman Alberto Toscano Michael Vater Alistair Welchman Slavoj Žižek
