Skies of Thunder Caroline Alexander,2025-02-13 Riveting The New York Times THE LITTLE KNOWN STORY OF THE ALLIES FIGHT IN WWII S CHAOTIC AND LETHAL CHINA BURMA INDIA THEATER In April 1942 the Imperial Japanese Army captured Burma closing the only ground route from India to China Supplies now had to be flown over the foothills of

the treacherous Himalayas on the most dangerous air route in the world Delving into memoirs diaries and official records Caroline Alexander tells the story of the airmen who braved this perilous journey flying unreliable aircraft through monsoons and enemy fire with primitive navigation tools The result is a litany of both deadly crashes and astonishing feats of survival Highlighting the efforts of units like the Chindits and Merrill's Marauders and examining the political tensions between Roosevelt Churchill and Chiang Kai shek this book also exposes the fractures between the Allies and the impact of their decisions on post war relations The Womanist Reader Layli Phillips,2006-09-19 Comprehensive in its coverage The

Womanist Reader is the first volume to anthologize the major works of womanist scholarship Charting the course of womanist theory from its genesis as Alice Walker's African American feminism through Chikwenye Okonjo Ogunyemi's African womanism and Clenora Hudson Weems' Africana womanism to its present day expression as a global anti oppressionist perspective rooted in the praxis of everyday women of color this interdisciplinary reader traces the rich and diverse history of a quarter century of womanist thought Featuring selections from over a dozen disciplines by top womanist scholars from around the world plus several critiques of womanism an extensive bibliography of womanist sources and the first ever systematic treatment of womanist thought on its own terms Layli Phillips has assembled a unique and groundbreaking compilation Historical Dictionary of Women in Sub-Saharan Africa Kathleen Sheldon,2016-03-04

African women's history is a vast topic that embraces a wide variety of societies in over 50 countries with different geographies social customs religions and historical situations Africa is a predominantly agricultural continent and a major factor in African agriculture is the central role of women as farmers It is estimated that between 65 and 80 percent of African women are engaged in cultivating food for their families and in the past that percentage was likely even higher Thus one common thread across much of the continent is women's daily work in their family plot This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Women in Sub Saharan Africa contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on individual African women in history politics religion and the arts on important events organizations and publications and on topics important to women in general marriage fertility employment and to African women in particular market women child marriage queen mothers This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Women in Africa Unravelling

Civilisation Hagen Schulz-Forberg,2005 This volume is a collection of contributions about the history and practice of travel and travel writing from a variety of academic disciplines including anthropology history linguistics and literary criticism It brings together scholars from over ten different countries and reflects on what travel is and how travel writings function It traces the history of travel and travel writing and the notion or idea of a European civilisation that permeates performances and perceptions The notion of Europe appears as a set of quality standards as well as guidelines for experiences against which civilisations are measured This set of standards and guidelines however is far from stable It is a floating foundation carrying different versions of Europe throughout time The authors tackle the problem from different angles travels from Europe across the seven oceans transported the idea of European civilisation just as travels to Europe or within Europe The volume explores the different meanings attached to the term Europe and civilisation throughout history and shows how different political or cultural contexts affect the notion of what Europe is or should be Geographers Patrick H.

Armstrong,Geoffrey Martin,2015-12-14 Geographers is an annual collection of studies on individuals who have made major contributions to the development of geography and geographical thought Subjects are drawn from all periods and from all parts of the world and include famous names as well as those less well known including explorers independent thinkers and scholars Each paper describes the geographer s education life and work and discusses their influence and spread of academic ideas Each study includes a select bibliography and a brief chronology The work includes a general index and a cumulative index of geographers listed in volumes published to date Published under the auspices of the International Geographical Union The Routledge Research Companion to Travel Writing Alasdair Pettinger,Tim

Youngs,2019-07-30 Showcasing established and new patterns of research The Routledge Research Companion to Travel Writing takes an interdisciplinary approach to scholarship and to travel texts themselves The volume adopts a thematic approach with each contributor considering a specific aspect of travel writing a recurrent motif an organising principle or a literary form All of the essays include a discussion of representative travel texts to ensure that the volume as a whole represents a broad historical and geographical range of travel writing Together the 25 essays and the editors introduction offer a comprehensive and authoritative reflection of the state of travel writing criticism and lay the ground for future developments Nineteenth-Century British Women Writers Abigail B. Bloom,2000-05-30 British women writers of the 19th century were a remarkably talented diverse and prolific group Some such as Jane Austen and George Eliot significantly contributed to the evolution of the English novel while others such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Christina Rossetti are known for their poetry And some such as Marie Corelli were enormously popular during their lifetimes but are now known primarily by scholars This reference book is a guide to the lives and achievements of women writers of the period Included are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 90 British women writers of the 19th century ranging from the famous to the obscure Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the critical response to the writer s works and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources including web sites The volume closes with a selected bibliography of anthologies and critical works Gabon, São Tomé and Príncipe Sophie Warne,2003 This new guide to Gabon is another first for Bradt presenting the ideal destination for the naturalist
