REDEMPTION

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. And God saw that the light was good: and God divided the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the morning and the evening were the first day. And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and God made the firmament. And God divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and God called the firmament Heaven. And God said, Let the waters under the firmament be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear: and God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters he called Seas. And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle of the earth, and every creeping creature that creepeth upon the earth. And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowls of the air, and over the beasts of the earth, and over every creeping creature that creepeth upon the earth. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him, male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowls of the air, and over every creeping creature that creepeth upon the earth. And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb that bringeth forth seed upon the earth, and every tree which beareth fruit, the seed thereof shall be in itself, and you shall eat of it. And to the beasts of the earth, and to the fowls of the air, and to every creeping creature that creepeth upon the earth, I have given every green herb for food. And it was so. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day. Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the multitude of the waters, and the beasts, and the fowls, and every creeping creature that creepeth upon the earth, and man. And God saw that it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.
