Cook, 2023 In many U S cities gun violence is the most urgent crime problem High rates of deadly violence make a city less livable dragging down quality of life economic development and property values Drawing on fifty years of research and practical experience Policing Gun Violence argues that it is possible for the police to create greater public safety while respecting the rights of individuals and communities Anthony A Braga and Philip J Cook identify the most beneficial evidence based practices offering a comprehensive guide for deploying the authority and considerable resources of the police to reduce gun violence      Guns in American Society Gregg Lee Carter, 2012-05-04 Thoroughly updated and greatly expanded from its original edition this three volume set is the go to comprehensive resource on the legal social psychological political and public health aspects of guns in American life The landmark 2002 edition of Guns in American Society An Encyclopedia of History Politics Culture and the Law was acclaimed for helping readers get beyond the sometimes overheated rhetoric and navigate the overwhelming amount of unbiased academic research on gun related issues Now in light of the steady rate of gun violence and several high profile shooting incidents this extraordinary three volume work returns in a timely and thoroughly updated edition With over 100 new entries the latest edition of Guns in American Society is the most current resource available on all aspects of the gun issue including rates of violence gun control gun rights regulations and legislation court decisions pro and anti gun organizations gun ownership hunters and collectors public opinion toward guns and much more With expert contributions from the fields of criminology history law medicine politics and social science it gives students journalists policymakers and researchers a foundation for their own investigations while helping readers of all kinds make decisions as family members potential gun owners and voters      The 13 Critical Tasks: An Inside-Out Approach to Solving More Gun Crime Peter Gagliardi, 2019-09-16 This book describes the people processes and technologies needed to extract actionable intelligence from the inside and outside of crime guns      Trial and Error in Criminal Justice Reform Greg Berman, Aubrey Fox, 2016-03-21 In this revised edition of their concise readable yet wide ranging book Greg Berman and Aubrey Fox tackle a question students and scholars of law criminology and political science constantly face what mistakes have led to the problems that pervade the criminal justice system in the United States The reluctance of criminal justice policymakers to talk openly about failure the authors argue has stunted the public conversation about crime in this country and stifled new ideas. It has also contributed to our inability to address such problems as chronic offending in low income neighborhoods and overreliance on incarceration, the misuse of pretrial detention and the high rates of recidivism among parolees. Berman and Fox offer students and policymakers an escape from this fate by writing about failure in the criminal justice system. Their goal is to encourage a more forthright dialogue about criminal justice, one that acknowledges that many new initiatives fail and that no one knows for certain how to reduce crime. For the authors, this is not a source of pessimism but a call to action. This revised edition is updated with a new foreword by Cyrus R Vance Jr and afterword by Greg Berman. Cities for Life Jason Corburn, 2021-11-16. In cities around the world, planning and health experts are beginning to understand the role of social and environmental conditions that lead to trauma. By respecting the lived experience of those who were most impacted by harms, some cities have developed innovative solutions for urban trauma. In Cities for Life, public health expert Jason Corburn shares lessons from three of these cities: Richmond, California; Medellín, Colombia; and Nairobi, Kenya. Corburn draws from his work with citizens, activists, and decision makers in these cities over a ten-year period as individuals and communities worked to heal from trauma, including from gun violence, housing and food insecurity, poverty, and other harms. Cities for Life is about a new way forward with urban communities that rebuilds our social institutions, practices, and policies to be more focused on healing and health. It Started with the Hats Paul F. Joyce, 2024. Through interviews, analysis, and life course theory, retired Boston police officer and criminologist Paul F. Joyce uncovers the long-term impact of gang membership and explores which intervention methods can make a difference in the lives of current gang members. Crime and Justice, Volume 46 Michael Tonry, 2017-02-22. Justice Futures: Reinventing American Criminal Justice is the forty-sixth volume in the Crime and Justice series.
