Man of Secrets Matthew Wright,2015-01-30 Donald McLean The hard tempered Scot whose policies shaped New Zealand s colonial age race relations and gave rise to grievances that echo into the twenty first century The government official who used his position to get land for his personal ventures and provoked war between Maori along the way The man who rumour insists used his power as our Minister of Defence to order the shooting of his own illegitimate son the right hand man of religious leader Te Kooti McLean s role as the powerhouse behind some of the most heated land controversies of settler era New Zealand is well known But the man behind those deeds has remained largely hidden Man of Secrets an absorbing new biography by Matthew Wright goes behind the public persona revealing the private Donald McLean A man dogged by his upbringing wrestling with his insecurities a devout and fearful man who felt himself inadequate before God and who never recovered from the loss of his young wife

People and their Pasts P. Ashton,H. Kean,2008-12-11 In this innovative and original collection people are seen as active agents in the development of new ways of understanding the past and creating histories for the present Chapters explore forms of public history in which people s experience and understanding of their personal national and local pasts are part of their current lives

The New Zealand Official Year-book New Zealand. Department of Statistics,1988

The Constitution of New Zealand Matthew SR Palmer,Dean R Knight,2022-02-10 This book examines New Zealand s constitution through the lens of constitutional realism It looks at the practices habits conventions and norms of constitutional life It focuses on the structures processes and culture that govern the exercise of public power a perspective that is necessary to explore and account for a lived rather than textual constitution New Zealand s constitution is unique One of three remaining unwritten democratic constitutions in the world it is characterised by a charming set of anachronistic contrasts Unwritten but much found in various written sources Built on a network of Westminster constitutional conventions but generously tailored to local conditions Proudly independent yet perhaps a purer Westminster model than its British parent Flexible and vulnerable while oddly enduring It looks to the centralised authority that comes with a strong executive strict parliamentary sovereignty and a unitary state However its populace insists on egalitarian values and representative democracy with elections fiercely conducted nowadays under a system of proportional representation The interests of indigenous Maori are protected largely through democratic majority rule A reputation for upholding the rule of law yet few institutional safeguards to ensure compliance

Rugby League in New Zealand Ryan Bodman,2023-09-29 This is the story of a sport told through its communities Rugby League in New Zealand A People s History unveils the compelling journey of a game flourishing against the odds Beginning with the game s introduction to the country in 1907 Ryan Bodman reveals the deep rooted connections between rugby league s development and the evolving cultural fabric of New Zealand By questioning the mythic status of rugby union in the nation s identity this history highlights how power politics and people have collectively shaped the country s sporting scene Drawing on first hand interviews and a wide range of illustrations and archival material Bodman locates rugby league history in working class suburbs and among Kiingitanga M ori Pasifika migrants and clubs and communities across the country The people behind the game share accounts of change triumph and resilience while emphasising rugby league s lasting influence on New Zealanders lives

Guns and Utu Matthew Wright,2011-08-01 So they went forth and they were given over to death by the guns Rangipito of Ngati Rahiri In the two decades before the Treaty of Waitangi New Zealand was ripped asunder by island spanning waves of warfare extreme violence and cannibalism Great war parties surged the length of the land to avenge historic grievances killing and burning as they went Whole peoples were uprooted and found new homes Despite the name given them by history one thing we can be certain about is that these dramatic conflicts were not simply musket wars This was an age of courage of heroism of great character and of astonishing deeds And they are not dead history Twenty first century New Zealand has been profoundly shaped by them not least in the location of most of the major cities In Guns and Utu historian Matthew Wright disputes the many mythologies of these wars examining some of the whys and wherefores of this generation long culture collision A spectacular book Don Rood Radio New Zealand National Queer 1950s H. Bauer, M. Cook, 2012-10-15 Leading sexuality scholars explore queer lives and cultures in the first full post war decade through an array of sources and a range of perspectives Drawing out the particularities of queer cultures from the Finland and New Zealand to the UK and the USA this collection rethinks preconceptions of the 1950s and pinpoints some of its legacies

His Way Barry Gustafson, 2013-11-01 This the only authorized biography of New Zealand's prime minister Robert Muldoon one of the dominant political figures of the last half century in that country Based on many hours of conversation with Muldoon himself as well as colleagues friends and family and wide access to the prime minister's official and private papers and diaries this book has been awarded the Ian Wards Prize for published historical writing Muldoon is shown as a champion of the ordinary people whose vision over time became anachronistic and inflexible The book is also a fascinating picture of New Zealand's changing political landscape from the 1940s to the 1980s

Nola Millar Sarah Gaitanos, 2006 One of the most important and influential figures in the history of New Zealand theater Nola Millar was an indefatigable director and teacher and the founder of Toi Whakaari New Zealand's premier drama school This biography explores the full story of her career her important work as reference librarian at the Turnbull library and the social contexts in which she worked providing great insight into the history of theatre in New Zealand

Women Out of Place Brackette Williams, 2013-12-02 These essays investigate the links between agency and race with regard to constructions of masculinity and femininity among radical groups resisting varied forms of political and economic domination Building on the work of anthropologists historians sociologists literary critics and feminist philosophers of science the essays in Women Out of Place the Gender of Agency and Race of Nationality investigate the links between agency and race for what they reveal about constructions of masculinity and femininity and patterns of domesticity among groups seeking to resist varied forms of political and economic domination through a subnational ideology of racial and cultural redemption

Gold Rush Otago 1861-64 David Hanger, 2012-06-20 Gold Rush Otago 1861-64 is about overcoming the dangers posed by the harsh mountainous landscape and furious elements of New Zealand Otago goldfields The story based on fact in terms of time place and actual events follows three Australian families who join forces in the search for both gold and a place they can call home

No Left Turn Chris Trotter, 2010-12-01 A bold and passionate re examination of New Zealand political history by a leading social commentator The way some histories tell it Europeans came to New Zealand keen to establish a Little Britain in the South Seas Not so says Chris Trotter Most nineteenth century immigrants wanted something better than the misery and oppression of the world they had left and Trotter reveals just how close they and their descendants came to building a new one On each occasion however their achievements were resisted and ultimately overturned by those who saw New Zealand simply as a source of profits Trotter pulls no punches in describing the methods these partisans of profit used to ensure there was no Left turn jamming radio broadcasts political arson even murder From Massey's Cossacks to Muldoon's riot squads violence and repression have been the Right's weapons not the Left's Charting the evolution of New Zealand's unique brand of democratic socialism Trotter offers insightful and often surprising verdicts on the leading participants including John A Lee Peter Fraser Fintan Patrick Walsh David Lange and Helen Clark Passionately argued infused with poetic imagery and comprehensively researched No Left Turn is a unique and indispensable contribution to our political and social history an inspiration for anyone who puts money second and people first and a deliberate provocation to everyone else
