Nafssiya, or Edward Said's Affective Phenomenology of Racism Norman Saadi Nikro, 2024-03-30 This book adapts the Arabic term nafsiyya to trace the phenomenological contours of Edward Said s analysis of the affective dimensions of colonial and imperial racism Reflecting on what he called his colonial education Said rendered his Palestinian Arab background and experience of racism an enabling component of his academic work The argument focuses on his personal dimension section in his introduction to his famous volume Orientalism discussing key notions of Said s oeuvre such as elaboration circumstance humanism worldliness inventory and critical consciousness Providing a lengthy study of his earlier and somewhat neglected Beginnings Intention and Method the book discusses the significance of the style of the essay as a key component of what the author calls Said s interventionist brand of scholarship The final chapter outlines how Said s oeuvre can be situated in a genealogy of a radical phenomenology of racism that emerged from the colonies

The Re-Emergence of the Single State Solution in Palestine/Israel Cherine Hussein, 2015-02-11 Providing the first in depth intellectual and organizational mapping of the single state idea s recent resurgence in Palestine Israel this book enquires into its nature as a phenomenon of resistance as well as into its potential as a counterhegemonic force in the making against the processes of Zionism Reconstructing this moment of re emergence through primary material and interviews with diverse influential intellectuals its analysis highlights their self understandings worldviews strategies and perceptions of the phenomenon in which they are involved while questioning whether the single state idea has the potential to become a Gramscian inspired movement of resistance against Zionism In presenting this rare insight into a resistance movement in the making this book resurrects an empowering image of Antonio Gramsci infused with the writings of Edward Said This it does in an effort to both problematize the dominant interpretations of Gramsci s writings in International Relations and to decolonise the abstract way in which resistance and counter hegemony are often studied in the discipline Contributing a mapping of a silenced alternative and hopeful way forward in the context of escalating violence this book is essential reading for those studying the Arab Israeli conflict Middle East Politics and International Relations

Migration Literature and Hybridity S. Moslund,2010-07-07 Using three literary analyses to show what happens once we leave behind the theoretical poverty of celebratory readings of contemporary migration and hybridity literature this book offers a way out of the theoretical deadlock of putting hybridity against purity or flux against fixity Revisiting Gramsci's Notebooks ,2019-11-26 Revisiting Gramsci s Notebooks offers a rich collection of historical philosophical and political studies addressing the thought of Antonio Gramsci one of the most significant intellects of the twentieth century Based on thorough analyses of Gramsci s texts these interdisciplinary investigations engage with ongoing debates in different fields of study They are exciting evidence of the enduring capacity of Gramsci s thought to generate and nurture innovative inquiries across diverse themes Gathering scholars from different continents the volume represents a global network of Gramscian thinkers from early career researchers to experienced scholars Combining rigorous explication of the past with a strategic analysis of the present these studies mobilise underexplored resources from the Gramscian toolbox to confront the actuality of our great and terrible world Contributors include F Antonini A Bernstein D Boothman W Buddharaksa T Chino R Ciavolella C Conelli A Cr z gut V Cuppi Y Douet A Freeland F Frosini L Fusaro R Jackson A Loftus S Meret S Neubauer A Panichi I Pohn Lauggas R Roccu B Settis A Showstack Sassoon A Suceska P D Thomas N Vandeviver M N Wr blewska The Child in World

Cinema Debbie Olson,2018-02-19 This collection seeks to broaden the discussion of the child image by close analysis of the child and childhood as depicted in non Western cinemas Each essay offers a counter narrative to Western notions of childhood by looking critically at alternative visions of childhood that does not privilege a Western ideal Rather this collection seeks to broaden our ideas about children childhood and the child s place in the global community This collection features a wide variety of contributors from around the world who offer compelling analyses of non Western non Hollywood films starring children Counterpoints Stephanie Tara Schwartz,May Telmissany,2010-03-08 Revolving around the theme of counterpoint extensively used by Edward Said as the interplay of diverse ideas and discrepant experiences this book aims to explore Said s contribution to the fields of comparative literature literary criticism postcolonial theory exilic and transnational studies and socio political thought among many others Overshadowed by his legitimate political positions in support to the Palestinian cause and at odds with Islamophobic hostilities Said's intellectual achievements in the fields of humanities and philosophical thinking should equally be acknowledged and celebrated Said articulates his notion of counterpoints through a vivid description of the composition of Western classical music In the counterpoint of Western classical music various themes play off one another with only a provisional privilege being given to any particular one yet in the resulting polyphony there is concert and order an organized interplay that derives from the themes not from a rigorous melodic or formal principle outside the work This book pays tribute to Said's contrapuntal methodology as well as to his academic and humanistic legacy

Post-Traumatic Art in the City Isabelle de le Court, 2020-11-26 Post Traumatic Art in the City comprises an original analysis of the nexus of war art and urban society in two specific contexts late 20th century Beirut and Sarajevo With an emphasis on conceptions of the post traumatic De le Court explores how cities and art are mutually formative in war and post war contexts providing unique insight into the politically and psychologically driven art scenes from within the works of art themselves Grounded in close analyses and new research the book makes an important contribution to the fields of art history and trauma studies

Edward Said's Translocations Tobias Doring, Mark Stein, 2012-04-27 Working with processes of translocation enabled Edward Said to point out interdependence and complementarity across geographical borders and disciplinary boundaries while recognizing cultural difference and the distinct historical experiences of colonizer and colonized This book brings into focus Said's politics of reading from his literary criticism in English to his political columns in Arabic The international contributors from Britain Egypt France Germany India Switzerland and the United States investigate his intellectual legacies without necessarily identifying themselves with the critical positions these involve Instead of treating his work as a unitary theoretical system the various arguments explored offer a critical assessment of those situations in which his writing has entered into a productive relationship with other theoretical positions and interlocutors The collection considers location which has always been a central category in and for Said's writing readings which designates the acts by which according to Said the world comes to be constituted and legacies which pertains to the many fields across the boundaries of established academic disciplines that have taken up Said's challenges The critical positions visited in this book include critical and cultural theory postcolonialism literary studies theatre and performance studies and visual and music studies

Colonial and Postcolonial Literature Elleke Boehmer, 2005-10-06 Colonial and Postcolonial Literature is the leading critical overview of and historical introduction to colonial and postcolonial literary studies Highly praised from the time of its first publication for its lucidity breadth and insight the book has itself played a crucial part in founding and shaping this rapidly expanding field The author an internationally renowned postcolonial critic provides a broad contextualizing narrative about the evolution of colonial and postcolonial writing in English Illuminating close readings of texts by a wide variety of writers from Kipling and Conrad through to Kincaid from Ngugi to Noonuccal and Naipaul explicate key theoretical terms such as subaltern colonial resistance writing back and hybridity This revised edition includes new critiques of postcolonial women s writing an expanded and fully annotated bibliography and a new chapter and conclusion on postcolonialism exploring keynote debates in the field relating to sexuality transnationalism and local resistance

European Literary Immigration into the French Language Tijana Miletic,2008-01-01 The critical emotional and intellectual change which every immigrant is obliged to endure and confront is experienced with singular intensity by immigrant writers who have also adopted another language for their literary expression Concentrating on European authors of the second half of the twentieth century who have chosen French as a language for their literary expression and in particular the novels by Romain Gary Agota Kristof Milan Kundera and Jorge Semprun with reference to many others European Literary Immigration into the French Language explores some of the common elements in these works of fiction which despite the varied personal circumstances and literary aesthetics of the authors follow a similar path in the building of a literary identity and legitimacy in the new language The choice of the French language is inextricably linked with the subsequent literary choices of these writers This study charts a new territory within Francophone and European literary studies in treating the European immigrants as a separate group and in applying linguistic sociological and psychoanalytical ideas in the analysis of the works of fiction and thus represents a relevant contribution to the understanding of European cultural identity This volume is relevant to French and European literature scholars and anyone with interest in immigration European identity or second language adoption

Between German and Hebrew Lina Barouch,2016-04-11 This book traces the German Hebrew contact zones in which Gershom Scholem Werner Kraft and Ludwig Strauss lived and produced their creative work in early twentieth century Germany and later in British Mandate Palestine after their voluntary or forced migration in the 1920s and 1930s Set in shifting historical contexts and literary debates the notion of the German vernacular nation Hebraism and Jewish Revival in Weimar Germany the crisis of language in modernist literature and the fledgling multilingual communities in Jerusalem the writings of Scholem Kraft and Strauss emerge as unique forms of counterlanguage The three chapters of the book are dedicated to Scholem s Hebraist lamentation Kraft s Germanist steadfastness and Strauss s polyglot dialogue respectively The examination of their correspondences diaries scholarship and literary oeuvres demonstrates how counteractive writing practices helped confront concrete and metaphorical crises of language to produce compelling alternatives to literary silence amnesia or paralysis that were prompted by cultural marginality and dislocation

Posthumanist Nomadisms across Non-Oedipal Spatiality Java Singh,Indrani Mukherjee,2022-02-22 As an epistemological perspective nomadism is an emerging field of scholarship offering intersectionality with eco criticism feminism post colonialism migration studies and translation Much of the scholarship that uses the precepts of nomadism to read cultural texts and phenomena is scattered as separate articles in academic journals or as single chapters in books wherein the primary focus is the intersectional fields Few book length publications solely focus on the ramifications of nomadism Posthumanist Nomadisms across non Oedipal Spatiality fills that void The fifteen chapters in this volume explore the possibilities offered by the nomadic perspective to explore a wide range of literary and cultural texts organized into three sections Nomadic Assemblages Non Oedipal Cartographies and Space Time Montages that work as one to negate absorption into the interiority of sovereign territory These sections are not an attempt at corralling the nomadic spirit into separate enclosures instead they are bands of warriors that operate the violence of the hunted animal dehumanized human others and earth others The chapters are in constant multi vocal conversations with narratives that camp on the turbulent weathers of global transitory spaces They charter real or intellectual turfs of interstitial rhizomatic nomadic epistemologies as political resistance to the exclusionary practices of a violently wired world This book will appeal to post graduate students researchers and faculty in the departments of literature comparative literary and cultural studies Researchers in sociology cultural anthropology gender studies and migration studies will also find the material applicable to the expanding approaches available in their fields Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective Anna Ball,2012 Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective is the first sustained study of gender consciousness in the Palestinian creative imagination Drawing on concepts from postcolonial feminist theory Ball analyses a range of literary and filmic works by major creative practitioners including Michel Khleifi Liana Badr Annemarie Jacir Elia Suleiman Mona Hatoum and Suheir Hammad and reveals a hitherto unrecognized trajectory in gender consciousness under development in the Palestinian imagination from the start of the twentieth century The book explores how these works resonate with questions of power identity nation resistance and self representation in the Palestinian imagination more broadly and asks how these gender conscious narratives transform our understanding of Palestine s struggle for postcoloniality Working at the cusp of postcolonial feminist and cultural enquiry Ball seeks to open up vital new directions in the interdisciplinary study of Palestine Early Modern Trauma Erin Peters,2021-08 This edited collection explores what trauma seen through an analytical lens can reveal about the early modern period and conversely what conceptualizations of psychological trauma from the period can tell us about trauma theory itself Surrealist women's writing Anna Watz,2021-01-12 Surrealist women s writing A critical exploration is the first sustained critical inquiry into the writing of women associated with surrealism Featuring original essays by leading scholars of surrealism the volume demonstrates the extent and the historical linguistic and culturally contextual breadth of this writing It also highlights how the specifically surrealist poetics and politics of these writers work intersect with and contribute to contemporary debates on for example gender sexuality subjectivity otherness anthropocentrism and the environment Drawing on a variety of innovative theoretical approaches the essays in the volume focus on the writing of numerous women surrealists many of whom have hitherto mainly been known for their visual rather than their literary production These include Claude Cahun Leonora Carrington Kay Sage Colette Peignot Suzanne C saire Unica Z rn Ithell Colquhoun Leonor Fini Dorothea Tanning and Rikki Ducornet Sergei Prokofiev Christina Guillaumier,2024-10-13 A critical biography of the twentieth century Russian composer and pianist This wide ranging and incisive biography unfolds the life and work of the much loved twentieth century composer Sergei Prokofiev In it Christina Guillaumier reveals Prokofiev s surprisingly optimistic spirit amidst a tumultuous backdrop of geopolitical chaos and ever shifting musical landscapes Guillaumier breathes life into the people and worlds that shaped Prokofiev s complicated life capturing the unwavering passion of a musical genius whose love for his craft transcended all barriers This new critical account is a vivid portrait of the artist s indomitable drive
