The Hebrew alphabet consists of 22 letters written from right to left. Five letters have different forms when used at the end of a word א, ב, ג, ד, ה. Originally, the alphabet was purely a consonantal text (abjad), but is now considered an "impure abjad." To preserve the vowel sounds, the Masoretes (600-1000CE) developed several different sets of vocalization and diacritical symbols called niqqud "points." This system was designed to be implemented around the consonantal text.						 22 Taw 'th' Without Dagesh Lene	 22 Taw 't' Begadkefat

Jewish Language Review ,1984 Reformation Celebration Gordon L. Isaac,Eckhard Schnabel,2022-05-03 Although the 500th anniversary celebration of the Reformation of 1517 is over ministry in the church continues In having looked to the past we now focus on the present to see how the church can move forward with this strong historical base. Particularly how do the solas of the Reformation apply as we look at Scripture and work within the church to nurture the laity in their practice of faith. This was the discussion at a recent conference Reformation Celebration at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary in South Hamilton Massachusetts. This book written and edited by Gordon Conwell professors is the result of that conference with multidiscipline essays ranging from Luther on Scripture grace and Christ to the implication today of the Christology of Athanasius and Calvin. Some of the important questions addressed historically, theologically and sociologically include: What does sola scriptura (scripture alone) have to say about spiritual formation? What does Bible translation have to do with Christian mission? How do grace and works compare in Islam and Christianity? In what ways does sola gratia (grace alone) affect Christian counseling? How are social ethics shaped by sola gratia? How is sola fide (faith alone) the foundation for ministry? In what way is solus Christus (Christ alone) related to Christian wholeness and maturity?

The small community of the Karaite Jews, a non Talmudic, Turkic speaking minority who had been living in Eastern Europe since the late Middle Ages, developed a unique ethnographic culture and religious tradition. The book offers the first comprehensive study of the Galician Karaite community from its earliest days until today, with the main emphasis placed on the period from 1772 until 1945. Especially important is the analysis of the twentieth century deJudaization or Turkicization of the community which saved the Karaites from the horrors of the Holocaust.
