Reforming The Long Term Care System Financial And Organizational Options:

Reforming the Long-term-care System James J. Callahan, Stanley Wallack, 1981 A Study of Public Long-term Care Financing Sharon K. Patten, 1987 Competition in the Health Care Sector Warren Greenberg, 1988 Competition Deregulation Free market forces The debate over competition in health care that raged in the 1970s brought with it a new economic jargon a vocabulary of concepts and issues unheard of in hospitals a decade earlier Competition in health care has developed to a greater degree than most economists predicted ten years ago That is the conclusion of Warren Greenberg in his introduction to Competition in the Health Care Sector Ten Years Later a retrospective of a 1977 Federal Trade Commission conference which produced the landmark treatise Competition in the Health Care Sector Past Present and Future Seven of the ten original papers are reexamined a chapter on the nursing home industry has been added As with the original volume Greenberg predicts that the retrospective will become a critical element in the health care economic literature Hospitals A Call for Action United States. Congress. Pepper Commission, 1990 The Intersystem Partnership Janet S. Sainer, 1989 Annual Review of Gerontology and Geriatrics, Volume 9, 1989 M. Powell Lawton, PhD, 1989-10-15 The physical changes and the common pathologies associated with aging are discussed along with the psychological and social implications of such changes The guide is for nurses gerontologists social workers psychologists rehabilitation specialists and others in the helping professions Originally published by The Tiresias Press Inc The Clinical Care of the Aged Person David G. Satin, Barbara A. Blakeney, 1994 As the population of aged people increases throughout the world the need for comprehensive integrated geriatric care is rapidly becoming a high priority Developed from an education program in clinical geriatrics offered through the Division on Aging of the Harvard Medical School this authoritative text provides broad interdisciplinary coverage of geriatric health care The book incorporates the theory and skill needed for many disciplines to work together effectively It integrates the various topics covered by way of section introductions cross references within chapters a case study and case conference and an introductory chapter of discussions among a panel of aged people With contributions from a wide range of experts this book teaches an interdisciplinary perspective on the aged and their health care and examines the working relationships among the many professionals providing care for the aged Reforms in Long-Term Care Policies in Europe Costanzo Ranci, Emmanuele Pavolini, 2012-11-08 Over the last two decades many changes have happened to the social welfare policies of various industrial countries Citizens have seen their pensions unemployment benefits and general healthcare policies shrink as belt tightening measures are enforced But in contrast long term care has seen a general growth in public financing an expansion of beneficiaries and more generally an attempt to define larger social responsibilities and related social rights The aim of this book is to describe and interpret the changes introduced in long term care policies in Western Europe The volume argues that recent reforms have brought about an increasing convergence in LTC policies Most of the new programs have developed a new general approach to long term care based on a better integration of social care and health care The book explores increasing public support given to family care work in the past the family would take care of the elderly or infirm and increasing growth and recognition of a extended social care market by which care has shifted from a moral obligation based on family reciprocity to a paid professional activity A new social care arrangement has therefore been developing in Western countries based on a new mix of family obligations market provision and public support In order to understand such changes this analysis will take into account the social and economical impact of these reforms

Annual Review of Gerontology and Geriatrics M. Powell Lawton, 2013-11-27

Environmental Practice in the Human Services Bernard Neugeboren, 2013-01-11

Environmental Practice in the Human Services points to the need for the human services to return to their historic mission of environmental change It moves beyond the more general conceptual emphasis on person in environment toward the development of an environmental practice technology based on an intervention model which prescribes specific micro and macro roles and functions It may open the way to recapturing the conceptual breadth which characterized the first 40 years of social work as a professional and occupational entity The ecological perspective in social work has fostered an interest in the impact of social environments on service consumers Environmental Practice in the Human Services tries to rectify the historical imbalance in the human services that has emphasized people changing methods giving secondary emphasis to environmental change It instructs students preparing for practice in the human services as well as agency practitioners in the knowledge and skills necessary in environmental practice Cases in environmental practice are used to illustrate how these skills are utilized in actual practice situations The book's scope includes practice at the direct service administration planning and social policy levels it integrates micro and macro practice and shows how these two levels of practice are interdependent This enables human service practitioners to create and or modify social environments to enhance the functioning of clients being served in human service programs Topics covered include important skills in environmental practice including decisionmaking negotiating and leadership community practice and resource coordination social support the impact of organizational environments on practice environmental practice for the chronically disabled Author Neugeboren's approach is unique in its in depth focus on environmental practice applying concepts of social environment to specific practice roles This practice specific content which provides tools needed for environmental practice is in contrast to existing texts on the social environment which are very theoretical and not integrated with practice He includes material from the field of social ecology which has not been included in existing texts It shows how practitioners and administrators planners and policymakers can facilitate and support each other's work Reading Environmental Practice in the Human Services will enlighten students and practitioners with specific skills for impacting on different social environments to enhance client benefit It tells how a direct service practitioner can determine which organizational environments are suitable for particular client needs in making agency referrals It also provides administrators with information about designing planning and managing agencies with functional organizational environments which achieve effective services Confused Minds, Burdened Families ,1990 Minority Aging ,1990 This book is designed to help focus attention on and development a sensitivity to the need to include minority aging in the curricula for selected health and allied health professionals The conference papers covers the topics of aging culture ethnicity and the impact of race and ethnicity on aging Reforming the Indian Health Care System United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Indian Affairs (1993-),2009 The OECD Health Project Long-term Care for Older People OECD,2005-06-30 This study reports on the latest trends in long term care policies in nineteen OECD countries and studies lessons learned from countries that undertook major reforms over the past decade Health Care Financing Review ,1990 American Journal of Public Health ,1986 Includes section Books and reports Securing Access to Health Care: Report United States.
