Refugee Ministry in the Local Congregation John Ronald Mummert, Jeff Bach, 1992 Wars terrorism and socioeconomic upheavals create thousands of refugees in search of a home Searing pictures of exiles uprooted from Southeast Asia Central America and elsewhere have appeared on television in newspapers and in magazines J Ronald Mummert with Jeff Bach share some of the heart wrenching stories behind the pictures and describes ways Christians can help Building on the Rock Walfred J. Fahrner, 2005-02-23 Two visions of church have dominated Christianity for centuries The sacramental view centers on celebration of sacred rites and the instructional view on proclamation of the Scriptures A third vision the church as a committed community of faith has been preserved among persecuted believers known as Anabaptists and Mennonites These people choose costly commitment to Christ and his way of suffering love They follow the path of discipleship in community and open themselves to the counsel of fellow church members Their highest authority is the kingdom of God and Jesus Christ whom they serve through obedience to the Scriptures With a spirituality of nonviolence compassion and servanthood they invite all people to know and follow Christ Today many see the Christian church as hypocritical and irrelevant Wealth mobility and individualism tempt Mennonites themselves to give up a common life Yet the vision of church as a true community of faith offers hope for renewal This book helps to reclaim core themes of a biblical and Mennonite vision of being church together Here is a challenge for longtime Mennonites and for disciples of all backgrounds 98th Congress Hearings: H.R. 4447: Extended voluntary departure for Salvadorans United States. the church to bring the gospel to these centers of population culture and political power Global Mission on our Doorstep Thorsten Prill, 2017-01-11 Document from the year 2017 in the subject Theology Practical Theology language English abstract In the face of globalisation one of the challenges for Christians ministering to asylum seekers and refugees in the United Kingdom is the question of integrating Christian asylum seekers and refugees into the Christian community British churches and para church organisations that are involved in refugee ministry have to decide whether they want to support the formation of independent refugee churches or the integration of refugees and asylum seekers into local indigenous churches This thesis examines these options from a missiological perspective Two social research projects form the heart of this study One compares the life and ministry of two mature minority ethnic churches the other investigates the integration process at a British church that has been involved in refugee ministry for almost a decade Contrary to the widespread view that the establishment of homogeneous churches is crucial for the mission of the church in postmodern British society the findings of this research suggest that the integration of asylum seekers and refugees into indigenous British churches is the better option They further demonstrate that it is not the mono ethnic refugee church but the multi ethnic church which makes the greater contribution to the integration of Christian asylum seekers and refugees and to the missio Dei in Britain In a multi ethnic church asylum seekers and refugees serve as role models to British Christians and especially as effective agents of mission These research findings also show that the integration of asylum seekers and refugees is promoted through the congregation within the congregation model and an incarnational approach to mission However they equally indicate that various stumbling blocks can hinder the integration process These include a low ecclesiology a lack of awareness of globalisation and a reactive leadership style and church culture Ubuntu, Migration and Ministry Elina Hankela, 2014-05-28 Ubuntu Migration and Ministry invites the reader to rethink ubuntu Nguni humanness humanity as a moral notion in the context of local communities The socio moral patterns that emerge at the crossroads between ethnography and social ethics offer a fresh perspective to what it means to be human in contemporary Johannesburg The Central Methodist Mission is known for sheltering thousands of migrants and homeless people in the inner city Based on ethnographic fieldwork primarily conducted in 2009 Elina Hankela unpacks the church leader's liberationist vision of humanity and analyses the tension between the congregation and the migrants linked to the refugee ministry While relational virtues mark the community's moral code various regulating rules and structures shape the actual relationships at the church Here ubuntu challenges and is challenged Winner of the 2014 Donner Institute Prize for Outstanding Research into Religion 98th Congress Hearings United States. have been uprooted from their homes and all that is familiar Rupen Das and Brent Hamoud apply their experience and expertise to provide timely answers that the Christian community is waiting to hear Addressing the humanitarian and legal needs of the displaced is the starting point but relief repatriation and resettlement programs need to help the stranger find a place to belong a place to call home The Mennonite Church in the Second World War Guy F.
