Refugee community organisations and dispersal Griffiths, David, Sigona, Nando, 2005-10-05 The book is distinctive in combining theoretical discussion on the role of networks resources and social capital with fieldwork evidence and interviews with members of RCOs non governmental organisations NGOs and statutory authorities It critically examines the impact of dispersal and current legislative change on refugee communities and RCOs explores the integrative role of RCOs assesses the race relations framework in Britain and its effects on refugee organisations and provides a thorough and up to date literature review Refugee community organisations and dispersal is essential reading for practitioners and policy makers academics researchers and students of social policy social geography sociology and politics Members of NGOs working with refugees or in local government community workers and members of refugee communities themselves will also be keenly interested in the book Comparative issues raised by the research will be of direct interest to readers in other countries

Community Groups in Context Angus McCabe, Jenny Phillimore, 2017-03-15 In the past decade community groups have been portrayed as the solution to many social problems Yet the role of below the regulatory radar community action has received little research attention and thus is poorly understood in terms of both policy and practice Focusing on self organised community activity this book offers the first collection of papers developing theoretical and empirically grounded knowledge of the informal unregistered yet largest part of the voluntary sector The collection includes work from leading academics activists policy makers and practitioners offering a new and coherent understanding of community action below the radar The book is part of the Third Sector Research Series which is informed by research undertaken at the Third Sector Research Centre funded by the Economic and Social Research Council and Barrow Cadbury Trust Spreading the 'burden'? Robinson, Vaughan, Andersson, Roger, 2003-07-30 European governments are now engaging in one of the largest exercises in social engineering that the continent has seen since the Second World War Hundreds of thousands of asylum seekers and refugees in Europe are now being denied their basic right to choose where they live and are instead being compulsorily dispersed Spreading the burden is the first book length study of dispersal policies explicitly comparative in nature and written by three national experts highly topical and controversial as the review of dispersal policies is under way in many countries a valuable case study of how society deals with outsider groups and space The book is essential reading for national and local policy makers those interested in human rights social policy and refugee studies as well as human geographers and sociologists

Building on Diversity, 2006 Refugee Children In The Uk Rutter, Jill, 2006-06-01 Includes statistical tables and graphs The Dispersal and Social Exclusion of Asylum Seekers Patricia Hynes, 2011 Establishing asylum seekers in the UK as a socially excluded group this book provides readers with an understanding of how they experience the dispersal system and gives an insight into how this impacts on their lives The Crux of Refugee Resettlement Andrew Nelson, Alexander Rödlach, Roos Willems, 2018-12-13 While the world's refugee population reaches record high numbers countries offering third country resettlement are increasingly shifting toward policies of exclusion and austerity This edited volume envisions a more humane future for refugee resettlement Combining anthropology with a variety of professional perspectives education health care theology administration politics and social work ethnography is used to demonstrate the efficacy of programs and interventions that create and nurture social capital in culturally specific and accessible ways The contributors present case studies of resettlement in the United States England Australia and Canada and contend that social networks have an essential role are the crux in the reconfigurations of refugee well being belonging and place making vis vis the bureaucratic limitations of state and institutional factors This book includes short contributions from refugees representatives of resettlement organizations and government officials including Jhuma N Acharya Bimala Bastola Khada Bhandari Kiri Hata Govin Magar Madhu Neupane Natacha Nikokeza Angela K Plummer Lance Rasbridge Chris Sunderlin David Thatcher and John Tluang Towards Understanding Community C. Clay, M. Madden, L. Potts, 2007-11-09 Written in the temporal and political context of the British New Labour Government's ongoing reliance on the word community academics and activists critically engage here with the range of ways in which contemporary ideas of community are being used and contested The key focus is on understanding community from action into theory and vice versa

Multiculturalism, Social Cohesion and Immigration Martin Bulmer, John Solomos, 2017-10-02 Multiculturalism Social Cohesion and Immigration brings together original research that addresses key facets of the changing dynamics of race multiculturalism and immigration in contemporary British society The various chapters in this volume tackle important social and political issues such as ethnic diversity and segregation post race politics contact and threat hypotheses national identity anti racist mobilisation and whiteness It provides an important insight into the dynamics of contemporary British society This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Migrant Activism and Integration from Below in Ireland Ronit Lentin,Elena Moreo,2012-02-17 This book analyzes the interaction between migrant activists and leaders and the state of the Republic of Ireland a late player in Europe s immigration regime against the background of an increasingly restrictive immigration regime Refugees, Capitalism and the British State Tom Vickers,2016-04-08 Today in a period of economic crisis public sector cuts and escalating class struggle Marxism offers important tools for social workers and service users to understand the structures of oppression they face and devise effective means of resistance This book uses Marxism s lost insights and reinterprets them in the current context by focussing on one particular section of the international working class refugees and asylum seekers in Britain Vickers analysis demonstrates the general utility of a Marxist approach enabling an exploration of the interplay between state policies how these are experienced by their subjects and how conflicts are mediated The substantive focus of the book is twofold to analyse the material basis of the oppression of refugees in Britain by the British state and to examine the means by which the British state has managed this oppression through the cultivation of a refugee relations industry within a broader narrative of social capital building These questions demand answers if social workers and other practitioners are to successfully work with refugees and asylum seekers and this book provides these through a detailed Marxist analysis Refugee Children Charles Watters,2007-11-06 Offering a comprehensive overview of the problems facing refugee children in the industrialized world this essential book looks at the measures taken by nation states and intergovernmental bodies to address perceived problems A Handbook of Integration with Refugees Esa Aldegheri,Dan Fisher,Alison Phipps,2025-07-24 This Handbook brings together the viewpoints of academics practitioners artists and people seeking refuge in Scotland to explore the global learnings that can be gained from this context The book engages with the challenge of supporting integration as multi directional processes within a broader setting in which forced migration is often criminalised Situating its analysis of integration in Scotland the book combines chapters based in theory which explore issues ranging from the concept of integration to law borders and integration policy with creative and practical responses to these issues The book offers hopeful alternatives to current realities of forced migration and a compelling challenge to dominant narratives related to refuge and integration It will be of interest to practitioners policymakers and scholars working with refugees and asylum seekers around the world This book is open access under a CC BY ND licence The Migration and Settlement of Refugees in Britain A. Bloch,2002-08-12 The increase in the number of asylum seekers arriving in Europe has placed the issue of migration high on the policy agendas of national governments and the European Union This book analyzes the impact of policy on the social and economic settlement of refugees in Britain in that context The issues explored include current UK and EU migration policy the history of migration to Britain and policy responses theories of migration and migrant settlement social and economic settlement of refugees in Britain including language employment social networks the migratory process community development and policy recommendations

Vulnerable Groups in Health and Social Care Mary Larkin, 2009-06-04 Carefully researched and highly readable this textbook looks at the experiences and health and social needs of key vulnerable groups It presents an engaging social science perspective relevant to everyone exploring how we and society care for the vulnerable Each chapter defines and explores a vulnerable social group bringing together theoretical policy and practice perspectives The lively and engaging style enables the reader to engage with the client group and to reflect upon their own learning and practice in a more meaningful way

After the Flight Shiva Nourpanah, Morgan Poteet, 2016-06-22 Knowledge of the integration process for refugees is often subsumed under the broader category of immigrants This book focuses on this process for refugees including the structural and systemic challenges they face as they integrate in their new host societies and how they respond to such challenges The book provides a critical analysis of Canada's approach to integrating refugees with additional chapters focused on refugee integration in Australia Northern Ireland and the United States This collection of work critically addresses a range of topics and employs a variety of qualitative approaches to gain a better understanding of the lived experience of integration for refugees including the ways in which refugees view integration and the attendant challenges and opportunities encountered during the integration process Departing from viewing refugees as a burden that must be shared by the international community the contributors to this collection explore the complex dynamics of race class gender ethnicity age generation and legal status for refugees in a selection of local contexts of reception The work begins a dialogue about the long term dynamics of refugee settlement and integration with implications for the viability of future resettlement programs and practices How the world responds to the ongoing plight of the growing numbers of displaced people will be a defining feature of the contemporary global order This collection shifts the discourse about refugees from one of victimhood to one of refugee agency and rights The book will be of primary interest to academics in the field of refugee and migration studies to practitioners in the settlement sector and to those involved in making refugee policies It will also be useful for those who work in social services and education in countries of the global north that receive refugees and refugee claimants and anyone with an interest in refugee lives

Doing Research with Refugees Bogusia Temple, Rhett Moran, 2011-03-16 Explores methodological issues relating to the involvement of refugees in service evaluation and development building on a two year seminar series funded by the ESRC and attended by a range of participants

Refugee Protection and the Role of Law Susan Kneebone, Dallal Stevens, Loretta Baldassar, 2014-06-27 Sixty years on from the signing of the Refugee Convention forced migration and refugee movements continue to raise global concerns for hosting states and regions for countries of origin for humanitarian organisations on the ground and of course for the refugee This edited volume is framed around two themes which go to the core of contemporary refugeehood protection and identity. It analyses how the issue of refugee identity is shaped by and responds to the legal regime of refugee protection in contemporary times. The book investigates the premise that there is a narrowing of protection space in many countries and many highly visible incidents of refoulement. It argues that Protection, which is a core focus of the Refugee Convention, appears to be under threat as there are many gaps and inconsistencies in practice. Contributors to the volume who include Erika Feller, Elspeth Guild, H. I. ne Lambert and Roger Zetter look at the relevant issues from the perspective of a number of different disciplines including law, politics, sociology and anthropology. The chapters examine the link between identity and protection as a basis for understanding how the Refugee Convention has been and is being applied in policy and practice. The situation in a number of jurisdictions and regions in Europe, North America, South East Asia, Africa and the Middle East is explored in order to ask the question: does jurisprudence under the Refugee Convention need better coordination and how successful is oversight of the Convention?

Social Innovation Helmut Anheier, Gorgi Krlev, Georg Mildemberger, 2018-10-29. Social Innovation: Comparative Perspectives investigates socio-economic impact. Since it is hard to establish causality and to measure social properties when investigating impact especially at the level of society, the book narrows down impact to one priority aspect: social innovation, understood as organizations' capacity to generate novel ideas, ways and means of doing things of addressing public and social problems of many kinds. This volume's primary assertion is that the Third Sector, specifically through stimulating civic involvement, is best placed to produce social innovation, outperforming business firms and state agencies in this regard. By investigating actor contributions to social innovation across seven fields of activity, Social Innovation: Comparative Perspectives develops our understanding of why and how the Third Sector is central to functioning cohesive and viable societies. This volume is based on contributions of the project ITSSOIN: Impact of the Third Sector as Social Innovation, funded by the European Commission under the 7th framework programme. It will be of insight across disciplines, in particular to the growing social innovation community, innovation researchers more generally and to non-profit scholars. The practical relevance of the book will be of interest to European and national policy makers and practitioners across different sectors.
