

The Alligator River Story

3 pages | 561 words

I think the most unethical person in "The Alligator River Story" is Gregory. On my point of view Gregory is the most unethical person in the story. Because the story tells that Abigail and Gregory are lovers, as the man in the relationship he should have obtain the initiative and made his efforts to cross the river in able to be with her lover Abigail on the opposite shore. Although, Abigail is in loved with her lover, it is unethical for Gregory to just let Abigail take the effort and cross the river to be with him. Therefore, Gregory should recognize his responsibility as the lover of Abigail to protect her from harm.

"The Alligator River Story" is a tale in which reveal different unethical actions on its characters. In the story I have observed more than one unethical issue. The first one is the unethical issue on Gregory, as a man he should have taken the bigger responsibility to cross the river in able to be with her lover Abigail on the other shore of the river. The second one is the unethical issue on Sinbad when he asks Abigail to go with him in bed in exchange for the favor that Abigail raises to him.

Although, Sinbad had fulfilled his pledge to Abigail to take her across the river jam-packed with alligators it is unethical to take advantage on the desperation of Abigail to be with Gregory on the opposite shore of the river. Another unethical issue is the scenario in which Ivan rejected his friend Abigail to help her cross the river and be with Sinbad. As a friend Ivan should have give enough attention on the dilemma of Abigail, it is unethical for him to just refuse right away without trying to help Abigail.

If I were to give advice for Abigail, I will definitely tell her to be very careful on her actions. The focal point of my advice for Abigail will be on decision making. Although, desperate that she is Abigail should not be careless with her decision just to accomplish her dilemma. Abigail should think of what would be the best for her, she should think critically before she makes her decision. Also, Abigail should be aware on the consequences of her decision in able to make the most efficient decision, which will definitely protect her to any harm. With this I am confident that Abigail will be protected from harm and danger.

As a reader, I totally agree to the writer about the analysis of the unethical issues in the story of "The Alligator River Story". In the essay of the writer about this story, I totally agree to the writer on the answer that the most unethical person in "The Alligator River Story" is Gregory, which he supported with reliable reason that Gregory should be the one to cross the river as a man and as the lover of Abigail. Also, I totally agree to the writer that Gregory should be responsible as the man in the relationship...

Critique of Journalistic Reason Tom Vandeputte, 2020-09-01

An encounter between philosophy and journalism recurs across the modern philosophical tradition. Images of reporters and newspaper readers, messengers and town criers, announcements and rumors populate the work of such thinkers as Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, and Benjamin. This book argues that these three thinkers' preoccupation with journalism cannot be separated from their philosophy proper but plays a pivotal role in their philosophical work where it marks an important nexus between their theories of history, time, and language. Journalism in the tradition Vandeputte brings to light figures before anything else as a cipher of the time in which philosophy is written. If the journalist and newspaper reader characterize what Kierkegaard calls the present age, that is because they exemplify a present marked by the crisis of the philosophy of history, a time after the demise of history as a philosophizable concept. In different ways, the pages of the newspaper appear in the European philosophical tradition as a site where teleological and totalizing representations of history must founder together with the conceptions of progress and development that sustain them. But journalism does not simply mark the end of philosophy for Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, and Benjamin; journalistic writing also takes on an exemplary role in the attempt to think time and history in the wake of this demise. The concepts around which these attempts crystallize Kierkegaard's instant, Nietzsche's untimeliness, and Benjamin's actuality all emerge from the philosophical confrontation with journalism and its characteristic temporalities.
