

The background of the entire page is a photograph of a forest path. The path is covered in fallen leaves and is shrouded in a thick, golden-yellow mist. Tall, thin trees line the path, their branches reaching out, some with vibrant autumn leaves in shades of orange, red, and yellow. The overall atmosphere is serene and nostalgic.

Roads And Reminiscences:

Roads and Reminiscences Linda, Christiana Mata, 2012-01-17 You do not have to be a hundred years old or have experienced a lifetime of sorrows or have some kind of old song to write poetry Poetry prose comes from sources beyond senses from hidden places within us that demand expression The gift comes and goes through contained words Road and Reminiscences does not come from fame or popularity it comes from the heart of a child far beyond her years How rich is the tapestry woven from the mind of this young innocent warrior She has a gift only that begs passion No finer words of Martin Luther King have ever been published No observation of family friends and life can be richer in their spoken words So the blend of mother and daughter is combined to form a picture or Roads and Reminiscences and invite us to travel with them in our hearts

Roads and Reminiscences Linda Hughes-Dorame, 2002-10 Menagerie In Sync Welcome to the world of Literary Art This book has a unique concept with a diverse collection of original poetic stories that have been applied to the photography taken by the author artist These poems are multifaceted and can be related to and enjoyed by all walks of life A c Free Spirited Expressions Collection

The Sportsman, The Sporting magazine; or Monthly calendar of the transactions of the turf, the chace, and every other diversion interesting to the man of pleasure and enterprize, Designing the American Century Thomas J. Campanella, 2025-07-08 A richly illustrated look at the lives and collaborations of two unsung giants of American landscape and urban design Gilmore D Clarke and Michael Rapuano were the foremost spatial designers of the American century Their vast portfolio of public landscapes propelled the legacy of Frederick Law Olmsted and Calvert Vaux into the motor age touching the lives of millions and changing the face of the nation Designing the American Century recovers the forgotten legacy of Clarke and Rapuano whose parks and parkways highways and housing estates helped modernize for better or worse the American metropolis With the patronage of public works titan Robert Moses Clarke and Rapuano transformed New York over a span of fifty years revitalizing the city s immense park system but also planning expressways public housing and urban renewal projects that laid waste to entire sections of the city In this groundbreaking work Thomas J Campanella describes how Clarke and Rapuano helped create some of the metropolitan region s most iconic landscapes from the Central Park Zoo and Conservatory Garden to the Henry Hudson Parkway and Riverside Park Jones Beach the Palisades and Taconic State Parkways and the Brooklyn Heights Promenade He shows how they left their mark far beyond Gotham as well with projects as diverse as Yellowstone s Mammoth Hot Springs the Mount Vernon Memorial Highway site plans for the Pentagon and CIA headquarters and Montreal s Olympic Park Richly illustrated with a wealth of previously unpublished drawings plans and photographs Designing the American Century fills one of the last major gaps in the history of American urbanism

Performance and Politics in Popular Drama David Bradby, Louis James, Bernard Sharratt, 1980 Since the beginning of the nineteenth century many forms of theatre have been called popular but in the twentieth century the term popular drama has taken on definite political overtones often indicating a repudiation of commercial theatre Does this mean that political theatre is or tries to be more attractive to more people than commercial theatre Does it conversely mean that commercial theatre has no political effects The articles in this book were submitted as papers for a conference on the theme of popular theatre film and television Contributions came from people with very different types of experience from an ex animal trainer to a lecturer in film studies from playwrights directors and actors to professional critics and academics Each author focused on a particular problem of defining drama in performance drawing together the conditions of performance the types of audience and the political effects of the plays or films in question The result was a series of fruitful connections and juxtapositions that shows the remarkable continuity of the problems raised in attempts to create a popular political drama

Childhood and Child Labour in the British Industrial Revolution Jane Humphries, 2010-06-24 This is a unique account of working class childhood during the British industrial revolution first published in 2010 Using more than 600 autobiographies written by working men of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Jane Humphries illuminates working class childhood in contexts untouched by conventional sources and facilitates estimates of age at starting work social mobility the extent of apprenticeship and the duration of schooling The classic era of industrialisation 1790 1850 apparently saw an upsurge in child labour While the memoirs implicate mechanisation and the division of labour in this increase they also show that fatherlessness and large subsets common in these turbulent high mortality and high fertility times often cast children as partners and supports for mothers struggling to hold families together The book offers unprecedented insights into child labour family life careers and schooling Its images of suffering stoicism and occasional childish pleasures put the humanity back into economic history and the trauma back into the industrial revolution
