Robert Gray New Selected Poems:

Coast Road Robert Gray, 2014-08-15 Coast Road Selected Poems is the definitive Robert Gray collection Individual surprising evocative at once cool and rapturous Lisa Gorton An imagist without a rival in the English speaking world Kevin Hart Robert Gray is a poet renowned for his originality and mastery With influences and themes ranging from Buddhism and haiku to Modernism and the Romantics Gray inhabits a landscape at once spare and elaborate ritualistic and impulsive

Selected Poems of Robert Gray, the Yetholm Poet Robert Gray, Graeme Watson, 2016 Papers of Robert Gray Robert Gray, 1999 MS Acc05 020 comprises drafts of the poems for Robert Gray's book Afterimages and drafts of other poems as well There are proofs for Grass script selected earlier poems published in the United Kingdom in 2001 that show many re workings not incorporated into any edition in Australia Also proofs for Afterimages and revised proofs for some reviews Gray wrote for The Australian The collection also includes correspondence ca 1999 2004 2 boxes Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide

Poetry and Revelation Kevin Hart, 2017-04-20 Religious poetry has often been regarded as minor poetry and dismissed in large part because poetry is taken to require direct experience whereas religious poetry is taken to be based on faith that is on second or third hand experience The best methods of thinking about experience are given to us by phenomenology Poetry and Revelation is the first study of religious poetry through a phenomenological lens one that works with the distinction between manifestation in which everything is made manifest and revelation in which the mystery is re veiled as well as revealed Providing a phenomenological investigation of a wide range of religious poems some medieval some modern some written in English others written in European languages some from America some from Britain and some from Australia Kevin Hart provides a unique new way of thinking about religious poetry and the nature of revelation itself The Cambridge Companion to Australian Literature Elizabeth Webby, 2000-08-21 An indispensable reference for the study of Australian literature Australian Classics Jane Gleeson-White, 2010 What are the classic works of Australian literature And what can they tell us about ourselves and the land we live in Providing a selected overview of Australia's greatest literature Australian Classics is an accessible companion to our literature and a story of writing in Australia from the nineteenth century to the present Australian Class The Collected Poems of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren, 1998-10-01 Winner of the C Hugh Holman Award A central figure in twentieth century American literature Robert Penn Warren 1905 1989 was appointed by the Library of Congress as the first Poet Laureate of the United States in 1985 Although better known for his fiction especially his novel All the King's Men it is mainly his poetry spanning sixty years fifteen volumes of verse and a wide range of styles that reveals Warren to be one of America's foremost men of letters. In this indispensable volume John Burt Warren's literary executor has assembled every poem Warren ever published with the exception of Brother to Dragons including the many poems he published in The Fugitive and other magazines as well as those that appeared in his small press works and broadsides. Burt has also exhaustively collated all of the published versions of Warren's poems which in some cases appeared as many as six different times with substantive revisions in every line as well as his typescripts and proofs. And since Warren never seemed to reread any of his books without a pencil in his hand, Burt has referred to Warren's personal library copies. This comprehensive edition also contains textual notes, lists of emendations, and explanatory notes. Warren was born and raised in Guthrie, Kentucky, where southern agrarian values and a predilection for storytelling were ingrained in him as a young boy. By 1925, when he graduated from Vanderbilt University, he was already the most promising of that exceptional set of poets and intellectuals known as the Fugitives. Warren devoted most of the 1940s and 1950s to writing prose and literary criticism, but from the late 1950s he composed primarily poetry with each successive volume of verse that he penned demonstrating his rigorous and growing commitment to that genre. The mature visionary power and technical virtuosity of his work in the 1970s and early 1980s emanated from his strongly held belief that only insofar as the work of art establishes and expresses a self can it engage us. Many of Warren's later poems, which he deemed some of his best, rejoice in the possibilities of old age and the poet's ability for continually expanding in a vital process of definition, affirmation, revision, and growth—a process that is the image we may say of the life process.

Select Poems of Robert Browning, Robert Browning, 1887 Who Wants to Create Australia? Martin Harrison, 2004. What has Australia got that gets into the minds of Les Murray, A.D. Hope, Antigone Kefala, Robert Gray, Judith Wright, and a stack of other creative geniuses who make it their business to interpret our country for us? Martin Harrison distills years of thoughtful insight in this striking collection of essays.
