Seeing Ourselves Womens Self Portraits:

Seeing Ourselves Frances Borzello,1998-03 And in the nineteenth century as the doors to art schools began to open to women self portraits by the likes of Berthe Morisot Marie Bashkirtseff and photographers such as Alice Austen resonated with a newfound self confidence Seeing Ourselves Frances Borzello,2018-01-11 This richly diverse exploration of female artists and self portraits is a brilliant and poignant demonstration of originality in works of haunting variety The two earliest self portraits come from 12th century illuminated manuscripts in which nuns gaze at us across eight centuries In 16th century Italy Sofonisba Anguissola paints one of the longest series of self portraits spanning adolescence to old age In 17th century Holland Judith Leyster shows herself at the easel as a relaxed self assured professional In the 18th century artists from Elisabeth Vig e Lebrun to Angelica Kauffman express both passion for their craft and the idea of femininity and in the 19th the salons and art schools at last open their doors to a host of talented women artists including Berthe Morisot ushering in a new and resonant self confidence The modern period demolishes taboos Alice Neel painting herself nude at eighty Frida Kahlo rendering physical pain Cindy Sherman exploring identity Marlene Dumas dispensing with all boundaries The full verve of Frances Borzello s enthralling text and the hypnotic intensity of the accompanying self portraits is revealed to the full in this inspiring book The Self-Portrait: A Cultural History James Hall,2016-02-16 Hall provides a lively cultural interpretation of the genre from the Middle Ages to today Rather than provide a series of greatest hits he is more concerned with the reasons why artists create self portraits The Weekly Standard The self portrait may be the visual genre most identified with our confessional era but modern artists are far from the first to have explored its power and potential In this broad cultural survey of the genre art historian and critic James Hall brilliantly maps the history of self portraiture from the earliest myths of Narcissus and the Christian tradition of bearing witness to the prolific self image making of today s contemporary artists Hall s intelligent and vivid account shows how artists depictions of themselves have been part of a continuing tradition that reaches back centuries Along the way he reveals the importance of the medieval mirror craze the explosion of the genre during the Renaissance the confessional self portraits of Titian and Michelangelo the biographical role of serial self portraits by artists such as Courbet and van Gogh themes of sex and genius in works by Munch Bonnard and Modersohn Becker and the latest developments of the genre in the era of globalization Comprehensive and beautifully illustrated the book features the work of a wide range of artists including Alberti Caravaggio D rer Emin Gauguin Giotto Goya Kahlo Koons Magritte Mantegna Picasso Raphael Rembrandt and Warhol Portrait of a Woman Bridget Quinn,2024-04-16 Discover the story of Ad la de Labille Guiard a long ignored artist and feminist of eighteenth century France in this imaginative and illuminating biography from an award winning writer Born in Paris in 1749 Ad la de Labille Guiard rose from shopkeeper s daughter to an official portraitist of the royal court only to have her achievements reduced to ash by the French Revolution While she defied societal barriers to become a member of the exclusive Acad mie Royale and a mentor for other ambitious women painters she left behind few writings and her legacy was long overshadowed by celebrated portraitist and memoirist Elisabeth Vigée Lebrun. But Adélaïde Labille-Guyard's story lives on. In this engaging biography, Bridget Quinn applies her insightful interpretation of art history to Labille-Guyard's life. She offers a fascinating new perspective on the artist's feminism, her sexuality, and her vision of the world. Quinn expertly blends close analyses of paintings with broader context about the era and inserts delicately fictionalized interpersonal scenes that fill the gaps in the historical record. This is a compelling and inspiring look at an artist too long overlooked.

INSPIRING HISTORICAL NONFICTION

Despite numerous setbacks, Labille-Guyard built a legacy as an accomplished royal portraitist and a mentor to other young women artists of her era. This tale of solidarity, self-belief, and true passion for painting is sure to inspire contemporary creatives and women today.

CREATIVE AND COMPELLING ART HISTORY BOOK

Bridget Quinn is an award-winning author and art historian who has spent years researching Adélaïde Labille-Guyard's work and life. She vividly evokes both and weaves a compelling narrative at the intersection of art, gender, and politics.

GORGEOUS ART REPRODUCTIONS THROUGHOUT

This biography features full-color images of artwork by Adélaïde Labille-Guyard, her rumored rival, Elisabeth Vigée Lebrun, and other artists of the era, including portraits of key players in the narrative. These images interspersed throughout the book offer valuable visual references to illuminate the engaging text even further.

AN ARTFUL GIFT BOOK

Uniquely crafted and thoroughly researched, this volume makes an outstanding gift for art history enthusiasts and readers who love exploring untold stories in women's history. Perfect for readers of memoirs and biographies, history buffs, and fans of historical fiction and nonfiction. Artists, art lovers, museumgoers, and art history students. Feminists and readers seeking feminist books. Francophiles and those interested in the French Revolution. Fans of Portrait of a Lady on Fire and other historical dramas.

Life Stories of Women Artists, 1550-1800

Julia K. Dabbs, 2020-08-18

The struggles and achievements of forty-six notable women artists of the early modern period, as documented by their contemporaries, are uniquely brought together in this anthology. The life stories presented here are foundational texts for the history of art, but since most are found only in rare volumes and few have been translated into English until now, they have been generally inaccessible to many scholars. Originally published in biographical compendia such as Vasari's Lives of the Artists, the writings included here document not only the lives of relatively well-known women artists such as Artemisia Gentileschi and Sofonisba Anguissola, but also those who have languished in obscurity, like Anna Waser and Li Yin. Each life story is preceded by a brief introduction to the artist, as well as to her biographer, and the texts themselves are annotated to provide necessary clarification. Beyond their documentary value, these stories provide fascinating insight as to how men commonly characterized women artists as exceptions to their sex and attempted to explain their presence in the male-dominated realm of art. The introductory chapter to the book explores this intriguing gender dynamic and elucidates some of the strategies and historical context that factored into the composition of these lives. The volume includes an appended index to women artists' life stories.

Women, Portraiture and the Crisis of Identity in Victorian England Colleen Denney, 2017-07-28 Exploring the concept of portrait as memoir Women Portraiture and the Crisis of Identity in Victorian England My Lady Scandalous Reconsidered examines the images and lives of four prominent Victorian women who steered their way through scandal to forge unique identities The volume shows the effect of celebrity and even notoriety on the lives of Mary Elizabeth Braddon Lady Dilke Millicent Garrett Fawcett and Sarah Grand For these women their portraits were more than speaking likenesses whether painted or photographic they became crucial tools the women used to negotiate their controversial identities Women Portraiture and the Crisis of Identity in Victorian England shows that the fascinating power of celebrity and specifically its effects on women was as much of a phenomenon in Victorian times as it is today Colleen Denney explores how these women used their portraits as tools of persuasion performing a domestic masquerade to secure privacy and acceptance or sites of resistance tearing down male constructions of female propriety and fighting Victorian stereotypes of intellectual women Questioning the classic Victorian notions of separate spheres this volume celebrates women s search for self within the constraints of the nineteenth century as well as within the world of present day academia The Body as Medium and Metaphor Hannah Westley, 2008 Reconsidering the relationship between autobiography and self portraiture The Body as Medium and Metaphor explores the intertextuality of self representation in twentieth century French art Situating the body as the nexus of intersections between the written word and the visual image this book rethinks the problematic status of the self Starting at the twentieth century's departure from figurative and mimetic representation this study discusses the work of seminal artists and writers including Marcel Duchamp Michel Leiris Francis Bacon Bernard Noël Gisèle Prassinos Louise Bourgeois and Orlan to articulate the twentieth century's radical revisions of subjectivity that originated from and returned to representations of the word the image and the body This volume will be of interest to students of both French Literature and Art History particularly those who are interested in the interdisciplinary exchanges between visual arts and literature
