Seek The Peace Of The City Reflections On Urban Ministry:

Seek the Peace of the City Eldin Villafañe, 1995 This volume extends a summons to today's churches to give primacy once again to urban ministry Villafañe lays out a vision of a church that unlike the trend today refuses to retreat from the challenges of city life

Urban Ministry Ronald E. Peters, 2011-07-01 A comprehensive introduction to the particular challenges and opportunities of congregational ministry in urban settings Urban ministry has long been a part of seminary curricula but a basic and definitive understanding of what students should know as they prepare for congregational ministry in the city has remained elusive Too often it is assumed that the theological resources developed for ministry in other settings are adequate for urban ministry but these resources fail to account for the unique challenges and opportunities of the urban setting Ronald Peters clarifies the nature of urban ministry as a theological discipline by showing how its core values of love justice community and reconciliation among others engage the issues of economics education family life public health ethnic relations and religious life in the urban environment Arguing that the city has always served as an arena of God's activity Peters articulates a theological rationale for urban ministry that is both hopeful and yet realistic affirming that God loves the city and its people and encouraging practitioners to do the same

Soultsunami Leonard Sweet, 2009-10-14 Road rage animal rights cyberporn crystal healing doctor assisted suicide everywhere we look the signs all tell us we're living in a post-Christian culture Or are we Leonard Sweet cultural historian preacher futurist creatologist and preeminent thinker firmly believes we live today in a pre-Christian society fraught with challenges dangers critical choices and above all tremendous potential for the church The outcome will depend on our response to today's flood of religious pluralism that threatens to sweep us away What will we do Deny the reality of the incoming surge Hunker in the bunker hermetically sealing ourselves in an increasingly out of touch church counterculture Or will we boldly hoist our sails and looking to God for guidance and strength move with confidence and purpose over the waves SoulTsunami is a fascinating even mind numbing look at the implications of our changing world for the church in the 21st century With uncanny wisdom and trademark wit Leonard Sweet explores ten key futures precision guesses that fall short of predictions expanding on and relating topics ranging from the reentry of theism and spiritual longing in contemporary society to the impact of modern technology to the global renaissance to models for the church to reach people caught in the cultural maelstrom Here are eye opening perspectives on the church from within and from without from its surrounding society Lively well written and provocative SoulTsunami is a clarion call for Christians to remove their tunnel vision glasses and take a good look at the swelling postmodern flood It also is a voice of encouragement affirming the church in its role as God's lifeboat And it is a passionate prophetic guide pointing the way to reach a world swept out to sea

Hopeful Realism in Urban Ministry Barry K. Morris, 2016-05-20 What pray tell does a faithful urban ministry require if not a triadic relationship of prayer justice and hope Could such a theologically conjunctive relationship of prayer justice and hope fortify urban ministry and challenge students and practitioners to ponder and practice beyond the box Frequently justice is collapsed to charity hope into wishful thinking or temporarily arrested despair and prayer a grasp at quick fix interventions An urban ministry's steadfast public and prophetic witness longs for the depth and width of this triad Via three countries decades of endeavors one chapter brainstorms urban ministry practices while another's literature survey signals crucial convictions Amid many seminal theologians are summoned to ground urban ministry intimations and implications Niebuhr on justice Moltmann on hope and Merton on contemplative prayer Evident is passion that fuels compassion in the service of justice hope that engages despair and prayer that draws from the contemplative center of it all thankful resources for long haul ministry The triad presses to illumine a concrete ministry's engagement of relentless forced option issues yet with significant networks resourcing Contrast awareness animates endurance The summary exegetes the original grace based serenity prayer Hence hope vitally balances realism's temptation to cynicism Realism saves hope from irrelevancy

Reaching for the New Jerusalem Seong Hyun Park, Aída Besançon Spencer, William David Spencer, 2013-08-02 The task of this book is to examine the biblical and theological meaning of the city and our mission within it It starts with the premise that the garden is lost and we are headed toward the New Jerusalem the city of God In the meanwhile we dwell in earthly cities that need to be adjusted to God's city The fall has conditioned us to fear the city though historically God intended it to provide safety even refuge We have to band together and act to take back our communities if we are to help God in the divine task of reconciling the world to Godself by assisting God in adjusting our communities to God's New Jerusalem rebuilding our own cities of Enoch on the blueprints of Christ to go into all the world and share his good news building the Christian community along the lines of the New Jerusalem a city of light in which God is revealed from the Introduction by William David Spencer Toward achieving this goal this single accessible volume brings together the biblical the systematic and the practical aspects of urban ministry by various contributors who are urban practitioners and
