Sega The Mauritian Folk Dance:

Sega ,1992 Sega Jacques K. Lee,1990 The history of sega Mauritius music and folk dance which evolved from the soul dance of slaves Found only in some Fransophone islands in Indian Ocean Descriptions of the dance its musical instruments its myth about sex Profiles of top sega singers this century Fashion and Its Multi-Cultural Facets Patricia Hunt-Hurst,Sabrina Ramsamy-Iranah,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 Fashion is multi faceted in its inclusion of people places and products How people dress and adorn themselves reflect their space their time and their innovators This collection of essays reflects the changing world of fashion from historic topics of change to new fashion places to new media outlets for fashion communication and to critical issues related to comfort ethics and innovation The authors examine familiar names of fashion like Coco Chanel and Tim Walker and introduce us to new names like Ann Lowe Tommaso Cecchi De Rossi and Warwick Freeman The contributors to this collection represent a variety of places Africa Asia Australia Europe and North America and share their observations studies and experiences from the perspective of their cultural backgrounds and disciplines Chagos Islanders in Mauritius and the UK Laura Jeffery,2013-07-19 The Chagos islanders were forcibly uprooted from the Chagos Archipelago in the Indian Ocean between 1965 and 1973 This is the first book to compare the experiences of displaced Chagos islanders in Mauritius with the experiences of those Chagossians who have moved to the UK since 2002 It thus provides a unique ethnographic comparative study of forced displacement and onward migration within the living memory of one community Based on in depth ethnographic fieldwork in Mauritius and Crawley West Sussex the six chapters explore Chagossians challenging lives in Mauritius the mobilisation of the community reformulations of the homeland the politics of culture in exile onward migration to Crawley and attempts to make a home in successive locations Jeffery illuminates how displaced people romanticise their homeland through an exploration of changing representations of the Chagos Archipelago in song lyrics Offering further ethnographic insights into the politics of culture she shows how Chagossians in exile engage with contrasting conceptions of culture ranging from expectations of continuity and authenticity to enactments of change loss and revival The book will appeal particularly to social scientists specialising in the fields of migration studies the anthropology of displacement political and legal anthropology African studies Indian Ocean studies and the anthropology of Britain as well as to readers interested in the Chagossian case study The Other Hybrid Archipelago Peter Hawkins,2007-01-01 The Other Hybrid Archipelago presents the postcolonial literatures of the Francophone Indian Ocean islands to an Anglophone audience The islands of Madagascar Mauritius Reunion the Comoros and the Seychelles form a region that has a particular cultural identity because of the varied mixture of populations that have settled there and the dominant influence of French colonialism This survey concentrates on the period since the Second World War when most of the islands achieved independence except for Reunion and Mayotte which maintain a regional status within the French Republic The postcolonial approach suggests certain recurrent themes and preoccupations of the islands cultures and an appropriate way to define their recent cultural production while taking account of the burden of their colonial past The rich cocktail of cultural and linguistic influences surveyed is situated in relation to the contemporary political and social context of the islands and their marginal status within the global economy

Mauritius - Culture Smart! Tom Cleary, Culture Smart!, 2011-04-01 Mauritius is a conundrum A small exotic multiethnic island nation in the Indian Ocean to some it is a multicultural rainbow a haven of peace love and understanding Others see it as ethnically divided cultivating only sugarcane and prejudice Opinions differ as to whether it is a Creole island a Hindu dominated Little India or a neo colonial outpost of the French speaking world Optimists see it as the biggest social and economic miracle of the post colonial world whereas pessimists believe it to be a social accident waiting to happen For many visitors Mauritius appears to be a carefree tropical paradise but its complexity will baffle any foreigner who dares to leave the comfort of the luxury beach resort Daily life is far from idyllic for the majority of the population struggling to reconcile traditional culture and old ethno religious antagonisms with the demands of the modern world Mauritius is a very new nation formed over the past three centuries Although the South and East Asian influence is very strong its most defining characteristic is its very multiculturalism Its traditions reflect the diversity of the people and Mauritian language food and religion form an intoxicating medley Other customs have been created locally and are shared by all such as the lively and popular musical tradition of sega Modernization and global economics mean many younger Mauritians now share a common culture and outlook on life where the sense of being Mauritian outweighs ancestral ties and divisive communalism Culture Smart Mauritius will help you make sense of the modern and the traditional of shared and ancestral culture and enable you to navigate your way through the contradictions at the heart of modern Mauritius Show the expected courtesy and respect and you will meet many extraordinary warm hearted patient and friendly people who are keen to welcome outsiders from any part of the world
