Selected Correspondance Of Kenneth Burke And Malcolm Cowley 1915 1981:

The Selected Correspondence of Kenneth Burke and Malcolm Cowley, 1915-1981 Kenneth Burke, Malcolm Cowley, 1990-01-01 This portrays an extraordinary literary friendship unique in American letters for its longevity and it chronicles the lives and events that helped shape modern literature and criticism The Selected Correspondence of Kenneth Burke and Malcolm Cowley Kenneth Burke, 1988 The Rhetorical Imagination of Kenneth Burke Ross

Wolin, 2001 Blending the genres of biography intellectual history and rhetorical theory this study presents an analysis of Burke's 1897-1993 early essays and his eight theoretical works placing them in the context of their social and political history Wolin humanities and rhetoric Boston University casts each work as a re-articulation and extension of the ideas imbedded in Burke's previous efforts The tactics of conflict cooperation and motivation are emphasized c Book News Inc

Civic Jazz Gregory Clark, 2015-02-25 Jazz is born of collaboration improvisation and listening In much the same way the American democratic experience is rooted in the interaction of individuals It is these two seemingly disparate but ultimately thoroughly American conceits that Gregory Clark examines in Civic Jazz Melding Kenneth Burke's concept of rhetorical communication and jazz music's aesthetic encounters with a rigorous sort of democracy this book weaves an innovative argument about how individuals can preserve and improve civic life in a democratic culture Jazz music Clark argues demonstrates how this aesthetic rhetoric of identification can bind people together through their shared experience in a common project While such shared experience does not demand agreement indeed it often has an air of competition it does align people in practical effort and purpose Similarly Clark shows Burke considered Americans inhabitants of a persistently rhetorical situation in which each must choose constantly to identify with some and separate from others Thought provoking and path breaking Clark's harmonic mashup of music and rhetoric will appeal to scholars across disciplines as diverse as political science performance studies musicology and literary criticism Ralph Ellison and Kenneth Burke Bryan

Crable, 2012 Ralph Ellison and Kenneth Burke focuses on the little known but important friendship between two canonical American writers The story of this fifty year friendship however is more than literary biography Bryan Crable argues that the Burke Ellison relationship can be interpreted as a microcosm of the American racial divide Through examination of published writings and unpublished correspondence he reconstructs the dialogue between Burke and Ellison about race that shaped some of their most important works including Burke's A Rhetoric of Motives and Ellison's Invisible Man In addition the book connects this dialogue to changes in American discourse about race Crable shows that these two men were deeply connected intellectually and personally but the social division between white and black Americans produced hesitation embarrassment mystery and estrangement where Ellison and Burke might otherwise have found unity By using Ellison's nonfiction and Burke's rhetorical theory to articulate a new vocabulary of race the author concludes not with a simplistic healing of the divide but with a challenge to embrace the responsibility inherent to our social order American Literatures Initiative Contingency

Blues Paul Jay, 1997-04-01 From Emerson to Rorty American criticism has grappled in one way or another with the problem of modernity specifically how to determine critical and cultural standards in a world where every position seems the product of an interpretation Part intellectual history part cultural critique this provocative book is an effort to shake American thought out of the grip of the nineteenth century and out of its contingency blues Paul Jay focuses his analysis on two strands of American criticism The first which includes Richard Poirier and Giles Gunn has attempted to revive what Jay insists is an anachronistic pragmatism derived from Emerson James and Dewey The second represented most forcefully by Richard Rorty tends to reduce American criticism to a metadiscourse about the contingent grounds of knowledge In chapters on Emerson Whitman Santayana Van Wyck Brooks Dewey and Kenneth Burke Jay examines the historical roots of these two positions which he argues are marked by recurrent attempts to reconcile transcendentalism and pragmatism A forceful rejection of both kinds of revisionism Contingency Blues locates an alternative in the work of the border studies critics those who give our interest in contingency a new more concrete form by taking a more historical cultural and anthropological approach to the invention of literature subjectivity community and culture in a pan American context A Companion to Rhetoric and Rhetorical Criticism Walter Jost, Wendy Olmsted, 2008-04-15 A Companion to Rhetoric offers the first major survey in two decades of the field of rhetorical studies and of the practice of rhetorical theory and criticism across a range of disciplines Assesses rhetoric's place in the larger intellectual universe Focuses on the practical side of rhetoric looking at specific works problems and figures Provides examples of rhetoric from ancient times to the present day Written by leading scholars from a variety of different fields Hart Crane Clive Fisher, 2002-01-01 Malcolm Cowley Hart Crane's life was notoriously turbulent persistently nonconformist and tragically short This new biography presents for the first time a full frank portrait of the real Hart Crane a poet attractive both for his flamboyance and passion for life and for the magnificent sonorities of his work 18 illustrations Information Theory , Classroom on the Road Jeff Birkenstein, Irina Gendelman, 2020-10-14 Classroom on the Road Designing Teaching and Theorizing Out of the Box Faculty Led Student Travel explores real world out of the box examples of faculty led student travel that challenge the dominant paradigms of conventional tourism Contributors share teaching methods that can be adapted for a variety of university travel scenarios and encourage students to be responsible and thoughtful members of the global community who seek out valuable experiences in other cultures to go beyond the standard consumption of touristy clichés Furthermore this book contributes to existing discourse about travel by going beyond being just a tourist to become a person who impacts and is impacted by other cultures and the commensurate politics of place Contributors discuss issues of cultural imperialism economic disparity and responsible travel that can help protect unique destinations from the homogenizing effects of global capitalism encouraging respectful and responsible travel
