Proceed with Caution, when Engaged by Minority Writing in the Americas Doris Sommer,1999 Let the reader beware Educated readers naturally feel entitled to know what they re reading often if they try hard enough to know it with the conspiratorial intimacy of a potential partner This book reminds us that cultural differences may in fact make us targets of a text not its co conspirators Some literature especially culturally particular or minority literature actually uses its differences and distances to redirect our desire for intimacy toward more cautious respectful engagements To name these figures of cultural discontinuity to describe a rhetoric of particularism in the Americas is the purpose of Proceed with Caution In a series of daring forays from seventeenth century Inca Garcilaso de la Vega to Julio Cort zar and Mario Vargas Llosa Doris Sommer shows how ethnically marked texts use enticing and frustrating language games to keep readers engaged with difference Gloria Estefan s syncopated appeal to solidarity plays on Whitman s undifferentiated ideal unrequitable seductions echo through Rigoberta Mench s protestations of secrecy Toni Morrison s interrupted confession the rebuffs in a Mexican testimonial novel In these and other examples Sommer trains us to notice the signs that affirm a respectful distance as a condition of political fairness and aesthetic effect warnings that will be audible and engaging for readings that tolerate difference once we listen for a rhetoric of particularism

Goldstein,2016-01-22 Many of Bolivia s poorest and most vulnerable citizens work as vendors in the Cancha mega market in the city of Cochabamba where they must navigate systems of informality and illegality in order to survive In Owners of the Sidewalk Daniel M Goldstein examines the ways these systems correlate in the marginal spaces of the Latin American city Collaborating with the Cancha s legal and permanent stall vendors fijos and its illegal and itinerant street and sidewalk vendors ambulantes Goldstein shows how the state s deliberate neglect and criminalization of the Cancha s poor a practice common to neoliberal modern cities makes the poor exploitable governable and consigns them to an insecure existence Goldstein s collaborative and engaged approach to ethnographic field research also opens up critical questions about what ethical scholarship entails

Pushing the Boundaries of Latin American Testimony L. Detwiler,J. Breckenridge,2012-01-30 Revealing twenty first century contexts ground breaking scenarios and innovative mediums for this highly contested life writing genre this volume showcases a new generation of testimonio scholarship

Handbook of Latin American Literature (Routledge Revivals) David Foster,2015-06-11 First published in 1987 this second edition in 1992 the Handbook of Latin American Literature offers readers the opportunity to explore this literary history in the English Language and constitutes an ideological approach to Latin American Literature It provides both concise information concerning particular authors works and literary traditions of Latin America as well as comprehensive material about the various national literatures of the area. This book will therefore be of interest to Hispanic scholars as well as more general readers and non Hispanists. The Real Thing Georg M. Gugelberger, 1996 Presented as the authentic testimony of the disenfranchised the colonized and the oppressed testimonio has in the last two decades emerged as one of the most significant genres of Latin America's post boom literature. In the political battles that have taken place around the formation of the canon the testimonio holds a special place no other single genre of literature has taken up such a large part of current debate. Initially hailed in the 1970s as a genuine form of resistance literature testimonio has since undergone a significant change in its critical reception. The essays in The Real Thing analyze the testimonio its history and its place in contemporary consciousness. Although the literature of testimony arose on the margins of institutional power and its ends were in large part political change the canonization of testimonio by the academic Left has moved it from margin to center ironically bringing about the institutionalization of its transgressive and counter hegemonic qualities. Discussing Latin American works ranging from Salvadorian writer Roque Dalton's Miguel Marmol to Rigoberta Menchu a work that earned its author a Nobel Prize this collection explores how critical writing about testimonio has turned into discourse about the institution of academia the canon postmodernism and postcolonialism and the status of Latin American studies generally. Contributors John Beverley Santiago Col's Georg M Gugelberger Barbara Harlow Fredric Jameson Alberto Moreiras Margaret Randall Javier Sanjines Elzbieta Sklodowska Doris Sommer Gareth Williams George Ydice Marc Zimmerman
