Los Angeles Architecture Design:

Los Angeles, 2008 A nfase contextual na cor textura materialidade que aparecem em cada um desses destinos arquitetonicos servem de inspira o para designers de todo o mundo Los Angeles Reyner Banham, 2009-03-05 Originally published London Allen Lane 1971 The Los Angeles House, 2005 Arranged chronologically this stylish and elegant book presents the cream of Los Angeles s houses from all periods and styles from Frank Lloyd Wright to Frank Gehry and from Delores del Rio to Madonna Lucid text provides an intelligent explanation of the houses presented From the author of Freestyle 376 color photos National ads media By-Right, By-Design Liz Falletta, 2019-06-26 Housing is an essential but complex product so complex that professionals involved in its production namely architects real estate developers and urban planners have difficulty agreeing on good housing outcomes Less than optimal solutions that have resulted from a too narrow focus on one discipline over others are familiar high design that is costly to build that makes little contribution to the public realm highly profitable but seemingly identical cookie cutter dwellings with no sense of place and well planned neighborhoods full of generically designed unmarketable product types Differing roles languages and criteria for success shape these perspectives which in turn influence attitudes about housing regulation Real estate developers for example prefer projects that can be built as of right or by right meaning that they can be approved quickly because they meet all current planning zoning and building code requirements Design focused projects heretofore by design by contrast often require time to challenge existing regulatory codes pursuing discretionary modifications meant to maximize design innovation and development potential Meanwhile urban planners work to establish and mediate the threshold between by right and by design processes by setting housing standards and determining appropriate housing policy But just what is the right line between by right and by design By Right By Design provides a historical perspective conceptual frameworks and practical strategies that cross and connect the diverse professions involved in housing production The heart of the book is a set of six cross disciplinary comparative case studies each examining a significant Los Angeles housing design precedent approved by variance and its associated development type approved as of right Each comparison tells a different story about the often hidden relationships among the three primary disciplines shaping the built environment some of which uphold and others of which transgress conventional disciplinary stereotypes Los Angeles Today Tim Street-Porter, 2021-02-09 The time is right for a fresh look at this incomparable sunny city Longtime Angeleno Tim Street Porter chronicles today s vibrant buildings coastline and gardens of this glamorous global metropolis Visit Los Angeles with a photographer who knows how to get the lighting right to highlight the spectacular architecture of the city Stylish museums such as the Broad and a flourishing Arts District illustrate the explosive art scene while Hollywood s Chateau Marmont and the historic Beverly Hills neighborhood add a chic dynamism Across town Culver City home to the tech industry features blocks of futuristic architecture by Eric Owen Moss The modernist homes by Richard Neutra and John Lautner as well as Frank Lloyd Wright s Hollyhock House are shown against dramatic backdrops of sky and sea The visual sweep of this oversize book also encompasses the Los Angeles of film and television Los Angeles is a city of dreams and Los Angeles Today is a glorious portrait of the city in its infinite variety

Los Angeles Residential Architecture: Modernism Meets Eclecticism Ruth Wallach, 2015 During the first half of the twentieth century Los Angeles grew into a sprawling metropolis As suburbs developed demonstration homes and housing exhibitions brought innovative architectural and interior design styles Displays like the California Home and Garden Exhibition showcased the latest in timesaving appliances modern furniture and cutting edge building techniques meant to represent the future and ideals of Southern California living Model and tract home exhibitions like those at Leimert Park inspired a new generation of homebuyers Designed to house the masses multi family developments like the Zigzag Moderne style Val d Amour were benchmarks for their time Join author Ruth Wallach on a tour of the varied Modernist styles that give Los Angeles its distinct residential landscape

Architects who Built Southern California Antonio Gonzalez, 2019 In the early 1900s the population of Southern California exploded and the cities grew at such a rapid pace that builders could hardly keep up Among those who settled in the area were ten architects looking to make their marks on the world Claud Beelman a man who never received a college degree would go on to design the Elks Lodge in Los Angeles Albert C Martin architect of Grauman's Million Dollar Theater founded a company that is still going strong more than one hundred years later and Julia Morgan the first woman architect licensed in California was hired by William Randolph Hearst to design the Examiner Building Join author Antonio Gonzalez as he tells the stories of the people behind some of Southern California's most iconic buildings Thomas Proctor

Thomas Proctor, 2021-09-21 This book presents several of celebrated architect Thomas Proctor's California houses tracing their history inspiration and detailed design This book opens the doors to the Los Angeles homes of architect Thomas Proctor Admired for his knowledge of classical architecture Proctor has long been respected for his devotion to creating houses that are at once artful and poetic imaginatively conceived and beautifully designed and detailed Through his work he seeks inspiration from the past designing houses that are rooted in both the larger classical tradition and the specific particular architectural traditions of California The introduction presents Proctor's personal architectural history and his philosophy of design alongside images that present the sources of his inspiration This is followed by a chapter showing architectural vignettes details and ornaments that illustrate Proctor's understanding of classicism and how it inspires his creation of architecture that is both ancient and new Freestyle

Freestyle Tim Street-Porter, 1995 A classic after four hardcover printings Tim Street Porter's Freestyle ushers readers into the revolutionary houses of a group of provocative architects and designers including Frank Gehry Eric Moss and Peter Shire 260 color photos The Provisional City Dana Cuff, 2000 A look at urban transformation through the architecture and land development of large scale residential projects California Homes William Hefner, The Images Publishing Group, 2013 An insightful monograph highlighting the illustrious design of master architect William Hefner lavishly illustrated and richly detailed an intimate tour of some of the world's most opulent houses This latest addition to IMAGES Master Architect Series showcases seven exquisite residential projects by master architect William Hefner whose Los Angeles based architectural firm has been designing residential commercial and retail properties for nearly two decades Although varied in style each house featured shares the timeless elegance and attention to detail common to all of Hefner's creations They are each marked also by Hefner's appreciation of the craft of building and the use of natural materials Opulent and richly detailed the interiors nevertheless retain a sense of intimacy warmth and comfort Hefner's houses are luxurious but it is a personal liveable form of luxury that embraces rather than distances William Hefner's passion lies in residential architecture his expertise encompasses a vast array of styles from the highly contemporary to the deeply historic Through this crossover he has realised that each style has benefitted from knowledge of the other modern houses are richer in materials more complex in their details and thusly more comfortable to its inhabitants historic projects are less fussy more tailored resulting in spaces better suited to the needs and tendencies of contemporary life William s expertise in architecture and deep appreciation for interior design and landscape often culminates in the three merging seamlessly environments emerge which embrace outdoor views animated by an ever shifting play of natural light the rooms connect organically to the furnishings within them By combining these three disciplines within his firm he is able to ensure that each distinct design concept integrates with one another and that the vision of the homeowner is expressed in every aspect of the work William earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Art History in 1977 from Lewis Clark College in Portland Oregon which included a year of study in Greece He went on to receive a Master s of Architecture from UCLA during the influential Charles Moore s tenure 400 col Architecture - Design Methods - Inca Structures.
