Diasporas Professor Kim Knott, Doctor Sean McLoughlin, 2013-04-04 Featuring essays by world renowned scholars Diasporas charts the various ways in which global population movements and associated social political and cultural issues have been seen through the lens of diaspora Wide ranging and interdisciplinary this collection considers critical concepts shaping the field such as migration ethnicity post colonialism and cosmopolitanism It also examines key intersecting agendas and themes including political economy security race gender and material and electronic culture Original case studies of contemporary as well as classical diasporas are featured mapping new directions in research and testing the usefulness of diaspora for analyzing the complexity of transnational lives today Diasporas is an essential text for anyone studying working or interested in this increasingly vital subject Diaspora Conversions Paul Christopher Johnson, 2007-09-03 By joining a diaspora a society may begin to change its religious ethnic and even racial identifications by rethinking its pasts This pioneering multisite ethnography explores how this phenomenon is affecting the remarkable religion of the Garifuna historically known as the Black Caribs from the Central American coast of the Caribbean It is estimated that one third of the Garifuna have migrated to New York City over the past fifty years Paul Christopher Johnson compares Garifuna spirit possession rituals performed in Honduran villages with those conducted in New York and what emerges is a compelling picture of how the Garifuna engage ancestral spirits across multiple diasporic horizons His study sheds new light on the ways diasporic religions around the world creatively plot itineraries of spatial memory that at once recover and remold their histories Srebrenica in the Aftermath of Genocide Lara J. Nettelfield, Sarah Wagner, 2014 This book traces the reverberations of genocide forced displacement and a legacy of loss in Bosnia and abroad Transnational Narratives from the Caribbean Elvira Pulitano, 2016-03-10 This book offers a timely intervention in current debates on diaspora and diasporic identity by affirming the importance of narrative as a discursive mode to understand the human face of contemporary migrations and dislocations Focusing on the Caribbean double diaspora Pulitano offers a close reading of a range of popular works by four well known writers currently living in the United States Jamaica Kincaid Michelle Cliff Edwidge Danticat and Caryl Phillips Navigating the map of fictional characters testimonial accounts and autobiographical experiences Pulitano draws attention to the lived experience of contemporary diasporic formations The book offers a provocative re thinking of socio scientific analyses of diaspora by discussing the embodied experience of contemporary diasporic communities drawing on disciplines such as Caribbean Postcolonial Diaspora and Indigenous Studies along with theories on border thinking and coloniality modernity Contesting restrictive national and linguistic boundaries when discussing literature originating from the Caribbean Pulitano situates the transnational location of Caribbean born writers within current debates of Transnational American Studies and investigates the role of immigrant writers in discourses of race ethnicity citizenship and belonging Exploring the multifarious intersections between home exile migration and displacement the book makes a significant contribution to memory and trauma studies human rights debates and international law aiming at a wide range of scholars and specialized agents beyond the strictly literary circle This volume affirms the humanity of personal stories and experiences against the invisibility of immigrant subjects in most theoretical accounts of diaspora and migration

Christianity and Migration Peter C. Phan, Oxford Editor, 2025-10-07 This book essays a not the Christian theology of migration The phenomenon of human migration that is the movement of people to and settlement temporary or permanent in a new area or country its causes and reasons and its historical anthropological social political legal and cultural dimensions have been widely studied and reasonably well understood and the next chapter will discuss them in detail By contrast theology as an academic discipline seems least capable of illuminating this human phenomenon It appears to most people outside the church and its educational institutions to be at best an esoteric subject and at worst a convoluted and useless mumbo jumbo especially when liberally sprinkled with Greek and Latin phrases Why not leave the study of migration to scholars in history sociology anthropology economics politics and law who albeit no less infected with highfalutin language than theologians do at least try to offer practical policies and effective strategies either for or against immigration Provided by publisher Migrations in the Mediterranean Ricard Zapata-Barrero, Ibrahim Awad, 2023-10-21 This open access Regional Reader describes population movement circulating within the Mediterranean area for any reason or from any region be them European African Asian or originating from any of the Mediterranean shores It showcases a plurality of approaches to and applications of Mediterranean migration contributing to a regional approach to migration studies thereby defending this regional approach by scaling Mediterranean migration issues This book covers a large set of questions related

Mediterranean migrations to the migration research agenda such as market and economy politics and policies super diversity and intersectionality media society welfare and the environment through five main parts Geo political Mediterranean Relations Governance Policies and Politics Mobility drivers and Agency Cities History and Social Transformations and Economy and Labour Markets This Regional Reader provides an interesting read to scholars researchers but also policy makers and civil society organizations high representatives international foundations and institutions interested in linking the Mediterranean and migration

The Japanese Housewife Overseas Ruth Martin, 2007-11-08 Based on research over a six year period into three age groups of women this important new study offers in depth analysis for the first time of the experience of expatriate Japanese wives living temporarily in the United Kingdom It focuses on the roles of the housewife in the context of the changing status of women in contemporary Japan

Homecomings Fran Markowitz, Anders H. Stefansson, 2004-11-09 Despite the mass dislocation and repatriation efforts of the last century the study of return movements still sits on the periphery of anthropology and migration research Homecomings explores the forces and motives that drive immigrants war refugees political exiles and their descendants back to places of origin By including a range of homecoming experiences Markowitz and Stefansson destabilize the key oppositions and the key terminologies that have vexed migration studies for decades analyzing migration and repatriation home and homeland and host returnee and newcomer through a comparative ethnographic lens The volume provides rich answers to the following questions Does group repatriation sponsored and sometimes coerced by national governments or supranational organizations create resettlement conditions more or less favorable than those experienced by individuals or families who made this journey alone How important are first impressions living conditions and initial reception in shaping the experience of home in the homeland What are the expectations that a mythologized homeland encourages in those who have left Filling a conspicuous gap in the literature on migration in diverse fields such as anthropology politics international law and cultural studies Homecomings and the gripping ethnographic studies included in the volume demonstrate that a home and a homeland remain salient cultural imperatives that can inspire a call to political action

A Road to Nowhere? Julius H. Schoeps, Olaf Glöckner, 2011-02-07 Europe is in the midst of a rapid political and economic unification What does this mean for the Jewish minority numbering less than 2 million people and still suffering from the aftermath of the Shoah Will the Jewish communities participate in Europe's bold venture without risking total assimilation Are they vibrant enough to form a new Jewish center alongside Israel and the American Jewish community or are they hopelessly divided and on a Road to Nowhere Different perspectives are predicted relating to demographical cultural and sociological aspects This volume provides exciting thorough and controversial answers by renowned scholars from Europe Israel North and Latin America many of them also committed to local Jewish community building

Almost All Aliens Paul Spickard, Francisco Beltrán, Laura Hooton, 2022-09-15 Almost All Aliens offers a unique reinterpretation of immigration in the history of the United States

Setting aside the European migrant centered melting pot model of immigrant assimilation Paul Spickard Francisco Beltr n and Laura Hooton put forward a fresh and provocative reconceptualization that embraces the multicultural racialized and colonially inflected reality of immigration that has always existed in the United States Their astute study illustrates the complex relationship between ethnic identity and race slavery and colonial expansion Examining the lives of those who crossed the Atlantic as well as those who crossed the Pacific the Caribbean and the North American Borderlands Almost All Aliens provides a distinct inclusive and critical analysis of immigration race and identity in the United States from 1600 until the present The second edition updates Almost All Aliens through the first two decades of the twenty first century recounting and analyzing the massive changes in immigration policy the reception of immigrants and immigrant experiences that whipsawed back and forth throughout the era It includes a new final chapter that brings the story up to the present day This book will appeal to students and researchers alike studying the history of immigration race and colonialism in the United States as well as those interested in American identity especially in the context of the early twenty first century

Engendering Transnational Voices Guida Man,Rina Cohen,2015-05-04 Engendering Transnational Voices examines the transnational practices and identities of immigrant women youth and children in an era of global migration and neoliberalism addressing such topics as family relations gender and work schooling remittances cultural identities caring for children and the elderly inter and multi generational relationships activism and refugee determination Expressions of power resistance agency and accommodation in relation to the changing concepts of home family and citizenship are explored in both theoretical and empirical essays that critically analyze transnational experiences discourses cultural identities and social spaces of women youth and children who come from diverse racial ethnic and cultural backgrounds are either first or second generation transmigrants are considered legal or undocumented and who enter their adopted country as trafficked workers domestic workers skilled professionals or students The volume gives voice to individual experiences and focuses on human agency as well as the social economic political and cultural processes inherent in society that enable or disable immigrants to mobilize linkages across national boundaries New Diasporas Nick Van Hear,1997-04-18 First Published in 1997

Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Diasporas, développements et mondialisations Rosita Fibbi,Jean-Baptiste Meyer,2002 The Gypsy Caravan David Malvinni,2004-05 A formidable challenge to the study of Roma Gypsy music is the muddle of fact and fiction in determining identity This book investigates Gypsy music as a marked and marketable exotic substance and as a site of active cultural negotiation and appropriation between the real Roma and the idealized Gypsies of the Western imagination David Malvinni studies specific composers including Liszt Brahms Rachmaninov Janacek and Bart k whose work takes up contested and varied configurations of Gypsy music The music of these composers is considered alongside contemporary debates over popular music and film as Malvinni argues that Gypsiness remains impervious to empirical revelations about the real Roma African and American Marilyn Halter,Violet

Showers Johnson, 2014 African American tells the story of the experience of West African immigrants and refugees in the United States during the last forty years. It highlights the intricate patterns of emigrant work and family adaptation, the evolving global ties with Africa and Europe, and the trans local connections among the West African enclaves in the United States.

Asian America Huping Ling, 2009-04-29 The last half century witnessed a dramatic change in the geographic, ethnographic, and socioeconomic structure of Asian American communities. While traditional enclaves were strengthened by waves of recent immigrants, native born Asian Americans also created new urban and suburban areas. Asian America is the first comprehensive look at post 1960s Asian American communities in the United States and Canada. From Chinese Americans in Chicagoland to Vietnamese Americans in Orange County, this multi disciplinary collection spans a wide comparative and panoramic scope. Contributors from an array of academic fields focus on global views of Asian American communities as well as on territorial and cultural boundaries. Presenting groundbreaking perspectives, Asian America revises worn assumptions and examines current challenges Asian American communities face in the twenty first century.

Student Mobility and Narrative in Europe Elizabeth Murphy-Lejeune, 2003-08-29 Bringing together case studies and theory, this book is the first in depth qualitative study of student migration within Europe. Drawing on the theory of the stranger as a sociological type, the author suggests that the travelling European students can be seen as a new migratory elite. The book presents the narratives of travelling students, explains their motivations, the effects of movement into a new social and cultural context, the problems of adaptation, and describes the construction of social networks and the process of adaptation to new cultures.
