Nigerian Kaleidoscope Memoirs Of A Colonial Servant:

Nigerian Kaleidoscope Rex Niven, 1982-01 Animality and Colonial Subjecthood in Africa Saheed Aderinto, 2022-05-17 With this multispecies study of animals as instrumentalities of the colonial state in Nigeria Saheed Aderinto argues that animals like humans were colonial subjects in Africa Animality and Colonial Subjecthood in Africa broadens the historiography of animal studies by putting a diverse array of species dogs horses livestock and wildlife into a single analytical framework for understanding colonialism in Nigeria and Africa as a whole From his study of animals with unequal political economic social and intellectual capabilities Aderinto establishes that the core dichotomies of human colonial subjecthood indispensable yet disposable good and bad violent but peaceful saintly and lawless were also embedded in the identities of Nigeria's animal inhabitants If class religion ethnicity location and attitude toward imperialism determined the pattern of relations between human Nigerians and the colonial government then species habitat material value threat and biological and psychological characteristics among other traits shaped imperial perspectives on animal Nigerians Conceptually sophisticated and intellectually engaging Aderinto's thesis challenges readers to rethink what constitutes history and to recognize that human agency and narrative are not the only makers of the past Nigerian Kaleidoscope Sir Rex Niven, 1982 The Making of Museums in Nigeria Amanda H. Hellman, 2023-10-16 In November 1927 Kenneth Crosthwaite Murray 1902-1972 left his family home in West Sussex England to develop the art program in the British colony of Nigeria As he traveled the country Murray saw the cultural practices and craft production of Nigerian visual material under threat and decided to collect these pieces in order to preserve understand and perhaps console during a period of great change Murray and a few of his colleagues including Edward H Duckworth Bernard E B Fagg and Ekpo Eyo and the antiquities department that they founded built seven museums before independence established export policies began calling for the return of cultural heritage and developed excavation protocol This book captures the life and legacy of Murray whose efforts helped foster an understanding of Nigerian art and culture and explores the tension that arose among the colonial government officers and Nigerians who sought to build these cultural institutions during the twilight years of the British Empire and the transition to a newly independent Nigeria Guns and Society in Colonial Nigeria Saheed Aderinto, 2018-01-06 Guns are an enduring symbol of imperialism whether they are used to impose social order create ceremonial spectacle incite panic or to inspire confidence In Guns and Society Saheed Aderinto considers the social political and economic history of these weapons in colonial Nigeria As he transcends traditional notions of warfare and militarization Aderinto reveals surprising insights into how colonialism changed access to firearms after the 19th century In doing so he explores the unusual ways in which guns were used in response to changes in the Nigerian cultural landscape More Nigerians used firearms for pastime and professional hunting in the colonial period than at any other time The boom and smoke of gunfire even became necessary elements in ceremonies and political events Aderinto argues that firearms in the Nigerian context are not simply commodities but are also objects of material culture. Considering guns in this larger context provides a clearer understanding of the ways in which they transformed a colonized society. Colonial Subjects Philip Serge Zachernuk, 2000. West African intellectuals have a long history of engaging with European intrusion by reflecting on their status as colonial and postcolonial subjects. Against the tendency to view this engagement as a confrontation between the modern west and traditional Africa, Philip S. Zachernuk argues that the interaction is far more fluid and diverse. Challenging the frequent denigration of western educated Africans as a culturally barren kleptocratic elite, Colonial Subjects shows that they occupied a shifting medial position between colonizers and colonized. In the process they created a distinctive intellectual culture grounded in indigenous and European sources. Looking carefully at southern Nigeria from 1840 to 1960, Zachernuk locates intellectuals in the contours of their society as it changed from late precolonial times to the beginning of independence. He examines their engagement with British and Black Atlantic assumptions and assertions about Africa's place in the world. These ideas, shaped by the needs of others, became the often awkward material with which these intellectuals endeavored to construct their own image of their home continent. In this context, a group of Nigerian intellectuals created a dynamic intellectual tradition motivated by self-interest and marked by innovation, counter-invention, and imitation within the confines of the Atlantic world. At different times they opposed and supported the colonial state, adopted and rejected notions of racial destiny, and advocated free market principles, cooperative self-help, and state socialism. Colonial Subjects provides a historical framework for connecting these divergent ideas, thereby recovering the complexity of an intellectual tradition both colonial and modern.

Afropolitan Horizons Ulf Hannerz, 2022-02-11. Nigeria is a country shaped by internal diversity and transnational connections, past and present. Leading Nigerian writers from Chinua Achebe, Amos Tutuola, and Wole Soyinka to Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie and Teju Cole have portrayed these Nigerian issues and have also written about some of the momentous events in Nigerian history. Afropolitan Horizons discusses their work alongside other novelists and commentators, as well as describing the ways in which Nigeria has appeared in foreign news reporting. It is all interwoven with the author's own anthropological field research in a town in Central Nigeria.

The Last Imperialist Bruce Gilley, 2021-09-21. The British Empire, one of the most powerful forces in history, was also one of the most humane. Yet at its twilight, few were willing to defy the anti-colonial reaction that condemned millions to despotism under the regimes that replaced it. Sir Alan Burns was among them. In this lively and provocative work of history, Bruce Gilley vindicates Sir Alan's view that decolonization was poorly managed and too swiftly executed, a view based not on imperialist nostalgia but on a sober assessment of the ravages of the twentieth century. Gilley demonstrates that Burns understood the benefits of colonial rule and correctly foretold the chaos that accompanied its rapid dissolution. Relying on previously unavailable documentation from Burns's family, The Last Imperialist dethrones the revisionist historians and shatters their unbalanced accusations against European colonialism. This is history writing at its most courageous.

Veils, Turbans, and Islamic Reform in

Northern Nigeria Elisha P. Renne, 2018-10-16 Veils Turbans and Islamic Reform in Northern Nigeria tells the story of Islamic reform from the perspective of dress textile production trade and pilgrimage over the past 200 years As Islamic reformers have sought to address societal problems such as poverty inequality ignorance unemployment extravagance and corruption they have used textiles as a means to express their religious positions on these concerns Home first to the early indigo trade and later to a thriving textile industry northern Nigeria has been a center for Islamic practice as well as a place where everything from women s hijabs to turbans buttons zippers short pants and military uniforms offers a statement on Islam Elisha P Renne argues that awareness of material distinctions religious ideology and the political and economic contexts from which successive Islamic reform groups have emerged is important for understanding how people in northern Nigeria continue to seek a proper Islamic way of being in the world and how they imagine their futures spiritually economically politically and environmentally

When Sex Threatened the State Saheed Aderinto, 2014-12-30 Breaking new ground in the understanding of sexuality s complex relationship to colonialism When Sex Threatened the State illuminates the attempts at regulating prostitution in colonial Nigeria As Saheed Aderinto shows British colonizers saw prostitution as an African form of sexual primitivity and a problem to be solved as part of imperialism s civilizing mission He details the Nigerian response to imported sexuality laws and the contradictory ways both African and British reformers advocated for prohibition or regulation of prostitution Tracing the tensions within diverse groups of colonizers and the colonized he reveals how wrangling over prostitution camouflaged the negotiating of separate issues that threatened the social political and sexual ideologies of Africans and Europeans alike The first book length project on sexuality in early twentieth century Nigeria When Sex Threatened the State combines the study of a colonial demimonde with an urban history of Lagos and a look at government policy to reappraise the history of Nigerian public life

Hausa Women in the Twentieth Century Catherine M. Coles, Beverly Mack, 1991-10-01 The Hausa are one of the largest ethnic groups in Africa with populations in Nigeria Niger and Ghana Their long history of city states and Islamic caliphates their complex trading economies and their cultural traditions have attracted the attention of historians political economists linguists and anthropologists The large body of scholarship on Hausa society however has assumed the subordination of women to men Hausa Women in the Twentieth Century refutes the notion that Hausa women are pawns in a patriarchal Muslim society The contributors all of whom have done field research in Hausaland explore the ways Hausa women have balanced the demands of Islamic expectations and Western choices as their society moved from a precolonial system through British colonial administration to inclusion in the modern Nigerian nation This volume examines the roles of a wide variety of women from wives and workers to political activists and mythical figures and it emphasizes that women have been educators and spiritual leaders in Hausa society since precolonial times From royalty to slaves and concubines in traditional Hausa cities and in newer towns from the urban poor to the newly educated elite the invisible women whose lives are documented here demonstrate that standard accounts of Hausa society must be revised Scholars of Hausa and neighboring West African societies will find in this collection a wealth of new material and a model of how research on women can be integrated with general accounts of Hausa social religious political and economic life For students and scholars looking at gender and women s roles cross culturally this volume provides an invaluable African perspective A History of Borno Vincent Hiribarren,2017 A history of an ancient Sahelian kingdom whose hinterland is now being laid waste by the Boko Haram insurgency A History of African Popular Culture Karin Barber,2018-01-11 Popular culture in Africa is the product of everyday life the unofficial the non canonical And it is the dynamism of this culture that makes Africa what it is In this book Karin Barber offers a journey through the history of music theatre fiction song dance poetry and film from the seventeenth century to the present day From satires created by those living in West African coastal towns in the era of the slave trade to the poetry and fiction of townships and mine compounds in South Africa and from today s East African streets where Swahili hip hop artists gather to the juggernaut of the Nollywood film industry this book weaves together a wealth of sites and scenes of cultural production In doing so it provides an ideal text for students and researchers seeking to learn more about the diversity specificity and vibrancy of popular cultural forms in African history How Books, Reading and Subscription Libraries Defined Colonial Clubland in the British Empire Sterling Joseph Coleman, Jr.,2020-05-31 How Books Reading and Subscription Libraries Defined Colonial Clubland in the British Empire argues that within an entangled web of imperial colonial and book trade networks books reading and subscription libraries contributed to a core and peripheral criteria of clubbability used by the select people clubbable settler elite to vet the proper sort clubbable indigenous elite as they culturally economically and socially navigated their way towards membership in colonial clubland As a microcosm for British controlled areas of the Caribbean Asia and Africa this book assesses the history membership growth and collection development of three colonial subscription libraries the Penang Library in Malaysia the General Library of the Institute of Jamaica and the Lagos Library in Nigeria during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries This work also examines the places these libraries occupied within the lives of their subscribers and how the British Council reorganized these colonial subscription libraries to ensure their survival and the survival of colonial clubland in a post colonial world This book is designed to accommodate historians of Britain and its empire who are unfamiliar with library history library historians who are unfamiliar with British history and book historians who are unfamiliar with both topics The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian Politics A. Carl LeVan,Patrick Ukata,2018 This volume is an authoritative and agenda setting examination of Nigerian politics Fashioning Africa Jean Allman,2004-09-09 There is a close connection between the clothes we wear and our political expression In Fashioning Africa an international group of anthropologists historians and art historians bring rich and diverse perspectives to this fascinating topic Educating the Middlemen Jan-Georg Deutsch,2021-10-11 No detailed description available for Educating the Middlemen Making Headway Andrew E. Barnes,2009 A thought provoking study of local peoples participation in the process of cultural transfer in colonial Northern Nigeria The process of cultural transfer in Northern Nigeria was historically thought to have been dictated by European colonial domination In fact Western missionaries may not have been able to guide African Christians toward mastery of the secular world when they themselves lacked the worldliness to do so In this penetrating study Andrew E Barnes argues that competition among colonizing forces impelled British colonial administrators and Christian missionaries alike to offer Africans those aspects of Western civilization Africans themselves specifically wanted schools that provided greater access to Western intellectual skills In Making Headway The Introduction of Western Civilization in Colonial Northern Nigeria Barnes demonstrates effectively that Europeans were successful in transferring to local peoples the cultural values they hoped to foster only because Africans and Europeans reached consensus about the nature and character of the Western civilization to be shared Ultimately this study asserts Africans had greater control over the introduction of Western civilization to the region than traditionally thought Andrew E Barnes is Associate Professor of History at Arizona State University The International Journal of African Historical Studies ,1984 Urban Identity and the Atlantic World E. Fay,L. von Morze,2013-02-21 The constant flow of people ideas and commodities across the Atlantic propelled the development of a public sphere Chapters explore the multiple ways in which a growing urban consciousness influenced national and international cultural and political intersections
