The New World Anthony Carelli, 2021-09-14 From an uncommonly fluent and rewarding poet The Observer a collection of miniature epics that asks can grace be found amid disarray The New World Anthony Carelli's new collection of poems is an American travelogue that unfolds in a series of darkly comic episodes with allusions to Dante as a thread throughout In these epics in miniature we meet a pilgrim poet as he awaits the arrival of his child a would be Columbus on the shores of a land disenstori ed by explorers present and past It's a land and a people largely lost in mindscapes and mythscapes haunted by sketchy aspirational visions misbegotten misremembering and emptiness Nonetheless the poet steps out to the shore to sing for the child and reader to do what Columbus never did land gently And listen and listen and listen and stay Constantly unsettling the rhetoric of inherited forms the poet shaping these poems is always bound to the pilgrim who cannot pretend to dissolve our purgatories but can only invite us as a latter day Virgil would deeper into the uncanny encounters that encircle us From an Arizona nursing home and a grandmother's memory of a stolen golden Schwinn in the occupied Philippines to a tale of road tripping west through Pennsylvania as sunrise transpires in the wrong sky The New World opens strange spaces for us to re see lament and re sing the stories we tell

The Way Down John Burt, 2014-07-14 For the sake of contraption like Frost and of character like Robinson John Burt will do a great deal and his scope and scansion require a great deal for his theme is nothing less than the reinvention of heroism King Mark Mary of Nazareth St Francis Paolo and Francesca Ariadne and the invention of a new heroics Woodrow Wilson Willard Gibbs As attentive to ekphrasis as to the sonnet's narrow room Burt feels what he knows and he knows that we can learn from the past only by repeating it A grand achievement Richard Howard Almost all these poems are narrative telling stories that turn on some small but crucial shift of sensibility One hears in them a speaking rather than a singing voice a voice which for all its formality and gravity remains oral and sociable a voice which tells things rather than spins charms Their predominant mood is lucid asperity sometimes breaking out into the angry Calvinism they always barely keep down sometimes striving to achieve a humane skepticism that always just eludes them The book consists of two sections one concerned with the cruxes and contradictions of private feeling the other with the unraveling of the public world Each section centers on a long narrative poem that culminates the building tensions of the poems that precede it and makes possible the resolutions that follow them Sonnet I from St Francis and the Wolf Saved at last not at the last of me I knelt two legged made of guttural air A little yelp to sound like human prayer The saints were cautious understandably I took the cup and managed not to drool But dreamed the wine was blood as I'd been taught And vainly curbed the vain bent of my thought I knew myself an angel felt a fool Could God have erred in making teeth and maw Then for his glory I will bite the lamb Whose terror he transmogrifies to awe That I may do his service as I am Till as I am I leap the mortal gulf To rage in heaven a perfected wolf Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Hybrids of Plants and of Ghosts Jorie Graham, 2011-11-14 How I would like to catch the world at pure idea writes Jorie Graham for whom a bird may be an alphabet and flight an arc Whatever the occasion and her work offers a rich profusion of them the poems reach to where possession is not within us where new names are needed and meaning enlarged Hence what she sees reminds her of what is missing and what she knows suggests what she cannot From any event she arcs bravely into the farthest reaches of mind Fast readers will have trouble but so what To the good reader afraid of complexity I would offer the clear trust that must bond us to such signal poems as simply to cite three appearing in
