Donovan, Elvehjem Museum of Art,1984 The Photographic Experience, 1839-1914: Images and Attitudes ,1994 Acting Out John Rohrbach,2020-06-30 Cabinet cards were America s main format for photographic portraiture throughout the last quarter of the nineteenth century Standardized at 6 x 4 inches they were just large enough to reveal extensive detail leading to the incorporation of elaborate poses backdrops and props Inexpensive and sold by the dozen they transformed getting one s portrait made from a formal event taken up once or twice in a lifetime into a commonplace practice shared with friends The cards reinforced middle class Americans sense of family They allowed people to show off their material achievements and comforts and the best cards

projected an informal immediacy that encouraged viewers to feel emotionally connected with those portrayed The experience even led sitters to act out before the camera By making photographs an easygoing fact of life the cards forecast the snapshot and today's ubiquitous photo sharing Organized by senior curator John Rohrbach Acting Out is the first ever in depth examination of the cabinet card phenomena Full color plates include over 100 cards at full size providing a highly entertaining collection of these early versions of the selfie and ultimately demonstrating how cabinet cards made photography modern Published in association with the Amon Carter Museum of American Art Tentative exhibition dates postponed due to COVID 19 Amon Carter Museum of American Art August 2020 Los Angeles County Museum of Art LACMA 2021
