Constructing Risk and Safety in Technological Practice Boel Berner, Jane Summerton, 2003-08-29 Modern technological systems entail risks and uncertainties of hitherto unknown dimensions This book discusses the construction of risk and safety within a variety of empirical contexts where technologies and their risk are debated and handled by individuals groups or organizations With contributions from leading scholars from Europe and the USA it presents original theoretical discussions linked to detailed empirical case studies

Politics on Demand Alison Dagnes, 2010-03-23 This riveting book provides a nonpartisan examination of how the technological changes and financial imperatives of the media have led to an entertainment driven news system poorly suited to report on American politics Taking on today's brave new world of political reporting Politics on Demand The Effects of 24 Hour News on American Politics examines how the technological changes and financial imperatives of the American media have led to an entertainment driven news system that cannot meet the needs of a democracy Free of partisan slant and easily accessible to all readers Politics on Demand explains the evolving media system showing how politicians use the media to sell themselves and how the media uses politicians to its own advantage The book demonstrates that with vast amounts of programming time to fill the spotlight has shifted away from substantive information to opinion which in turn has helped perpetuate partisan politics Politicians now have to contort themselves to fit within media confines and political discourse has become extreme and over simplified Combining insider interviews with facts statistics anecdotes and analysis the author herself a former C-SPAN producer argues that the American media has become harmful for our nation and a detriment to our political system

Listen And Learn - Fifteen Years Of Adult Education On The Air Frank Ernest Hill, 2013-05-31 This volume is more reportorial than scholarly It is the product of an effort to collect and relate to one another the important facts about adult education by radio past and present I have had a limited time for this effort Therefore I have attempted no research although seeking to take account of that done by others and have confined myself to reading observing interviewing and listening to broadcasts In the course of these activities I have spent several months in visiting radio stations in various parts of the country from New York to Los Angeles and have heard many hundreds of their programs I have talked both with station and network officials and with a large number of engineers educators and representatives of educational groups
