Parallax Visions Making Sense Of American East Asian Relations Asia Pacific:

Parallax Visions Bruce Cumings, 2002 Collection of essays by Cumings on the complex problems of political economy and ideology power and culture in East and Northeast Asia providing an understanding of the United States's role in these regions and the consequences for subsequent policy making The United States in the Asia-Pacific Since 1945 Roger Buckley, 2002-05-07 In a fast moving and incisive narrative Roger Buckley examines America's close and continuous relationship with the Asia Pacific region from the end of the Pacific War to the first days of the Presidency of George W Bush The author traces the responses of the United States government to the major crises in the area through the Cold War decades and the initial post Cold War years He demonstrates how the US sought to maintain its dominant regional position through a series of security alliances and its own political military and economic strengths Professor Buckley examines the subject from geopolitical perspectives to provide a gateway to the understanding of a complex region certain to be of global importance in the twenty first century China and East Asian Strategic Dynamics Mingjiang Li, Dongmin Lee, 2011-07-16 China and East Asian Strategic Dynamics the Shaping of a New Regional Order edited by Mingjiang Li and Dongmin Lee examines how China's remarkable economic growth and its proactive diplomatic efforts in recent years have not only shored up its importance in global issues but also induced a transformation of the strategic dynamics in East Asia The authors argue that major power relations in the region appear to be driven by some new momentum along with the changing international environment The contributors of this edited volume are well known scholars in their areas of specialty and the book is divided into five parts The first part discusses China's soft and hard power in East Asia The second examines China and the strategic interactions between major powers this particular section is devoted to discussion on the strategic responses of the major regional powers the United States Japan Korea India and ASEAN to China's rise Part three focuses on China's strategic approach to East Asian regionalism Of particular note are China's active leadership role in institution building efforts strategic calculations and preference for an informal approach The fourth section analyzes the Cross Taiwan Strait relations and their impact on both China and East Asia The final section of China and East Asian Strategic Dynamics addresses the issue of China and maritime order in East Asia China and East Asian Strategic Dynamics the Shaping of a New Regional Order edited by Mingjiang Li and Dongmin Lee is a pioneering work Given that the rise of China is a prominent issue in politics and economics worldwide this edited collection is essential for a wide audience of policy makers academics and students alike Imagining Our Americas Sandhya Shukla, Heidi Tinsman, 2007-07-20 Challenges the disciplinary boundaries and the assumptions underlying the fields of Latin American Studies and American U S Studies demonstrating that the Americas is a concept that transcends geographical place Korea and the Evolution of the American-Australian Relationship, 1947-53 Daniel Fazio, 2023-09-29 Fazio examines the significance of the US Australian Korean engagement 1947-53 in the evolution of the relationship between the two nations in the formative years of the Cold War In the aftermath of World War Two divergent American and Australian strategic and security interests converged and then aligned on the Korean peninsula Fazio argues that the interactions between key US and Australian officials throughout their Korean engagement were crucial to shaping the nature of the evolving relationship and the making of the alliance between the two nations The diplomacy of Percy Spender John Foster Dulles and James Plimsoll was particularly crucial He demonstrates that the American evaluation of the geo strategic significance of Korea was a significant factor in the making of the ANZUS alliance and events in Korea remained central to the evolving US Australian relationship Their Korean engagement showed the US and Australia had similar and overlapping rather than identical interests and that their relationship was much more nuanced and problematic than commonly perceived Fazio challenges the Australian mythology on the origins of the ANZUS Treaty and presents a cautionary insight into the limits of Australia s capacity to influence US policy to benefit its interests An insightful read for diplomatic historians providing greater depth to understanding the broader historical context of the trajectory of the US Australian relationship and alliance since the beginning of the Cold War

Mr. X and the Pacific Paul J. Heer, 2018-05-15 George F Kennan is well known as the preeminent American expert on the Soviet Union during the Cold War and the author of the doctrine of containment In Mr X and the Pacific Paul J Heer chronicles and assesses Kennan s work in affecting US policy toward East Asia Heer traces the origins development and bearing of Kennan s strategic perspective on the Far East during his time as director of the State Department s Policy Planning Staff from 1947 to 1950 The author follows Kennan s career and evolution of his thinking as he subsequently became a prominent critic of American participation in the Vietnam War Mr X and the Pacific offers readers a new view of Kennan revealing his importance and the totality of his role in East Asia policy his struggle with American foreign policy in the region and the ways in which Kennan s legacy still has implications for how the United States approaches the region in the twenty first century

Philosophy in Multiple Voices George Yancy, 2007-08-05 Philosophy in Multiple Voices invites transactional dialogue critical imagination and the desire to travel to enter those discursive spaces where the love of wisdom gets inflected through both lived embodiment and situational history The text raises significant meta philosophical questions around the issue of who constitutes the philosophical we through a delineation and valorization of multiple philosophical voices African American Afro Caribbean Asian American Feminist Latin American Lesbian Native American and Queer that set forth complex concerns around canon formation the relationship between philosophical discursive configurations and issues of gendered sexed racial and ethnic identities the dynamic of shifting philosophical historical trajectories differential philosophical visions sensibilities and philosophical praxes that are still largely underrepresented within the institutional confines of mainstream philosophy The text encourages philosophical heterogeneity as a value that ought to be nurtured

Conservatism and the Kissinger-Mao Axis Lam Lai Sing, 2015-05-20 Kissinger's dual purpose instrument of the US China and US Soviet détente was devised to achieve a stable balance of power in the contemporary world in the second half of the 1960s Stimulated by both Kissinger's doctrine and the historical novel the Romance of the Three Kingdoms Mao's global order of tripolarity was created to feature the new US China relations in the early 1970s with his initiative of the ping pong diplomacy through this Kissinger Mao axis This made his quest for a modernization revolution possible with the Western market oriented approach Strengthening Mao's modernization program Xiaoping's good neighborhood policy was designed to induce the world to help modernize China Vitally including Russia with the collapse of the Soviet Union Deng's policy helped maintain a peaceful and stable international environment though it also marked the end of Mao's global order Perceiving the PRC's rise as a threat to its dominance in the Asia Pacific region the US containment effort was enhanced with US Japanese collusion and siding with the Philippines and Vietnam in relevant maritime disputes with the PRC The US united with the Republic of Korea nations in Southeast Asia and Australia in establishing a wide range alliance to go against the China threat The post Cold War eastward expansion of the US led NATO and the Russian determination to be a great power again contributed to tension with the United States The Russian desire to maintain its nuclear deterrent capability was at odds with the US missile defense plans Thus the US deployment of its missile shield in Eastern Europe as part of its strategic configuration in Alaska and the Far East was to contain Russia from both the Far East and Europe

National Pasts in Europe and East Asia Peter Wallace Preston,2010 With the rise of industrial capitalism in Europe and the related imposition of colonial rule in much of East Asia both Europe and East Asia have intertwined histories that continue to shape their political thinking and political decision making The contemporary interactions of the two regions now once again major trading partners will both depend upon and facilitate deeper understandings of their respective sets of national pasts This book compares national pasts as well as the current processes of change taking place in Europe and East Asia including the dynamics of the European Union in Europe and the re emergence of the historical centre of China in East Asia It argues that as the change unfolds in the economic social and political fields the various national pasts embedded with the polities of the two regions will also need to be revisited and reworked This book makes an invaluable contribution to research on comparative politics as well as studies on South East Asia and Europe
