Desplat, Dorothea E. Schulz, 2014-03-15 This volume envisions social practices surrounding mosques shrines and public spaces in urban contexts as a window on the diverse ways in which Muslims in different regional and historical settings imagine experience and inhabit places and spaces as sacred Unlike most studies on Muslim communities this volume focuses on cultural material and sensuous practices and urban everyday experience Drawing on a range of analytical perspectives the contributions examine spatial practices in Muslim societies from an interdisciplinary perspective an approach which has been widely neglected both in Islamic studies and social sciences The Prospect of Global History James Belich, John Darwin, Margret Frenz, Chris Wickham, 2016-02-11 The Prospect of Global History takes a new approach to the study of global history seeking to apply it rather than advocate it The volume seeks perspectives on history from East Asian and Islamic sources as well as European ones and insists on depth in historical analysis The Prospect of Global History will speak to those interested in medieval and ancient history as well as modern history Chapters range from historical sociology to economic history from medieval to modern times from European expansion to constitutional history and from the United States across South Asia to China
