Redouté Carolyn Croll,1996 Tells the story in words and pictures of the artist who at thirteen left home to seek his fortune painting what he loved most flowers StoryCraft Martha Seif Simpson,Lynne Perrigo,2015-11-17 While storytelling is a great favorite of preschoolers many elementary age children are more drawn to crafts and other activities StoryCraft is an award winning library program that combines storytelling with crafts in an exciting and engaging activity for children in first through third grades Each one hour program includes storytelling a craft movement activities music and discussion This collection of StoryCraft programs presents 50 fun and educational theme based sessions Each includes suggestions for promotion music crafts activities and stories The sessions also include bibliographies to help direct young readers toward additional reading as well as diagrams detailed instructions and supply lists for the crafts The themes range from a Jungle Safari to Math Mayhem to a Western Roundup all encouraging children to enjoy reading in a variety of ways Each session has plenty of suggestions so that the program can be customized Helpful Hints for implementing the program can help any librarian volunteer or parent turn a ho hum storytime into a dazzling StoryCraft time Story Of The World #3 Early Modern Times Activity Book S. Wise Bauer,Susan Wise Bauer,2004-09-28 Presents a history of the ancient world from 6000 B C to 400 A D Redouté's Fairest Flowers Pierre Joseph Redouté,Martyn Rix,1987 Presents watercolors of hundreds of species of flowers and describes the characteristics and background of each plant Reading the Landscape of Europe May Theilgaard Watts,2009 Come along on a field trip with the esteemed American naturalist May Theilgaard Watts to see how nature history and culture have written their stories on the landscapes of Italy France Switzerland Germany Denmark Norway and Britain She makes a lively guide knowledgeable literary witty and opinionated drawing on botany ecology and geography as well as literature and folklore to explain how a place came to look and feel the way it does In this sequel to her popular book Reading the Landscape of America Watts explored the hills of Italy the grouse heath of Britain the Black Forest of Germany the limestone plateaus of France and much more explaining the forces that shaped these landscapes and continue to change them Illustrated with dozens of pen and ink by the author Includes a key to identifying the trees of Europe The Hunger Moon Marge Piercy,2011-03-08 This new gathering of Marge Piercy s poems energetic funny political full of vitality brings us the heart of her mature work the first selected since Circles on the Water in 1982 Here are poems that chart the milestone events and fierce passions of her middle years the death of her mother whom we meet first as a young woman awkwardly lovely her face pure as a single trill perfectly prolonged on a violin and again as an older woman musing on what the afterlife may hold for her There is a new marriage which she celebrates not only for romantic beginnings but also for the more intimate details that emerge over time love cherishes too the backpockets the pencil ends of childhood fears Some poems convey her long held never wavering political convictions which she declares in language unmistakably and colorfully her own as when she encourages her feminist readers to go to the opera instead of the movies because at least there the heroine is real fifty and weighs as much as a 65 Chevy with fins Living out to sea on Cape Cod settles her into the rhythm of seasons and provides poems of planting and harvests odes to tomatoes and roses tributes to the power and freedom of whales And in these years she rediscovers her Jewish heritage celebrating holidays and making of them something new and original She begins to examine her own legacy I have worn the faces the masks of hieroglyphs gods and demons bat faced ghosts sibyls and thieves lover loser red rose and ragweed these are the tracks I have left on the white crust of time Picture This Denise I. Matulka,1997-12-09 Picture books for young adults can provide a unique introduction to curriculum related topics that will capture student interest This annotated bibliography of over 600 picture books for students in grades 8 through 12 is organized by content area and will enable teachers and library media specialists to select appropriate books for use with students Picture books provide an extraordinary opportunity to combine illustration and thoroughly researched text to introduce topics in the arts health literature mathematics science and social science content areas They can be used together with companion titles or as springboards to stimulate student interest No longer just for children picture books have matured in the last decade to become a format for all ages The recommended fiction and nonfiction titles in this resource have been carefully selected as appropriate for older readers because of their sophisticated content Almost all have been published in the late 1980s through 1996 For ease of use by the teacher or young adult librarian the bibliography is arranged into six content areas the arts health literature and language mathematics science and nature and social studies and history Within each content area entries are organized alphabetically by author Each annotation includes the book s content subject breakdown artistic style and medium suggested companion titles and ideas for use in the classroom Annotations are numbered for ease of use and indexed by subject author and illustrator Appendixes include a glossary of terms used to describe picture books a checklist to guide teachers and students when using picture books and a list of professional sources that will assist teachers in exploring the picture book format This easy to use guide is an indispensable resource for teachers and librarians seeking to motivate students and stimulate their interest
