Sipapu, 1970

From a Native Son Ward Churchill, 1996 Ward Churchill has emerged over the past decade as one of the strongest and most influential voices of native resistance in North America

From a Native Son collects his most important and unflinching essays which explore the themes of Atlas of the North American Indian Carl Waldman, Molly Braun, 2009 Presents an illustrated reference that covers the history culture and tribal distribution of North American Indians The British Museum Encyclopedia of Native North America Rayna Green, Melanie Fernandez, 1999 This encyclopedia explores American Indian history from a Native perspective through alphabetical entries on events issues contemporary and historical art mythology gender roles economics contact between Indians and Europeans political sovereignty and self determination land and environment Book jacket Red Power Alvin M. Josephy, Joane Nagel, Troy R. Johnson, 1999-01-01 Red Power is a classic documentary history of the American Indian activist movement This landmark second edition considerably expands and updates the original illustrating the development of American Indian political activism from the 1960s through the end of the twentieth century Included in the fifty selections are influential statements by Indian organizations and congressional committees the texts of significant laws and the articulate voices of individuals such as Clyde Warrior Vine Deloria Jr Dennis Banks Wilma Mankiller Ada Deer and Russell Means The selections are organized around key issues the nature of the original Red Power protest tribal identity self determination and sovereignty land claims and economic development cultural traditions and spirituality education and reservation conditions

American Indian Ethnic Renewal Joane Nagel, 1997-09-25 Does activism matter This book answers with a clear yes American Indian Ethnic Renewal traces the growth of the American Indian population over the past forty years when the number of Native Americans grew from fewer than one half million in 1950 to nearly 2 million in 1990 This quadrupling of the American Indian population cannot be explained by rising birth rates declining death rates or immigration Instead the growth in the number of American Indians is the result of an increased willingness of Americans to identify themselves as Indians What is driving this increased ethnic identification In American Indian Ethnic Renewal Joane Nagel identifies several historical forces which have converged to create an urban Indian population base a reservation and urban Indian organizational infrastructure and a broad cultural climate of ethnic pride and militancy Central among these forces was federal Indian Termination policy which ironically was designed to assimilate and de tribalize Native America Reactions against Termination were nurtured by the Civil Rights era atmosphere of ethnic pride to become a central focus of the native rights activist movement known as Red Power This resurgence of American Indian ethnic pride inspired increased Indian ethnic identification launched a renaissance in American Indian culture language art and spirituality and eventually contributed to the replacement of Termination with new federal policies affirming tribal Self Determination American Indian Ethnic Renewal offers a general theory of ethnic resurgence which stresses both structure and agency the role of politics and the importance of collective and individual action in understanding how ethnic groups revitalize and reinvent themselves Scholars and students of American Indians social movements and activism and recent United States history as well as the general reader interested in Native American life will all find this an engaging and informative work
