used to communicate in matters of love and romance The language differs from book to book country to country To place the language of flowers in social and literary perspective the author examines the nineteenth century uses of flowers in everyday life and in ceremonies and rituals and provides a brief history of floral symbolism She also discusses the sentimental flower book a genre especially intended for female readers Two especially valuable features of the book are its table of correlations of flowers and their meanings from different sourcebooks and its complete bibliography of language of flower titles This book will appeal not only to scholars in Victorian studies and women s studies but also to art historians book collectors museum curators historians of horticulture and anyone interested in nineteenth century popular culture Flowers and Towers Nira Tessler, 2015-11-25 This book explores the meaning and symbolism of the flower motif in the art of women artists from the nineteenth century to the present day It begins with a discussion of the symbolic significance of the flower in canonical texts such as the Song of Songs in which the female lover is likened to a lily among the thorns and to an enclosed garden These allegorical images permeated into Christian iconography attaining various expressions in the plastic arts from the twelfth through nineteenth centuries The heart of the book is a discussion of the meaning of the change in representations of the flower and at the same time the appearance of amazing images of masculine skyscrapers in the works of avant garde American women artists during the 1920s and 30s in three hubs of Modernist art New York California and Mexico Tessler explains how modernist artists of various fields of art such as Glaspell Stettheimer O Keeffe Pelton Cunningham Mather Modotti and Kahlo were aware of the religious symbolism of the flower in Judaism and Christianity and turned it into an emblem of the new modern woman with her own views of the world Flowers and Towers concludes by presenting the works of contemporary feminist American artists such as Chicago and Schapiro who pay tribute to those same Modernist artists by creating a new and daring image of the flower and using feminine materials and techniques that link them as it were to their The Ebsworth Collection Bruce Robertson, Charles Brock, Seattle Art Museum, 1999 This book the spiritual mothers companion volume to an exhibition at the National Gallery of Art Washington and the Seattle Art Museum showcases the extraordinary collection of modern American masterworks assembled by Barney A Ebsworth a St Louis businessman The collection includes paintings sculpture and works on paper by artists such as Patrick Henry Bruce Alexander Calder Willem de Kooning Marsden Hartley David Hockney Edward Hopper Jasper Johns Jackson Pollock Charles Sheeler and Wayne Thiebaud With more than 135 illustrations and an illuminating essay by distinguished art historian Bruce Robertson this book will be a revelation to anyone who loves 20th century American art Made From This Earth Vera Norwood, 2014-07-01 The broad sweep of environmental and ecological history has until now been written and understood in predominantly male terms In Made From This Earth Vera Norwood explores the relationship of women to the natural environment through the work of writers illustrators landscape and garden designers ornithologists botanists biologists and conservationists Norwood begins by showing that the study and promotion of botany was an activity deemed appropriate for women in the early 1800s

After highlighting the work of nineteenth century scientific illustrators and garden designers she focuses on nature s advocates such as Rachel Carson and Dian Fossey who differed strongly with men on both women s nature and the value of the natural world These women challenged the dominant male controlled ideologies often framing their critique with reference to values arising from the female experience Norwood concludes with an analysis of the utopian solutions posed by ecofeminists the most recent group of women to contest men over the meaning and value of nature *New York Magazine*, 1984-05-14 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
