

FAITH REFLECTIONS

10 HEBREWS:

15. The Holy Spirit also testifies to us about this.

First he says: 16 "This is the covenant I will make with them after that time, says the Lord. I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds."

17 Then he adds: "Their sins and lawless acts I will remember no more."

AMEN

Religious Poems Harriet Beecher Stowe,2021-05-19 In Religious Poems Harriet Beecher Stowe intertwines faith and poetic expression offering readers a deeply personal yet universally resonant exploration of spirituality The collection showcases her mastery of various poetic forms and a lyrical style that is both emotive and contemplative Set against the backdrop of a mid 19th century America grappling with moral and ethical dilemmas Stowe s verses reflect her unwavering commitment to social justice particularly in the context of abolitionist sentiments and the religious fervor that characterized her era Her poetry transcends mere religious sentiment engaging with profound theological questions and personal reflections on the human experience Harriet Beecher Stowe renowned for her influential novel Uncle Tom s Cabin was also a devout Christian and an ardent abolitionist whose beliefs shaped her literary pursuits Born into a family of prominent abolitionists she was deeply affected by the social injustices of her time which fueled her desire to advocate for change through her literary voice Stowe s background and experiences as a mother and a reformer provided fertile ground for the poignant themes explored in her poetry rooted in her faith and the quest for moral righteousness Religious Poems is a compelling read for those interested in the intricate relationship between literature and spirituality Readers will find not only a profound exploration of faith but also an enduring call to social action Stowe s eloquent verses invite contemplation making this collection indispensable for anyone seeking to understand the power of poetry as a vehicle for both individual reflection and societal change

An Honest Faith Keith Mascord,2025-02-06 An Honest Faith tackles the thorny question of whether Christian faith is compatible with the questing and questioning spirit of philosophy The author argues that a mutually productive friendship between Athens philosophy science and Jerusalem theology faith is possible and in fact necessary given that various forms of the faith resist questioning and therefore end up holding onto outdated unsupported and damaging beliefs for example on matters of gender and sexuality The author draws upon his own experiences in the conservative Anglican Diocese of Sydney and his teaching career in philosophy to issue a challenge to Christians to have an honest faith and not hold back from the quest for answers which lies at the heart of religion philosophy and science The book s first half which can be characterized as an exercise in faith deconstruction lays out a number of the more serious challenges to historic or traditional Christian faith while noting its rapid demise in Australia the US the UK and throughout the Western world The book's second half recommends a careful reconstruction or reformation of the faith

Inspiring Faith Communities Michael Hurley, 2020-11-21 The great value of this book is that it helps people to explore together how they can live life more fully and with authentic freedom It has all the more relevance today in an impact of Covid 19 is to push us to a new depth of interiority and to seek new answers that give meaning and vitality This book has three distinct parts Part one outlines three convictions that guide its direction and the program it describes Firstly God desires what is best for all people and invites each one personally to know him and to live with responsible freedom self determination and confidence in his wisdom and mercy Secondly every baptized Christian is called to evangelize namely to reach out beyond themselves in a way that proclaims and expresses the goodness of God through action and words and thus enriches those whom they meet Thirdly the parish is an important entity in the renewal of God s people as a dwelling place of God among them Here people meet in communion with one another to worship God to encounter him and to be send forth The author admits that these three convictions are deeply held by him and have provided compass points for his ministry Part two is the central core of the book It outlines a program that gives flesh and reality to its three underpinning convictions It provides a practical step by step outline for people to plan launch and direct the program in a way that helps participants come to know God s providence and love amid the contradictions and joys of daily living and live as his beloved children It then forms and inspires them to live their relationships in a spirit of joyful service and with love towards all whom they meet and in a way that enhances renewal and community connections within their parish Each week presents an important facet of Christian living in a style that is easy to follow while at the same time inspirational It all means that hosting this program is within the capacity of anyone who knows a genuine encounter with God and a desire to share his love with others Part three consists of a scripture passage and a brief reflection for each day for the duration of the program It supports the theme of each week It seeks to help people to pray with the help of the scriptures to inspire a new or more personal relationship with Christ and to yield to the mystery of God s loving Then what may have proved to be elusive in the past becomes part of one s own personal story Part three can equally be looked upon as a booklet which stands on its own and which can be used with profound effect as a personal support in recognizing God who is continually searching for them In an easy to read style this book will provide possibilities and sightlines for individuals communities and parishes in their search for authentic freedom renewal and community It's a Faith Thing: Inspiration for Transformation Yolanda
