Why Nude? Howard Anderson, 2016-10-19 In our enlightened modern world which celebrates multicultural diversity it is not too much to ask to have complete freedom of dress for reasons of religion culture and personal belief The World Naked Bike Rides have shown that this celebration of diversity has indeed extended at least in part to embrace social nudity in the UK and in many other Western countries The author s personal experience of these rides and the reactions of others towards social nudity in settings outside of the traditional naturist clubs has resulted in this exploration of the whole issue presented here in the hope that others may come to understand better what many find to be an uplifting and affirming way of life This work discusses being nude in a social setting The author shows why people choose to live at least part of their lives without clothes that doing so is very enjoyable and that it offers a number of valuable benefits The author also demonstrates how one can cultivate this freedom from pressure to conform in daily life The Reclining Nude Emma Wilson, 2019 This book a sensuous evocation of images of the reclining nude claims a female identified pleasure in looking Agn s Varda Catherine Breillat and Nan Goldin are re imagining images of female beauty display auto eroticism and intimacy The reclining nude is compelling for female identified artists in the ethically adventurous politically complex feminist issues it engages Text Into Image, Image Into Text Jeffrey Morrison, Florian Krobb, 1997 This is a truly interdisciplinary work Whilst all of the contributions focus upon the central problem of the relationship between literature and the visual arts they come from contributors working in a large number of different areas Represented are academics from the worlds of German studies French studies English studies art history and film studies in literature etc Glamourfiles KEVIN JAMES, 2012-03-25 36 Cover images from Glamourfiles magazine 2008 2010 in both colour and black white Text Into Image , 1997 Text into Image Image into Text is a truly interdisciplinary publication Whilst all of the contributions focus upon the central problem of the relationship between literature and the visual arts one which has lost nothing of its fascination as the debate has expanded in numerous forms from antiquity into the realm of postmodern theory they come from contributors working in a large number of different areas Represented are academics from the worlds of German Studies French Studies English Studies Art History and Film Studies Given their backgrounds each of the contributors can offer a different perspective upon the core issue of translation between media but perhaps most valuable is the combination of perspectives made possible by the arrangement of the volume into sections dealing with aspects of the image text debate In the same way that the volume gains by ranging across traditional disciplinary boundaries so it also gains from dealing with a wide range of historical material from to take only one possible route Baroque iconography through Romantic imagery to Expressionist agony

Mother Earth Bulletin Emma Goldman, Alexander Berkman, 1912 Adrian Stokes Stephen Kite, 2017-12-02 Adrian Stokes 1902-72 aesthete critic painter and poet is among the most original and creative writers on art of the twentieth century He was the author of over twenty critical books and numerous papers for example the remarkable series of books published in the 1930s The Quattro Cento 1932 Stones of Rimini 1934 and Colour and Form 1937 that embraced Mediterranean culture and modernity His criticism extends the evocative English aesthetic tradition of Walter Pater and John Ruskin into the present endowed by a stern sensibility to the consolations offered by art and architecture and the insights that psychoanalysis affords Indeed for Stokes architecture provides the entree into art and this book is the first study to comprehensively examine Stokes's theory of art from a specifically architectonic perspective The volume explores the crucial experiences through which this architectonic awareness evolved traces the influence upon Stokes of places texts and personalities and examines how his theory of art developed and matured The argument is supported by appropriate illustrations to confirm the evidence that Stokes's claim for architecture as mother of the arts carries the deepest experiential and psychological import Ideologies of the Real in Title Sequences, Motion Graphics and Cinema Michael

Betancourt, 2019-08-13 This book explores the question of realism in motion pictures Specifically it explores how understanding the role of realism in the history of title sequences in film can illuminate discussions raised by the advent of digital cinema Ideologies of the Real in Title Sequences Motion Graphics and Cinema fills a critical and theoretical void in the existing literature on motion graphics Developed from careful analysis of Andr Bazin Stanley Cavell and Giles Deleuze's approaches to cinematic realism this analysis uses title sequences to engage the interface between narrative and non narrative media to consider cinematic realism in depth through highly detailed close readings of the title sequences for Bullitt 1968 Kolchak The Night Stalker 1974 The Number 23 2007 The Kingdom 2008 Blade Runner 2049 2017 and the James Bond films From this critique author Michael Betancourt develops a modal approach to cinematic realism where ontology is irrelevant to indexicality His analysis shows the continuity between historical analogue film and contemporary digital motion pictures by developing a framework for rethinking how realism shapes interpretation Mother Earth , 1912

The Art of Reflection Marsha Meskimmon, 1996 Marsha Meskimmon examines a wide variety of women's self portraiture from performance to body art in lively and accessible prose She takes the cultural focus from the dominant male self portraiture to the more marginalized gender bringing women artists' perspectives to the forefront Reflections James O. Jeffers, 2003 The book chronicles James Jeffers' life from about age two but it purposefully falls short of being either memoirs or autobiography With this work he has attempted to simply record for his children grandchildren and others the wonderful events of his life as he experienced them The book covers thousands of miles of travel along with living and working with peoples of differing cultures on three continents and in the Caribbean five foreign countries and fifteen different states spanning the nation from coast to coast to coast Encyclopedia of Comparative Iconography Helene E. Roberts, 2013-09-05 First published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Hard to Imagine Thomas Waugh, 1996 Waugh identifies four primary aspects of homoerotic photography and film the artistic the commercial the illicit and the politico scientific tracing their development against a background of advances in visual technology This comprehensive work explores a vast eclectic tradition in its totality analyzing the visual imagery in addition to its production circulation and consumption Between Art Practice and Psychoanalysis Mid-Twentieth Century Beth Williamson, 2017-07-05 The work of mid twentieth century art theorist Anton Ehrenzweig is explored in this original and timely study An analysis of the dynamic and invigorating intellectual influences institutional framework and legacy of his work Between Art Practice and Psychoanalysis reveals the context within which Ehrenzweig worked how that influenced him and those artists with whom he worked closely Beth Williamson looks to the writing of Melanie Klein Marion Milner Adrian Stokes and others to elaborate Ehrenzweig s theory of art a theory that extends beyond the visual arts to music In this first full length study on his work including an inventory of his library previously unexamined archival material and unseen artworks sit at the heart of a book that examines Ehrenzweig s working relationships with important British artists such as Bridget Riley Eduardo Paolozzi and other members of the Independent Group in London in the 1950s and 1960s In Ehrenzweig s second book The Hidden Order of Art 1967 his thinking on Jackson Pollock is important too It was this book that inspired American artists Robert Rauschenberg and Robert Morris when they deployed his concept of differentiation Here Williamson offers new readings of process art c 1970 showing how Ehrenzweig s aesthetic retains relevance beyond the immediate post war era Defending the Masses Eric B. Easton, 2018-01-09 As muckrakers feminists pacifists anarchists socialists and communists were arrested or censored for their outspoken views many of them turned to a Manhattan lawyer named Gilbert Roe to keep them in business and out of jail In articulating and upholding Americans fundamental right to free expression against charges of obscenity libel espionage sedition or conspiracy during turbulent times Roe was rarely successful in the courts His greatest victory was the influential 1917 decision by Judge Learned Hand in The Masses Publishing Co v Patten Roe s battles illuminate the evolution of free speech doctrine and practice in an era when it was under heavy assault Back cover Frederic Leighton Keren Rosa Hammerschlag, 2017-07-05 Keren Rosa Hammerschlag s Frederic Leighton Death Mortality Resurrection offers a timely reexamination of the art of the late Victorian period s most institutionally powerful artist Frederic Lord Leighton 1830 1896 As President of the Royal Academy from 1878 to 1896 Leighton was committed to the pursuit of beauty in art through the depiction of classical subjects executed according to an academic working method But as this book reveals Leighton s art and discourse were beset by the realisation that academic art would likely die with him Rather than achieving classical perfection Hammerschlag argues Leighton s figures hover in transitional states between realism and idealism flesh and marble life and death as gothic distortions of the classical ideal The author undertakes close readings of key paintings sculptures frescos and drawings in Leighton s oeuvre and situates them in the context of contemporaneous debates about death and resurrection in theology archaeology and medicine The outcome is a pleasurable macabre counter biography that reconfigures what it meant to be not just a late Victorian neoclassicist and royal academician but President of the Victorian Royal Academy Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library.
