Understanding and Developing Theological Education Bernhard Ott, 2016-01-31 Historically education has been driven from behind the history and above the educational institution Traditions and adherence requirements have led to inflexible models of school leadership that are focused on administration and rife with educational politics In contrast today's theological landscape needs institutions with a grassroots driven educational system looking to a future that is biblically and theologically grounded This publication an English translation from the original German focuses on the leadership and curriculum development required for such a paradigm shift Ott comprehensively assesses trends in current theological education across the world with detailed reference to wider trends in global tertiary education Written primarily for those in leadership roles at theological schools and training institutions this handbook is an essential resource for equipping the next generation of leaders in theological education

Groeschel, 2011-04-11 This clear and unequivocal call for personal reform as the basis of authentic renewal in society and in the Church is rooted in several sources The work of an internationally recognized Biblical scholar Rudolph Schnackenburg is woven in with the observations of contemporary social critics as well as behavioral scientists The author does not spare anyone's feelings in an attempt at a critical and objective analysis of the serious problems of the Catholic Church and mainstream religious denominations in America This book definitively places the onus for reform on the individual Christian striving to follow the Gospel in our materialistic and selfish culture Because of its roots in Scripture and in the long history of reform in the Church this book offers the reader a well founded hope that the first signs of real renewal in the Church are beginning to appear Includes index Father Groeschel has written the book for the Church in the 90's He is right on target He has said clearly and prophetically what must be said before it is too late namely that all true Christian renewal must be rooted in personal ongoing conversion I found reading the book as valuable as making a retreat Father
