through a series of symposia with the top film critics programmers and preservationists in the United States and beyond This volume compiles several of these symposia Film Criticism in America Today 2000 International Film Criticism Today 2005 Film Criticism in the Age of the Internet 2008 Film Criticism The Next Generation 2013 The Art of Repertory Film Exhibition and Digital Age Challenges 2010 and Film Preservation in the Digital Age 2011 It also includes interviews with the late celebrated New Yorker film critic Pauline Kael and the critic John Bloom Joe Bob Briggs as well as interviews with the programmers curators Peter von Bagh and Mark Cousins and with the film preservationist George Feltenstein This authoritative collection of primary source documents will be essential reading for scholars students and film enthusiasts

Building a New China in Cinema Laikwan Pang, 2002 Building a New China in Cinema introduces English readers for the first time to one of the most exciting left wing cinema traditions in the world This unique book explores the history ideology and aesthetics of China s left wing cinema movement a quixotic film culture that was as political as commercial as militant as sensationalist Originating in the 1930s it marked the first systematic intellectual involvement in Chinese cinema In this era of turmoil and idealism the movement's films were characterized by fantasies of heroism intertwined with the inescapable spell of impotency thus exposing the contradictions of the filmmakers underlying ideology as their political and artistic agendas alternately fought against or catered to the taste and viewing habits of a popular audience Political cinema became a commercially successful industry resulting in a film culture that has never been replicated Drawing on detailed archival research Pang demonstrates that this cinema movement was a product of the era's social economic and political discourses The author offers a close analysis of many rarely seen films richly illustrated with over eighty stills collected from the Beijing Film Archive With its original conceptual approach and rich use of primary sources this book will be of interest not only to scholars and fans of Chinese cinema but to those who study the relationship between cinema and modernity

A Mirror for England Raymond Durgnat, 2019-07-25 Raymond Durgnat's classic study of British films from the 1940s to the 1960s first published in 1970 remains one of the most important books ever written on British cinema In his introduction Kevin Gough Yates writes Even now it astounds by its courage and its audacity if you think you have an original approach to a film or a director's work and check it against A Mirror for England you generally discover that Raymond Durgnat had said it already. Durgnat himself said about the book that the main point was arranging a kind of rendezvous between thinking about movies and thinking not so much about sociology as about the experiences that people are having all the time. Durgnat used Mirror to assert the validity of British cinema against its dismissal by the critics of Cahiers du cinéma and Sight and Sound. His analysis takes in classics such as In Which We Serve 1942, A Matter of Life and Death 1946 and The Blue Lamp 1949 alongside B films and popular genres such as Hammer horror. Durgnat makes a cogent and compelling case for the success of British films in reflecting British predicaments, moods and myths at the same time as providing some disturbing new insights into a national character by whose enigmas and contradictions we continue to be perplexed and fascinated. For Kids of
